Mayor Announces 1976 Tax Rate

Remarks of Mayor Kevin H. White to Radio and Television Audiences, September 16, 1976.

Good evening.

Every year it's the Mayor's job to announce the tax rate. In 1972, 1973, in 1974, and in 1975, Boston was one of the only big cities in the country to have no tax-rate increase.

Four straight years without new taxes.

This year in 1976, we will have the largest tax-rate increase in our history.

Now, before you change the channel or turn off the television, I ask you to listen for a moment to how this happened and what we can do — if you do not care — no one else will.

The tax rate went up this year — more than 28 percent — due to several reasons.

First, this year we were given less money than we received in the past. As a matter of fact, we received 60 percent less money from the federal government this year than last.

Second, the state gave us less money this year than last.

Third, and most important, the Department of Social Services costs in this city are totally out of control.

Fourth, school spending accounts for almost 40 percent of this year's tax increase.

We do not appreciate fully the incredible fact that school costs have added to the tax rate of this city, one if you look at the record.

In 1972, overall city costs — including all the services we provide to the people of this city — increased only 6 percent, but in that same period of time, school costs have gone up 134 percent. Now, to give you an idea. If we closed all the schools and gave the money we spend, $2,500 per pupil, to the parents, every child could go to the most expensive of prep schools in New England. The problem of school spending can be stated very simply.

Your hard-earned tax dollars support the richest, the fattest, and the least accountable school system in the country.

Obviously, the time has come for the people of this city to recognize certain facts.

No matter how much we cut services, lay off workers, or practice austerity, we will bankrupt this city if we don't get school costs under control; and even if we do this, it is not enough to halt tax-rate increases in the future.

A new source of revenue is needed — for the property owner and the rent payer can no longer carry the expense.

What can we do?

There are two things we can do, but we must do them now. And to do them, I will desperately need your help.

First, we must change the City Charter to restrain excessive school expenditures.

Second, to lighten the load for the homeowner and rent payer, I will propose immediately to the Governor and the Legislature that they give us the right to create a temporary employer's tax to be paid by businesses in Boston.

Every day 300,000 people come to work in Boston and use this city, but do not pay for its services. This is unfair. It is not right.

So, I will fight, not for charity, but for justice — for a debt long overdue and owed to this city.

If you think we are right, let us know. Write me — call City Hall.

I will need your support.

In the meantime, this year's bill, for the school costs, for the loss of state and federal aid must be paid.

It is an increase of $56.20. The total yearly tax rate is now $252.90 per $1,000 of assessed valuation.

I would warn, no answers will be found in giving political speeches or leading demonstrations or blaming everyone else.

All of us — including the Mayor — share a measure of responsibility for what has happened.

1976 Tax Rate . . .

But our obligation from this moment on is to preserve the soul and the character of this city, by responding intelligently to her financial needs.

I ask for your help.

IHUB'S THEATRE DISTRICT REVITALIZED

*Remarks by Mayor Kevin H. White,
September 14, 1976*

The 1976-77 season of musical, comedy, and dramatic theater will brighten Boston's theater district like no other season in recent years. Boston's reputation as one of the nation's leading tryout and touring cities can be reaffirmed if Bostonians attend this season's shows as eagerly as they did last season's.

There is an unequalled enthusiasm for and appreciation of culture in Boston, as anyone who was in our city this summer will agree. From July Fourth on the Esplanade, to the Tall Ships' visit, to the reopening of the Quincy Market, hundreds of thousands of residents and visitors have come together with pride and respect for a city whose richly unique combination of old and new is her vitality. Enthusiasm and vitality apply to our theater district as well.

Boston is competing with cities such as Los Angeles, Washington, D.C., Toronto, and Detroit for Broadway tryouts and touring shows, largely because these cities have established increasing audiences of Theater Guild-American Theater Society subscribers, guaranteeing producers a certain amount of prepaid revenue. Boston's local Theater Guild subscription list has been decreasing, and twelve of the sixteen productions at three major Boston houses this season are available through subscription.

The people of Boston can insure continued good theater in Boston by getting their names on that subscription list whenever possible.

The City of Boston and New York producers and theater owners have taken the first step toward keeping our theater district alive and well through the revitalization of the area. Special thanks go to Gerald Schoenfeld of the Shubert organization for his contribution to the city for the purchase of two Cushman cart street cleaners for the theater district. I urge the people of Boston to take that next step by supporting our finest theater season in many years.

FACT SHEET

Accomplishments to date in revitalizing Boston's theater district, per recommendations set forth by the Mayor's Task Force on Urban Theaters:

—Increased and more visible police protection in the theater district before, during, and after performances (including two mounted police from 6 p.m. to 1:30 a.m., seven days a week).

—New street lights and sidewalks installed on Tremont Street.

—MBTA committed to refurbishing Boylston Station in fall, 1976.

—Regular cleanup of theater district stepped up and maintained.

Current projects underway revitalizing Boston's theater district per recommendations set forth by the Mayor's Task Force on Urban Theaters:

—Submission to the National Endowment for the Arts by Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs a proposal for a visual arts grant to fund a light mural for the Children's Playhouse wall.

—Collaboration with the Theater Guild-American Theater Society in New York to improve Boston subscription list.

—Work with Boston media to create a media committee to nurture the city's theater image.

—Planned creation of a "Theater District Committee," composed of area theater managers, which will meet monthly to share common problems and solutions.

MAYOR MOVES FOR PAYROLL EXCISE TAX

Mayor Kevin White has declared he is optimistic that the Legislature, in its current session, a payroll excise tax that would free Boston dependence on the property tax and avoid another increase such as $6.20 already announced.

On Thursday, September 16, the Mayor announced in a televised event that the present tax rate of $196.70, which had been stable since 1972, would jump to $252.90, the largest increase in Boston history. The Mayor noted that "the richest, the fattest, and the least accountable school system in the country" had this year ballooned its share of the overall rate by 80 percent, while the city's share had increased 13 percent. In the weeks ahead, he noted, he will outline a plan for charter management of School Department management.

During the past two weeks, the Mayor has met twice with the Governor, with legislative leaders, businessmen, and real estate brokers to garner immediate support for a payroll excise tax. A redraft is now being prepared for legislation that would impose a temporary 1 percent tax on employers' payrolls, thereby generating $35 million annually for the city. Through this type of levy, the city could raise revenue from the 300,000 commuters, who enter and out of the city daily, and also from tax-exempt institutions, effective next January 1.

The real victims of this tax rate increase are obviously the people who must pay the bill," the Mayor said. Families struggling to give their children a college education, to keep pace with escalating bills for fuel, fuel, and other necessities — especially the thousands of families with unemployed breadwinners — will be forced to sacrifice their homes.

Early on fixed incomes will be squeezed to convert some of their food and transportation bills into tax payments.

There is no time left for more empty, hazy pronouncements. The clock has run out on the rhetoric of reform or pie-in-the-sky promises. It is time for action. I believe everyone in public office at the local and state levels has an urgent obligation to find relief for the people now."

For many one-, two-, and three-family homes in communities such as Dorchester, Jamaica Plain, South Boston, and East Boston, the increase in the tax bill will be about $330, depending on individual home assessments, which for many homes in these categories would average in the vicinity of $5,700. In more affluent neighborhoods with higher assessments, such as West Roxbury, the increase would be closer to $130.

The Mayor's own home, at 158 Mount Vernon Street, will have its tax bill increased by $1,180. The assessed valuation on the Mayor's home is $21,000 and the last tax bill totaled $1,130. The new bill will be $5,310, or $412.57 a month for taxes.

There are four major increases in the cost of city and school government that contribute to the $56.20 increase, and in order of impact they are:

(1) An increase in total school costs of $26.1 million that must be included in the 1977 rate; of this amount, $15.7 million is the deficit outstanding at the end of the last school year, and $10.4 million is the increase reflected in the $165 million school budget approved by the City Council on Wednesday;

(2) Increases in the debt and interest accounts totaled $18.7 million;

(3) Pension costs increased $9.1 million;

(4) Overlay deficit (excess abatements from previous years), $1.1 million.

As these and other city costs went up, city revenues went down.

Boston faced heavy cutbacks in federal and state aid. Boston has $25.7 million less in federal revenue sharing money than it had a year ago when a $20-million-cash reserve was combined with $21 million in 1975 revenue sharing funds to hold the line on last year's rate. This year, only $16 million is expected from revenue sharing.

The total in state aid to Boston (the Cherry Sheet) dropped $29 million this year.

"As Mayor, I had little or no control over any of these increases or revenue losses, so I pared to the proverbial bone, the operational departments under my control," Mayor White observed. "I cut the 1977 operating budget by $24.5 million — a cut both massive and unprecedented, without which this increase would have been substantially higher.

"Trimming the city budget has been the pattern since 1972 when we began cutting our share of the overall tax rate, while the School Department drastically swelled its share. Our cuts offset the School Department's increases for four years, enabling us to freeze the tax rate; if the School Department had exhibited the same fiscal prudence and cut its own budget, the rate would have declined for four years instead of standing still."

(See attached tables on city budget cuts and tax rates.)

From fiscal 1976 until fiscal 1977, the school tax rate jumped $36.16, from $15.11 to $51.27. That is a one-year increase of 80 percent in the School Department's share of the city's total tax rate.

During the same one-year period, the city's share of the rate increased $19.71, from $151.29 to $171.08, in an increase of 13 percent.

Apart from the one-year contrast, a comparison over four years beginning in 1972 when the rate was first stabilized, is even more illustrative.

From 1972 through fiscal 1977, the School Department's share has skyrocketed from $35 to $51.27, an increase of $17 or 131 percent.

During the same four-year period, the city's share climbed from $161 to $171, for a total increase of $10 or only 6 percent. In fact, the entire city increase in the share of the rate has occurred during the last year, and during the previous three years the city's share remained well under the 1972 level of $161.

The Mayor declared: "Since the rate was first stabilized in 1972, the School Department has lost more than 20,000 students, has increased its budget by 60 percent and inflated its per pupil costs to $2,500. As I said before, at those prices we could give the money directly to the parents and let them send their children to the most expensive private academies in New England.

"To say it is time for bold action is an understatement. The Boston School Department is fiscally irresponsible and continually pads its budget with callous disregard for the taxpayers of this city. All of the influential and vested interests in this city must confront this reality and support a charter reform to correct it."

ANOTHER BOSTON FIRST

A new, improved, lighter-weight fire fighters breathing system designed to reduce health hazards and provide greater protection to fire fighters is now in use in Boston, Mayor Kevin H. White and Fire Commissioner George Paul announced September 14.

Boston is the first city in the country to purchase the new, commercially available, fire fighter's breathing system, which is based on concepts and hardware developed by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) for use by astronauts.

The new masks, in use in Boston resulted from a NASA-sponsored applications program, are based on a NASA-prototype design, and are produced and manufactured by Scott Aviation Company of New York for commercial use by fire fighters.

The new breathing system offers Boston fire fighters a series of advantages over conventional, self-contained, air masks. These advantages are:

— a reduction in weight, new system weighs 20 pounds, 13 pounds less than conventional fire fighting tanks;

— redesigned face mask permits better vision;

— high rates of airflow to user and decreased breathing resistance;

— an improved frame and harness that rests the unit weight on the hips rather than the shoulders; and — an improved balance system and easier maneuverability.

"The Boston Fire Department initiated a search to find a safer mask device — one more well-suited to the awesome hazards faced in fighting fires — almost six years ago," Mayor White said.

"Today, I am pleased to both welcome and to offer sincere thanks to representatives of NASA who took an interest in Boston's problem and those of fire departments across the country and who, as a result of their commitment and technical expertise, have produced a far superior system — one that will soon be in use nationwide," the Mayor said.

"Fire fighting is the most hazardous job in the country. The injuries caused from smoke inhalation have risen dramatically in recent years; in part, because the equipment commonly used by fire fighters is heavy, awkward, and often shunned by the working fire fighters," said. "Now, with this new equipment, the injuries faced by fire fighters will be dramatically reduced and the cost of fire protection by reducing fire fighter's injuries will be far less."

The new breathing system, known as Scott Air-Pak 4.5, was developed through cooperation with Public Technology, Inc., a private interest organization, and a Fire Requirements Committee, composed of fire service professionals and city administrators. It is the first marketing the commercial market prototype breathing systems tested and placed in service for 18 months on a regional basis in fire departments in Los Angeles, New York, and New York. The first commercial models available were purchased by Boston in July, 1976.

Fifty new breathing systems are now in use at twenty-one fire companies across the city. The cost of an individual system is $550.

MDC CONTEMPLATING TRANSFER OF ICE-SKATING RINKS

The Metropolitan District Commission will conduct a series of hearings in the near future to determine the feasibility of turning over all of its twenty-six ice-skating rinks to the communities in which they are situated for operation by those communities.

Metropolitan District Commissioner John F. Snedeker made public his plan for divestiture of the rinks following an Environmental Affairs budget discussion recently at Drumlin Farm in Lincoln, where he first outlined it to those in attendance. He said the divestiture would be effected through long-term lease agreements with the communities in question, with the MDC guaranteeing payment for major repairs up to five years from the lease signings.

The hearings in the various communities will probably get under way in November. The MDC will soon mail its proposal for takeover of the rinks and financial information on their operation to mayors and boards of selectmen of the communities in question.

"After considerable study," the Commissioner noted, "I have come to the conclusion that local control would provide a better product both for the skater and the community. As the number of rinks has grown over the years the individual facilities have become less metropolitan in nature and have virtually functioned as local facilities." He added that the fiscal 1978 budget, to take effect July 1, 1977, calls for divestiture by the MDC of five of its existing rinks or a commensurate schedule reduction for all rinks.

Mayor Files Employers Tax Bill

Mayor Kevin White filed legislation on September 22 calling for a year, local-option, payroll excise tax to reduce the burden of the city tax on Boston homeowners and rent-payers.

The enabling legislation will permit any city and town in the Commonwealth to impose a 1 percent tax on employers payrolls to be paid annually. The tax would generate an estimated $35 million in additional revenues per annum for the City of Boston.

Mayor White intends to push for passage of the payroll excise tax legislation during the next legislative session.

In the wake of the largest payroll tax increase in Boston's history, the need for an alternative source of revenue for the city has become critical and immediate," Mayor White said.

On Thursday, September 16, he announced that the present tax of $196.70, which had been in effect since 1972, would jump to $251.90, an increase of $56.20.

"Boston residents have their backs to the wall," the Mayor said. "We can no longer be expected to shoulder the total cost of services provided to tax-exempt institutions and the more than 300,000 commuters who shuttle in and out of the city daily.

"The payroll excise tax, while far from a total solution to our economic problems, will at least and at long last provide justice for Boston residents who have, for far too long, been required to carry the whole burden."

As he has said before, Boston is not asking for a handout. We seek to collect on a debt long overlooked by Mayor White added.

His bill argues that a payroll excise tax is a reasonable and just means of reimbursement to those cities and towns which provide business, cultural, educational, and medical care opportunities to thousands outside their borders.

Boston alone bears an enormous cost to provide added police and fire protection, public transportation, traffic control, and parking facilities so that businesses and institutions can flourish.

The increased cost of providing these services far outweighs any additions to taxable property.

The legislation filed would require all employers having one or more employees and a payroll that totals more than $10,000 per calendar quarter to pay a payroll tax of 1 percent of their total payroll.

Only governmental entities and agencies would be exempt from the tax.

MUNICIPAL CLERKS' ANNUAL DINNER DANCE

The Annual Dinner Dance of the Municipal Clerks' Association will be held at Moseley's on the Charles, 50 Bridge Street, Dedham, Mass., on Tuesday evening, October 12, 1976, at 7 P.M.

As on previous occasions the affair is being held for the members, each of whom may bring a female guest. The dinner, which consists of delicious tenderloin of beef and chicken, will be served with all the fixings promptly at 7 P.M., during and after which we will be entertained by a special program of talent hired exclusively for this event. There will also be dancing and refreshments.

As is the custom at our Association affairs, tickets will be issued to members individually, or for a member and female guest. The burden of the cost, including tips for the meals, will be borne by the Association, with the assessment of tickets set at $6 for a member, or $12 for a member and female guest. Because arrangements must be made in advance, no tickets can be sold at Moseley's. Tickets will be sold to members (and members only) up to and including Friday, October 8, 1976.

In light of the successes of previous years, the Committee anticipates another enjoyable evening for the members and their wives or sweethearts.

For further information regarding the purchase of tickets contact William J. Coughlin, at the Auditing Department (Room M-4), or John Gorman, Room 709, City Hall, or your department representative immediately.

No Credit Union member may sign more than seven (7) nomination papers.

Nominees must be employees and members of the Credit Union for more than three (3) months prior to date of Annual Election.

Nomination papers will be accepted for a three (3)-year term. There will be no nominations from the floor.

The date of the Annual Election and meeting will be Tuesday, November 16, 1976.

IMPORTANT WOMEN'S CONFERENCE

A Women's Conference on Personal and Career Mobility, designed to provide Boston women with useful information on areas ranging from health care to credit, will be held October 6, 7, and 8 in the Gallery at Boston City Hall, from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M.

The three-day conference, planned and organized by the Boston Commission on the Status of Women and City Women for Action, will offer, free of charge, a series of workshops featuring speakers from government, labor, and health organizations and both local and national women's groups. In addition, the more than thirty contributing agencies will provide and staff information-exchange booths.

Topics to be covered at the conference include: politics and government, labor unions and non-traditional jobs; employment, education, and training; rape; day care; housing and credit; mental health referral; and gynecological care.

"The conference has been planned to give Boston women practical, down-to-earth information about as many different areas as possible from health to money," explained Jane Weisman, newly appointed director of the Boston Commission on the Status of Women. "There will be something of interest to everyone. Those attending the conference can either listen to a workshop or browse at information booths — it will be free flowing," she said.

"Speakers and topics were chosen to meet the needs of all women — women who are working in the home, those entering the work force for the first time, and those considering a career change; from women who want to buy homes and to those interested in day care," Director Weisman explained.

The three-day conference will be topped off Friday afternoon with a discussion on the state Equal Rights Amendment, a referendum question on the November 2 ballot.

For more information on the conference, contact the Boston Commission on the Status of Women in Room 603, Boston City Hall, or call 725-1196.

NEW MARKETING PROGRAM

The Mayor's Office of Economic Development has teamed up with the Greater Boston Real Estate Board in creating a new marketing service that will provide local business first crack at contacting out-of-town firms seeking industrial space in Boston.

David Almy, a partner of Leach, McCall & Werner, Inc., and president of the Commercial/Industrial Investment Council of the Greater Boston Real Estate Board, said, "We're enthusiastic about working with the city on this project because it's a practical, uncomplicated program that should produce results that could be a considerable boost to the downtown economy."

In announcing the joint project, Michael Westgate, executive director of Boston's Economic Development and Industrial Commission (EDIC), said the city will space requirements of those approaching the city for local assistance. The public-accession board will be located at the EDIC office at 60 Congress Street in Boston's downtown financial district. The public board will include that nonmembers of the Real Estate Board also have an opportunity to serve space requests of client firms.

Michael B. Sherman, vice president and manager of the Real Estate Brokerage Division of Spaulding & Slye Corporation, director of the Commercial/Industrial Investment Council, said, "We've been trying for some time to organize such a program. I'm quite pleased that through cooperative efforts we have found the right approach."

The Greater Boston Real Estate Board has also agreed to EDIC space needs for its members through regular mailings. The procedure will assure that a range of available space is shown to new prospects interested in space in Boston or in expanding in Boston. EDIC has requested that prospects developed through the Real Estate Division be shown Boston property unless they have specifically requests to be shown at other locations.

REDUCED FARE REGISTRATION

The MBTA stressed that senior citizens who already have a reduced fare identification card do not need to register again. What appears to be an expiration date is used merely for internal auditing and control purposes. Once a reduced fare identification card is issued, it is valid for life.

WORTHWHILE ATTRACTIONS AT MUSEUM OF SCIENCE

A view of Antarctica, an unusual film on the human body, and a Halloween celebration are the extra attractions at Boston's Museum of Science on October Friday nights.

"Mysteries of Antarctica," a slide show in color accompanied by music, is given October 8 at 7:30 p.m. Presented by Lydia Thayer, Cambridge, the show offers a romantic view of "the bottom of the world."

The film, "Man: the Incredible Machine," is scheduled for October 15 and 22. This shortened version of a National Geographic production previously aired on Channel 2, Boston, is based on shots of selected bodily systems and functions.

The Museum's annual family Halloween night, October 29, features a thirty-minute program, "Frankenstein's Lab." It explores the special effects used in early horror films, such as "Frankenstein." Tickets are on a first-come, first-served basis. There are also fifteen-minute demonstrations in exhibit halls to explain Halloween lore. Visitors are encouraged to wear costumes.

The Skyline Cafeteria is open for dinner from 5 to 8 p.m. and the Friendly Ice Cream Shop, from 5 to 9:30 p.m.

With no extra charge for Friday night attractions, the reduced admission Friday night is $1.50 for adults, and $1 for children, students, and senior citizens. Throughout the month of October, two college students with IDs are admitted for the price of one. The two-for-one rate applies every day as well as Friday nights.

BREATHING DISORDERS? JOIN THIS CLUB!

The American Lung Association of Boston announced that an Emphysema Club for persons with chronic breathing disorders such as asthma, emphysema, and chronic bronchitis is now forming at the Massachusetts Rehabilitation Hospital.

Membership in the monthly discussion group is free to chronic lung disease patients and their families. Persons interested are invited to attend the Emphysema Club's organizational meeting which will be held on Thursday evening, 7:30 p.m., in the hospital's first-floor conference room. "We hope to be able to provide psychological benefits to the patient through his better understanding of his disease and his sharing of experiences with other patients," Mrs. O'Neil said.

She indicated that the Lung Association sponsors a similar Emphysema Club at Carney Hospital in Dorchester. The Carney Hospital group meets on the second Thursday of each month.

"By starting-up an Emphysema Club program at the Massachusetts Rehabilitation Hospital, we hope to make this free Christmas Seal service more accessible to all Boston residents," Mrs. O'Neil explained.

CONTRACTS AMENDED

The Mayor has approved the amending of contracts, based on the following information:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT

Purchasing Division

PHYSICAL EDUCATION EQUIPMENT

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On July 1, 1976, your Honor approved permission to award contracts and orders to several companies for furnishing physical education and swimming pool equipment to the Public Facilities Department. No award on several items was made in the original letter dated June 30, 1976.

At this time, authority is requested to award a contract to Musinsky's, Inc., for Items 15, 16, 20, 21, and 23 in the approximate total amount of $23,626, net 30 days; and a contract to Seaway Mats, Inc. for Items 23 and 34, in the approximate total amount of $34,493, net.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK F. CHIN,
Purchasing Agent.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT

PHOTOGRAPHIC SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This letter is in reference to a letter of award sent to you, dated May 27, 1976, in which permission was requested to enter into a written contract with Mr. Richard Murphy, 10 Houghton Street, Ward 16, the low successful bidder, for taking and developing of photographs for the City of Boston Building Department.

I should like to amend the amount of this contract which originally was intended not to exceed $30,000, so that it will now not exceed $20,000, payable to the contractor under the Community Development Block Grant Program. Mr. Murphy is agreeable to this change.

Respectfully,

FRANCIS W. GENS,
Building Commissioner.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

AUDIT AND EVALUATION SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I hereby submit an amended letter of award to replace a previous letter dated February 26, 1976, requesting permission to dispense with bidding and to award a contract to the Boston Model Neighborhood Board, Inc. (MNB), formerly located at 333 Dudley Street, Roxbury, Mass., now located at 5 Doane Street, Boston, Mass. The contract amount and period of performance, established as $22,052, and from July, 1975, to June 30, 1976, respectively, in the original letter of award, are hereby amended to $28,280, and July, 1975, to September 30, 1976, respectively.

Under the term of agreement, the MNB will assist the city in conducting the final program audit and evaluation of the Boston Model City program by serving as the citizen participation unit of the Model City closeout in compliance with HUD guidelines. Payment for this contract shall be made from the Community Development Block Grant.

This contract shall be awarded to comply with the requirements of the Model City closeout, which specify that citizen participation be continued until the grant assistance completion deadline has expired.

In view of this, public advertising would not serve any useful or practical purpose.

Sincerely,

E. OWEN DONNELLY,
Director.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I hereby submit an amended letter of award to replace a previous letter, dated April 28, 1976, requesting permission to dispense with bidding and to award a contract to the Boston Urban Observatory, University of Massachusetts, Boston, Harbor Campus, Dorchester, Mass. 02125, for the provision of professional services with evaluation of the city's Community Development Block Grant Program.

Specific information contained in original letter of award has recently modified and requires amendment as follows:

(1) The contractor, originally identified as Boston Urban Observatory is amended to University of Massachusetts Harbor Campus, Dorchester, Mass.

(2) The period of performance originally established as June 1, 1976, to May 31, 1977, is hereby amended to September 1, 1976, through August 31, 1977.

The Boston Urban Observatory, a part of the University of Massachusetts, has considerable professional expertise and previous experience in carrying out similar activities. On this basis, I recommend a contractual relationship between the University of Massachusetts and the University of Massachusetts established at this time. Moreover, public advertising would not serve any useful or practical purpose.

Sincerely,

E. OWEN DONNELLY,
Director.

REIMBURSEMENT TO BRA

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I hereby request your written authorization to dispense with public bidding and to award a contract, in the amount of $22,000, and effective from June 6, 1976, to June 30, 1976, with the Boston Model Neighborhood Board, Inc. (MNB), formerly located at 333 Dudley Street, Roxbury, Mass., now located at 5 Doane Street, Boston, Mass. The contract amount and period of performance, established as $22,052, and from July, 1975, to June 30, 1976, respectively, in the original letter of award, are hereby amended to $28,280, and July, 1975, to September 30, 1976, respectively.

Under the terms of the amended contract, the new contract amount will be $28,280, and the contract will be effective from June 30, 1976. All costs charged under the contract will be paid from the Community Development Block Grant.

The purposes of the amendment are to extend the contact to the end of the fiscal year; to reimburse the professional research and planning costs incurred by the BRA for payment of constructing Morville and the Fenway; and to reimburse the reproduction costs incurred for the Community Development Block Grant.

In view of the unique nature of the project, the legal status of the project, the carry out these functions and the fact that a contract already exists between the City of Boston and the BRA for similar functions, it is recommended that the project be carried out without advertisement and bidding.

Sincerely,

E. OWEN DONNELLY,
Director.

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS

HEALTH CARE CENTER

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Hospitals held on December 1, 1975, it was voted to amend, without advertisement, the city's existing contract with the Boston Urban Observatory, Inc. (Trustees), a charitable corporation created under the Acts of 1965, for the lowering the estimated construction cost by $60,000, and resulting in a $4,500 fee credit. The five remaining projects have been grouped into two construction contracts, resulting in a cost of (a) for three sites, 7.407 percent (1967 A.I.A. "A" rate) of the presently estimated cost of construction of $170,000, $12,592, and (b) for two sites; 7.5 percent (1967 A.I.A. "A" rate) of the presently estimated cost of construction of $90,800, $6,810, an aggregate cost of $19,402. Supplementary services (changes, contingencies, etc.) has been increased by $500, giving a new total of $23,000. The cost of the now proposed services is not to exceed $42,402.

Due to the provisions of the law to the effect that executed and existing city contracts may only be altered by a writing signed by all parties thereto, including the Mayor and the contract surety, it would appear that public advertising in this case would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Respectfully,

VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT

PUPIL TRANSPORTATION

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I hereby request your permission to amend the letter approved by you on August 15, 1974, awarding a contract to Herman Caplitz Transportation Company, for furnishing transportation by motor carriage to destinations outside the City of Boston, for certain school-age children for Boston Public Schools, subsequent to public advertising.

The amendment provides for the period from May 1, 1976, to June 30, 1976; the contractor shall furnish transportation for special needs students at a cost not to exceed $51,776.63.

The amount of the contract was $166,000. Inasmuch as costs have increased, the contract shall be amended to $51,776.63.

Very truly yours,

LEO J. BURKE,
Business Manager.

REFUSE SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On August 8, 1975, you approved a contract between the City of Boston and the Waste Control, Inc., in the amount of $3,618, for the period August 15, 1975, to June 30, 1976. The purpose of the contract was for containerized refuse services for the Suffolk County Jail.

Waste Control, Inc., has agreed to provide the services of containerized waste removal for the period of July 1, 1976, to August 31, 1976, at an additional cost of $723.60. This amendment is necessary because of the delay in publicly advertising for the new contract to commence on September 1, 1976.

I respectfully request that you sign this amendment.

Sincerely yours,

THOMAS S. EISENSTADT,
Sheriff.

All of the books assigned for the examinations will be covered in the course except for chapter 90 and the criminal laws.

"Each course will be offered both days and nights so that officers will be able to attend while off duty. There will be an enrollment fee of $100 to cover course preparation, instructional costs, and related expenses.

"Officers interested in enrolling for the courses or learning more about them should call Boston University at 353-4128. Enrollment will open September 13, 1976, and close September 24, 1976."

The Boston Police Department does not endorse or recommend any individual private prepromotional program at Boston University or elsewhere. There are several other prepromotional training programs offered from time to time in the Commonwealth. Interested officers are encouraged to evaluate each program for its relevance to the particular Boston Police promotional examination process.

Special Order No. 76-85

A Bureaus, Divisions, Districts, Offices, Sections, and Units.

to: All Superintendents, Deputy Superintendents, and Directors.

August, 1972, responsibility for the towing of illegally parked vehicles was transferred from the Boston Traffic and Towing Department to the Boston Police Department. At that time, certain forms used by that department in their towing operations were adopted by the Boston Police Department with slight variations. The most important of these forms is the Vehicle Condition Report (Police Tow-1), which performs the following vital functions:

protects the city against false claims; provides data for operational records; provides data for financial records; protects the tow truck operator and/or towing officer from false claims of damage to the towed vehicle.

Due to the increased volume of towing throughout the city-wide geographic area now covered by the Boston Police Tow Unit since the towing program went city-wide in May of 1976, it now becomes necessary to revise the procedures presently in effect for the completion of this form. These changes will provide greater accountability and protection for the tow truck operator and the towing officer involved in the towing of illegally parked vehicles.

Therefore, effective immediately, each tow truck operator will be furnished with a copy of Vehicle Condition Reports and will be required to fill in all pertinent information at the scene of the tow. The tow truck operator will fill in all pertinent information on this form any valuable items in the passenger compartment of the towed vehicle will be listed in the spaces provided, including existing damage to the vehicle and whether the trunk was open or closed, and whether the glove compartment is closed or open. These items will then be initialed by the towing officer in order to verify the accuracy of the information contained therein. The towing officer, following his initialing of the Vehicle Condition Report, may then remove a copy and keep same for his records. After leaving the scene, the tow truck operator will insert the towing officer's name in the appropriate space and will sign his name in the space provided.

When entering the tow lot with a vehicle, the tow truck operator will turn in the Vehicle Condition Report in to the lot foreman or attendant, whose responsibility it will be to ascertain whether all pertinent spaces have been completely filled in. The attendant will sign the form in the space provided and cause the form to be "time stamped" in the space allotted for time of reception. The tow truck operator will then park the vehicle, making certain that all its doors are securely locked.

The prime responsibility of the tow lot attendant is the receiving of monies and the recording of transactions in connection with the release of vehicles from the tow lot, and his only responsibility with regard to the Vehicle Condition Report will be to ensure that it is completely filled out and contains all pertinent information. He will not be required to leave the office to conduct a visual inspection of the vehicle or its contents.

This Special Order will supersede the Towing Procedural Manual of August 7, 1972, insofar as it pertains to procedures outlined therein for the completion of the Vehicle Condition Report.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT

SELECTRIC TYPEWRITER

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your approval of the award, without advertising, or a contract to the International Business Machines Corporation for the rental and maintenance of a magnetic tape "Selectric" typewriter, for the period beginning July 1, 1976, and ending June 30, 1977.

The rental and maintenance of this equipment is required in order to perform efficiently the operations of this department, and without publicly advertising would serve the best interests of the city.

The total cost will not exceed $3,300.

Respectfully yours,

EDWARD T. SULLIVAN,
Vice-Mayor.

Purchasing Division FLOOR SAFES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Invitation to bid on proposals for furnishing floor safes, Proposal 293, to the Mayor's Office of Public Service was advertised in the City Record. No bids were received at the public opening on August 11, 1976.

However, a late bid from Mosler Safe Company was received on August 12, 1976, thus making it irregular.

Permission is therefore requested to dispense with further advertising for bids and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Mosler Safe Company based on the prices, terms, and conditions set forth by this company on their bid received late.

The amount of the contract is not to exceed $3,339, less 2 percent discount, time of payment.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK F. CHIN,
Purchasing Agent.

AFFAIRS OF THE ELDERLY OPTICAL SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Your permission is hereby requested to award a contract without advertising to the Mass. Society for the Prevention of Blindness for the operation of "Project Bright Eyes" within the City of Boston, for an amount not to exceed $6,450, for the period September 8, 1976, to June 30, 1977.

"Project Bright Eyes," a free optical testing and follow-up program for the elderly, is conducted weekly during the fall, winter, and spring months with an approximate weekly caseload of twenty-five persons and is a joint venture between the Commission on Affairs of the Elderly and the Mass. Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

The funds to be provided under this contract will be used to meet transportation and food costs and other administrative and professional costs incurred by the Society. This will amount to approximately 50 percent of the total project cost, the remainder of which will be met by the Society.

It is therefore requested that the Commission be allowed to dispense with public advertising in awarding this contract.

Sincerely,
MAUREEN SCHAFFNER,
Commissioner.

AUDITING DEPARTMENT CONSULTANT SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Permission is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract for consulting services to William J. Keane, 29 Justin Road, Brighton, Mass., during the period July 1, 1976, through December 31, 1976, at a cost not to exceed $6,718, at a rate of $130 per seven-hour day.

Mr. Keane retired as assistant city auditor on June 30, 1974. He has for many years supervised the closing of the city's books at the end of each year. The Auditing Department is engaged in a project to speed up and improve the closing procedures, and Mr. Keane's experience and expertise in this area make him uniquely qualified to assist us in this project.

In view of Mr. Keane's special qualifications, I believe that no public interest would be served by public advertisement for bids.

Very truly yours,
W. W. MERRILL,
City Auditor.

ENCUMBRANCE PROCEDURES SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Permission is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract for developing a design plan for encumbering School Department payrolls to Price Waterhouse & Co., 225 Franklin Street, Boston, Mass. 02110. The total cost of this contract will not exceed $7,000, and the period of the contract will be from July 28, 1976, to June 30, 1977.

This project is considered necessary because of the fact that payrolls account for a major share of School Department expenditures, and it is extremely difficult to control such expenditures in relation to budgets in the absence of encumbrance procedures. The plan developed would be suitable to also serve as a basis for encumbering other city payrolls if desired.

Because of the nature of the work to be performed, it is not practical to obtain bids through public advertising. Selection of Price Waterhouse is based on the fact that they have recently completed a related assignment in the payroll section and the necessity to implement this system in time for the opening of schools in September.

Respectfully yours,
W. W. MERRILL,
City Auditor.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT

RAZING OF BUILDINGS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. These buildings are a menace to the neighborhood. The locations follow:

42 Ditson Street, Ward 15; 28 Leroy Street, Ward 15; 424-428 Geneva Avenue, Ward 15; 18-1/2 (rear) Hamlet Street, Ward 7; 11 Eastman Street, Ward 7.

Emergency bid submitted in the bid box, one copy to Auditing Department. Bid box opened by Mayor's Office. These buildings are unsafe and dangerous, a hazard to the general public.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 802, Acts of 1972, as amended, particularly section 124 thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these various permits and to raze the buildings or structures.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the entire lot of buildings or structures, but to break down their bids to show the charge against each separate address. The breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

Napoli Wrecking, $13,950; Design Demolition, $15,210; John J. Duane Wrecking, $16,773; Mystic Wrecking Company, $17,375.

Napoli Wrecking Co., Inc., 105 Norwell Street, Dorchester, Mass., has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Bids for the individual buildings or structures were not requested because it would be a practical, physical impossibility for several different contractors to conduct efficient contracting operations simultaneously in individual buildings or structures. Under such conditions, there would be much mutual interference and each contractor would be exposed to severe hazards not under his control, by the operations of adjacent contractors. I also believe that the aggregate cost of individual bids would be much higher than the cost of one bid for the total buildings or structures to be demolished, and that handling the buildings or structures as one unit results in one administrative cost to the city rather than what would result from handling the individual buildings or structures as separate bids and contracts. Unit handling results, however, in this case in a contract price of over $2,000, or over the statutory limitations upon awards that can be made without advertising, unless your Honor approves the transaction.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding, without advertising, as required in the City Charter, of a contract in the sum of $13,950, to the Napoli Wrecking Co., Inc., 105 Norwell Street, Dorchester, Mass.

Very truly yours,
RICHARD L. GRANARA, JR.,
For Building Commissioner

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. These buildings are a menace to the neighborhood. The locations follow:

Emergency bid submitted in the bid box, one copy to Auditing Department. Bid box opened by Mayor's Office. These buildings are unsafe and dangerous, a hazard to the general public.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

Napoli Wrecking, $27,500; Circlepower Demolition, $24,859; Mystic Wrecking Company, $35,940.

Circlepower Demolition Corporation, 1 Harrison Avenue, Roxbury, Mass., has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Bids for the individual buildings or structures were not requested because it would be a practical, physical impossibility for several different contractors to conduct efficient contracting operations simultaneously in individual buildings or structures. Boston Jubilant: Jobs for Thousands

The prospect of thousands of jobs promised by a $3.5-million, federal grant received September 29 by Boston's Economic Development and Industrial Corp. (EDIC) to revitalize the South Boston Naval Annex, excited city and Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce officials.

"Until recently," Mayor White said, "building and repairing ships in the port of Boston might as well have been against the law. The industry had been collapsing for many years despite the fact that the resources of our port were virtually unsurpassed by any other port."

Boston Redevelopment Authority Director Robert Kenney said of the grant, "I think it's great because that's what's needed to help with the rebirth of South Boston. We expect it would happen, and we also expect the government will provide funds for Charlestown."

Kenney said the grant begins a long, hard struggle to bring South Boston and Charlestown back to what they were before the United States Navy closed the area and the Boston Naval Shipyard.

As far as the Chamber of Commerce is concerned, any development that will bring new jobs into the city is certainly a positive development," said Henry B. Shepard, vice-president of the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce.

"We are extremely pleased with the award and the meaningful effect it will have on the city in the years, especially in the job market," Michael Westgate, EDIC executive director.

Westgate and Deputy Mayor Kevin Vey flew to Washington on September 29, and signed the contract for the grant with the Economic Development Administration.

"The soon-to-be revitalized South Boston Naval Annex that will open Boston's door is another signal that the people of the city want to move forward," Mayor White said.

He made his remarks after visiting the 1,000-acre South Boston site. The city has received a $3.5-million, federal award to build a marine industrial park at the location.

Mayor White said the grant "will fill a significant need and provide at least 1,000 jobs in a skilled field. We couldn't be more pleased. This is a site we can really develop."

He praised both federal officials and the City Council which helped make the award possible.

Michael Westgate of the Boston Economic Development and Industrial Corporation, which has leased the land from the federal government since November 1, 1975, said the site needs six months' engineering work, which will begin soon. "We'll be completely ready to go in a year and a half."

When work is completed, Mayor White said, "We'll have the second largest drydock on the East Coast."

Earlier the Mayor predicted shipbuilding activity in Boston will be doubled in a year after the work at the new industrial park is completed.

He said four ship repair firms have expressed interest in expanding their operations into the park.

Boston's share of the $4.9 million needed to refurbish the Naval Annex is 30 percent.

In June, the Boston City Council approved, as its portion of the project's cost, an expenditure of $1,473,000.

With the grant EDIC will be able to purchase the 97-acre property, near Summer Street in South Boston, from the General Services Administration. Industrial development of the old navy yard will generate about thirty jobs per acre.

Under a proposal approved by state and city officials, the city will rebuild two dry docks, which will be able to handle some of the world's largest ships, for ship repair. The rest of the property will be leased to marine engineering firms.

The first payments are due November 1.

Taxpayers may pay half the bill by November 1 and the other half by next May 1, or they may pay the entire bill at once.

WIDOWED SERVICES PROGRAM

The creation of a new, city-program to assist in meeting legal, health, and financial needs Boston's widowed residents, been announced by Mayor K. H. White.

The new program — Boston Widowed Services Program — charged with coordinating the more than 200 existing public and private referral services available to widowed, monitoring legislation and serving as an advocate of the city's widowed population.

Named by Mayor White to serve as director of the new program is Joseph C. Kelly of the Mayor's Office of Public Service. The program will be administered through the city's eighteen Little City Offices and will operate at no additional cost.

"The widowed are faced with special problems — problems of grief and loneliness and a lack of knowledge of the many services that are available to them," Mayor White said. "What this new program will offer the city's widowed residents is an important link between the services that do exist and them. Services such as transportation, health care, housing, legal services, and counseling groups in Social Security and other areas," he explained.

"One such group, We Help Each Other, Inc., has been working for over past eight years to assist widowed in the Greater Boston area and it is because of their initiative and commitment that the city initiated this new program.

"I am grateful to Ruth I. Jean Brennen, and Eleanor O'Connell of We Help Each Other, for their understanding of the needs of the city's widowed, for their attention, and I hope this program will make it easier for widowed men and women to take advantage of the services available to them," Mayor White said.

CHILDREN'S MUSEUM REOPENED

Children's Museum on the way is now open after a year of renovation and new exhibition installation. Both the Visitor Center and the Resource Center invite visitors to take part in a day celebration on October 1, marking the start of the Museum's third season.

In the Visitor Center, a new exhibit, "Lito, the Shoeshine Boy," is on display recently. The exhibit, based on the award-winning book by journalist David Mangurian, traces thirteen-year-old Lito's life. Lito is one of the many children abandoned by their parents to survive as best they can in the slums of Tegucigalpa, Honduras. The exhibit recreates a total environment which transports each visitor into the dark, noisy, slum life of Lito's daily existence so that visitors can begin to understand what life is like for many Latin American and Third World children.

In the Visitor Center, a new "5 and 10" exhibit will be on display to help children discover the joys of wise shopping. Activities in the exhibit are designed to teach children the basic concepts involved in making purchases — weighing, measuring, unit pricing, volume, and an introduction to the metric system.

A new "Video Exhibit" will be on display, which displays a safe, sound breakdown of the video techniques that bring TV into the home. The exhibit includes a TV set that children can use, a control room with dials and switches, a video transmitting tower, and a collection of houses complete with their own TVs.

NEW HOURS

Recently, the Visitor Center is open Tuesdays through Fridays, 2 P.M. to 5 P.M.; Saturdays, Sundays, and school holidays, 10 A.M. to 5 P.M. and closed on Mondays. The Resource Center is open Tuesdays through Sundays, 10 A.M. to 5 P.M. for browsing and buying. The library is closed on Sundays.

T PLANS MARKETING SURVEY

The Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) today authorized the filing of a $56,000 management improvement, technical study, grant application with the Urban Mass Transportation Administration to assist in financing a transit marketing survey.

The purpose of the survey is to develop a marketing plan for the entire transportation system which will assist in achieving management's goal of a 30 percent increase in ridership by 1980, by improving services offered, improving communications with existing passengers, and "selling" public transportation to nonusers.

COLUMBUS DAY

Christopher Columbus, Genoese (1451-1506), as a schoolboy in Genoa, Italy, studied mathematics and astronomy and became an expert at map-making and charts. As he advanced in age, he became an experienced sailor and decided that the east could best be reached by sailing west, for he, with other learned geographers, knew that the earth was a globe. He determined to sail west to prove his point. Financed by his friends, King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain, he set sail on August 3, 1492, to discover the new world. The three vessels he used on his venture were the Santa Maria, Pinta, and Nina.

At 2 A.M. on the morning of October 12, 1492, he discovered land and named it San Salvador (Bahamas). Cruising in the West Indies, he also discovered the islands of Hispaniola (Haiti) and Cuba. He returned to Spain triumphantly, and the following year returned to the West Indies and discovered many more islands. He made another visit again in 1498, and coasted along the shores of North America.

From this expedition he was returned in chains, accused of cruelty and misgovernment. Cleared of these charges later, he made a fourth voyage to the new world in 1502, skirting the shores of Honduras, in Central America.

HANCOCK BUILDING DEDICATED

The sixty-story John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company Tower, New England's tallest building, officially opened on September 29. About 300 persons, city, state government officials, business and civic leaders attended the dedication of the $158-million structure.

Mayor White spoke briefly and declared that "nobody anticipated the awesomeness or the beauty of the tower." He noted that "more than 1,000 employees in the building are matched up with the number of students at Emerson High."

Board Chairman Gerhard Bleicken said it was an expression of the human achievements and aspirations of thousands of people.

Mr. Bleicken noted that the company was dedicating its third building in the Back Bay in a little more than five decades.

The celebration was more than just an official opening of a new building, he said. "The tower is really an expression of human aspirations and achievements of thousands of Hancock men and women who have committed their lives to the company."

More than 2,137 Hancock employees occupy twenty-six floors of the structure and more will be moved in before the end of the year. Hancock eventually will occupy two-thirds of the tower; the remainder is either under lease or to be leased.

President J. Edwin MacFarland officiated at the dedication ceremony. He said that in the construction of the new Hancock had been "very conscious of 'our obligation to defer to the historic and artistic values of the area, which the Old Church exemplifies.'"

A highlight of the dedication ceremony was the unveiling of a 14-foot by 14-foot stainless steel reproduction of the Declaration of Independence in the main lobby.

GET YOUR STICK

COMMISSIONER di GRAZIA RESIGNS

ment of Mayor Kevin H. White,
October 4, 1976.

Commissioner di Grazia has been my friend, close adviser, and a superb commissioner for Boston over past four years. I will miss him those three ways and more.

He was a leader in the true sense of the word, both in reorganizing a long and entrenched police department and in providing protection and justice for the public, particularly during the very difficult times of busing and racial tension.

It is a sad fact, but true, that a city such as Boston cannot and should not compete with an entire state for the services of an exceptional individual.

Perhaps, against the background of a long Commissioner di Grazia, we can realistically restructure our system of compensation to ensure abilities to lure and retain persons of the highest caliber in the most sensitive positions.

Commissioner di Grazia will be missed. His family, which had integrated so well into the ways of Boston and its neighborhoods, is a loss to all of us.

I wish him the best in his new adventure. I think the new public service he will serve is very lucky to have him.

SENATE REJECTS MAYOR'S PAYROLL TAX PLAN

ment of Mayor Kevin H. White,
September 27, 1976.

I am sorry that the Massachusetts Senate would not at least give a vote of confidence to the city of Boston the courtesy of voting on our Payroll Excise Tax Plan, however late in the process it was proposed.

My action, in my opinion, makes three things perfectly clear:
1. That Republican Party opposition to any measure designed to reduce the tax burden on Boston homeowners and rent payers is unfounded.

2. That suburban senators are willing to even allow discussion of whether or not the nearly 300,000

commuters who shuttle in and out of Boston daily should bear some of the costs for the services provided them.

Three, that there is total and callous lack of concern for the fiscal constraints Massachusetts tax laws impose on the people of Boston.

To be rejected is one thing; but not to be heard is an outrage.

My responsibility to continue fighting for my constituents is clear.
That fight has just begun.

There is no doubt in my mind that our cause is a just one. The people of Boston are entitled to property tax relief. They believe, as I do, that the time has come for commuters and others who take advantage of the services Boston provides to carry their share of Boston's incredible financial burden.

We will continue to seek means of accomplishing that objective and distributing Boston's tax load more widely and equitably.

pensation Plan, effective July 1, 1976.

EXTRAORDINARY STEP-RATE AD- VANCE UNDER COMPENSATION PLAN FOR EMPLOYEES OF SUFFOLK COUNTY.

SUFFOLK COUNTY

JAIL

MR. ROBERT A. FREELEY, Director, Personnel Management.

DEAR SIR:

On September 1, 1976, Mr. Donald D.
MacDougald, 8 Whittier Place, Boston, Mass., was appointed to the position of deputy jailer at the Suffolk County Jail, Grade JO-1-(1), at a salary of $272 per week.

From 1950 to 1972, Mr. MacDougald was employed by the state of Rhode Island as a social worker; psychiatric social worker; classification counselor; supervisor; assistant superintendent; and superintendent. From 1972 to August, 1976, Mr. MacDougald was director of treatment and casework supervisor.

In view of his prior experience and outstanding qualifications, I respectfully request that Mr. MacDougald's one-year and two-graph 15F, of the Suffolk County Compensation Plan, effective September 1, 1976.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

BUILDING DEPARTMENT

RAZING OF BUILDINGS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. These buildings are a menace to the neighborhood. The locations follow:

244-246 Magnolia Street, Ward 14.

Emergency bid submitted in the bid box, one copy to Auditing Department. Bid box opened by Mayor's Office. These buildings are unsafe and dangerous, a hazard to the general public.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 802, Acts of 1972, as amended, particularly section 124 thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these various premises and to raze the buildings or structures.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the entire lot of buildings or structures, but to break down their bids to show the charge against each separate address. The breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

Napoli Wrecking, $4,800; Design Demolition, $3,940; Mystic Wrecking, $3,375; Ups and Downs Wrecking, $4,130; John J. Duane Wrecking, $4,700.

Mystic Building Wrecking Co., Inc., 265 Carter Street, Chelsea, Mass., has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Bids for the individual buildings or structures were not requested because it would be a practical, physical impossibility for several different contractors to conduct efficient contracting operations simultaneously in individual buildings or structures. Under such conditions, there would be much mutual interference and each contractor would be exposed to severe hazards not under his control, by the operations of adjacent contractors. I also believe that the aggregate cost of individual bids would be much higher than the cost of one bid for the total buildings or structures to be demolished, and that handling the buildings or structures as one unit results in one administrative cost to the city rather than what would result from handling the individual buildings or structures as separate bids and contracts. Unit handling results, however, in this case in a contract price of over $2,000, or over the statutory limitations upon awards that can be made without advertising, unless your Honor approves the transaction.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding, without advertising, as required in the City Charter, of a contract in the sum of $3,375, to the Mystic Wrecking Co., Inc., 265 Carter Street, Chelsea, Mass.

Very truly yours,

LEO F. MARTIN.

For Building Commissioner.

CITY COUNCIL

SHORTHAND REPORTING

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your written permission to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and to award a contract to Mary Ford to be the Boston City Council's shorthand reporter, for the period beginning July 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, the total cost shall not exceed seventy-five hundred dollars ($7,500).

In view of the nature of the service to be engaged, it is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH J. BROGNA,
Staff Director.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

HOUSING MODERNIZATION

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I hereby request your written authority to award a contract for the modernization of public housing to the Boston Housing Authority. The contract, proposed under the second program year of the Community Development Block Grant Program, will fund a continuation of the modernization effort begun under the first program year. The contract will be in an amount not to exceed $2,535,000. The term of the agreement shall be from July 1, 1976, to July 1, 1978.

The Boston Housing Authority has sole authority to manage and maintain public housing in the city. Under the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, the city is empowered to fund such activities.

In light of the above, I strongly recommend that the Boston Housing Authority and the city join in this effort.

Sincerely,

E. OWEN DONNELLY,
Director.

COUNSELING PROGRAM

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I hereby request your permission to dispense with bidding and to award a contract in an amount not to exceed $8,000, to the Community Task Force on Education, located at 430 Blue Hill Avenue, Roxbury, Mass. Payment for this contract shall be made from the Community Development Block Grant.

Under the terms of the agreement, the Community Task Force on Education will conduct a family life counseling program for women in the Roxbury community. The period of performance shall be from July 1, 1976, through June 30, 1976. The first year of the Community Development Block Grant Program, awarded a previous contract with the for same or similar services as those proposed. In the interest of continuity of service delivery, I recommend that contractual relationship between the city Community Task Force on Education maintained at this time.

Therefore, for the reason cited above, it is my view that public advertising would not serve any useful or practical purpose.

ELECTION DEPARTMENT IBM MACHINE

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I hereby respectfully request your written authorization to dispense with public advertising for bids in the City Record, and award a contract to the International Business Machines Corporation (IBM), their place of business in Waltham being at 610 Lincoln Street, to maintain one International Business Machines No. 3742, dual data station, for a period of twelve months, for the period from July 1, 1976, to June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $2,976.

The machine is manufactured exclusively by the International Business Machines Corporation (IBM), and they are the only ones who make the type of machine that meets our needs. For this reason public advertising for bids would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH D. MURPHY, Chairman,
BOARD OF ELECTION COMMISSIONERS.

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT ADVERTISING SERVICES

DEAR SIR:

An invitation for bids and proposals for providing complete advertising agency services to the Department of Health and Hospitals for the period July 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, for the purpose of facilitating the recruitment of nurses was advertised in the City Record, on May 31, 1976. No bids were submitted. However, Allied Advertising Agency, Inc., 830 Statler Office Building, Boston, Mass., the current contractor, did submit a late bid for renewal of their present contract.

Allied Advertising Agency, Inc., is a full service agency which meets all of the requirements of the specifications. In addition, this firm is ready, willing, and able to continue to provide this department with this service at a cost which we deem reasonable.

Therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals at its meeting of April 27, 1976, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to renew, without advertising, the city's existing contract with Allied Advertising Agency, Inc., at a cost not to exceed $25,000.

Very truly yours,

DAVID L. ROSENBLOOM,
Acting Executive Director.

HOUSING INSPECTION DEPARTMENT Housing Improvement Program LEASING CERTAIN PREMISES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I hereby respectfully request permission to dispense with public advertising in the City Record, for the leasing of an estimated 800 square feet of office space in the building located at 3722 Washington Street, Jamaica Plain, and to enter into a lease with Dr. Joseph Sahakian for this space. The premises are needed by this department as a local office in connection with the Housing Improvement Program, a federally subsidized program.

The proposed lease is for a term of ten and one-half months, August 16, 1976, to June 30, 1977, with an option on the part of the city to extend the term for an additional year. The proposed rental fee is $250 per month.

This letter will supersede letter dated June 9, 1976, and approved June 21, 1976, for the location at 3482 Washington Street, Jamaica Plain, as the landlord at that location did not fulfill his written obligations for renovations.

It is my opinion that nothing is to be gained by public advertising as this location is suitable for conducting program activities.

Very truly yours,

JOHN A. VITAGLIANO,
Commissioner.

LAW DEPARTMENT

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your written approval to dispense with public advertisement in the award of a contract to Arnold & Porter, 1229 Nineteenth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20030, for legal services rendered in preparation and filing of a petition for certiorari and a reply brief in the United States Supreme Court in the case of *Morgan v. Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed, and in view of Arnold & Porter's experience, it is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT P. GLEASON,
Corporation Counsel.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your written approval to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and to award to Nutter, McClennen & Fish, a contract, a copy of which is annexed, for their services in representing Ms. Marion Fahey, Superintendent of Public Schools, with respect to the action in the United States District Court entitled Morgan v. McDonough, CA No. 72-911-G, during the period December 18, 1975, through June 30, 1976, at a cost not to exceed $22,500. This is an action brought against the School Committee of the City of Boston concerning the desegregation issue.

In view of the experience of Nutter, McClennen & Fish, and in view of the fact that the School Committee's attorneys DiMento & Sullivan have withdrawn as counsel Ms. Fahey, it is my opinion that public advertisement would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT P. GLEASON

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS

September 28.

General Order No. 47

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

Fire Prevention Week will be observed in the City of Boston from October 3 to October 9, 1976, inclusive. Mayor Kevin H. White has issued the following statement in connection with the observance of this week.

"The success of a fire prevention program is predicated on the activities of an experienced fire department and the cooperative assistance received from members of the community. We are fortunate in Boston that these necessary elements exist, and thus fire safety has steadily progressed. The nature of fire and fire causes is such that negligence can lead to disaster. Hence, everlasting vigilance must be maintained. The Fire Department must provide initiative to the public at all times, for their greater safety from fire.

"I have noted the progress made by the Boston Fire Department in the field of research. The efforts expended in this area have been extensive and rewarding. As Mayor of this city, I am pleased to congratulate the Fire Department for their accomplishments in this respect. The results indicate that research such as this is a most important factor in future fire safety. This, added to the continuous fire prevention work, and the efficient operations of an excellent fire fighting force, contribute to make Boston a safer city."

The Boston Fire Department will again emphasize Fire Prevention Week with a series of activities as follows:

(a) Fire stations shall be open to the public between the hours of 1200 and 2000 for inspection of the premises and for the conveyance of information concerning the Fire Department functions and fire prevention matters. When citizens come to a station during Fire Prevention Week, the man on house patrol shall summon the commanding officer who should be available and ready to either show the visitors around the station and to answer the questions regarding the department, or to have a suitable person assigned to this duty.

(b) Canvas signs giving notice that Fire Prevention Week is in progress should be displayed from all fire stations. Most stations have these signs in their possession from exhibitions of previous years, and is the responsibility of company officers to see to it that these signs are kept in good condition from year to year. Signs shall be displayed from Sunday to Saturday. Signs shall be checked daily by the officer in charge of quarters to assure that they are firmly affixed to the building in a proper manner.

District fire chiefs are directed to take an active interest in fire prevention programs in the following manner:

(a) By making arrangements with various plants and industrial enterprises within the district to hold fire drills during the week; by grading these drills as "C Fair," or "Poor," and making a report same to the Fire Prevention Division, indicating the name of the enterprise, the date of the drill, and the grade. Same should be forwarded promptly. Each concern should be requested to acknowledge participation in Fire Prevention Week activities via correspondence. These drills should be conducted by a company officer after arrangements are made. At plants where there are special or company fire brigades, particular attention should be given to assigning and/or response procedures. It is requested that the name of the company officer conducting the drill be furnished. It is stated that not less than three drills should be conducted in each district.

(b) Due to conditions at various schools throughout the city, fire prevention activities will be held during Fire Prevention Week at the discretion of the headmaster. Company officers will contact school officials to arrange for the schools in their subdistrict and arrangements to hold the required drills during Fire Prevention Week. The fire exit drill shall be so arranged that it will be held ten minutes prior to the end of the school day.

The district fire chief should coordinate with fraternal, social, civic, and professional organizations within the district to advertise to them the willingness of the Fire Department to provide company officers for the purpose of lecturing on fire prevention at any time. District fire chiefs should make a concerted effort to bring the attention of the department before these organizations and arrange for lectures to be given by name of any organization so participating should be reported to Fire Prevention Division, specifically if the organization is urged to forward on their own station notation of the event, it would be to the greater advantage of the Fire Department.

Fire fighters are to pay special attention to the observance of fire hazards and the duty of observing and locating fire hazards along the route followed by them coming to and going from daily calls at dilapidated buildings, rubbish accumulation and other hazards should be reported to the Fire Prevention Division. The public should be informed that the Fire Department members of the Fire Department are to know something about fire prevention work and to have an interest in it since they are public employees in this field. Fire fighters, therefore, during Fire Prevention Week should have it uppermost in their minds, and the a fire hazard at any time without a note of it for reference to the Fire Division. In short, every union man in the Fire Department is a fire non inspector at all times.

Many commanders, on receipt of the mention posters, will post these items in a visible location at the front of each union where they will be visible to the . They will remain posted until October 9, 1976.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any informalities in bidding, if it be in the public interest so to do.

Bids may be held by the Boston Redevelopment Authority for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days from the date of the opening of bids, for the purpose of reviewing the bids and investigating the qualifications of the bidders, prior to awarding of the contract.

NO. 42

Mayor Addresses "T" Advisory Board

Mayor Kevin H. White to MBTA Advisory Board, 27 School Street, Boston, October 5, 1976.

First of all, I'd like to thank all of you for coming on short notice. I would like the opportunity to speak to you on an issue of over-importance to me and, I think, to you as well. I will be as brief straightforward as I can.

Last week, acting as Chairman of this Advisory Board, I took an executed action: I intervened in the B & M purchase agreement.
Refusing to sign the transfer of funds, I sought to temporarily postpone the project.

Although I acted in behalf of this body, I did so out of allegiance — loyalty — to Boston. To deny this would be foolish and trans-

The issue here is not the B & M purchase, or any other point of the MBTA system.
I continue to support investment in commuter rail service as an integral part of the regional transportation system.

The real issue is whether Boston, any other city or town represented here, can continue to foot the transit bill through the property tax.

The tension of service, however translates eventually into expenses for my constituents — they're strained to the breaking point.

I'm prepared to postpone the sale of the B & M, along with other capital projects, until assurances from the Governor and the Legislature that they address our need for property tax relief for the B & M project is sought, despite my concern the B & M purchase goes ahead under these circumstances, we should not let it go unchallenged.

But today I want to let the Advisory Board know that Boston will not support any more MBTA extensions, improvements, or increases in operating costs that must be paid for out of our property tax.

I have been, as all of you know, a persistent, determined advocate of mass transit.

— I've supported its achievements;

— I'm grateful for its benefits; and — I'm still a believer in its promise.

I know I'm not the first, but I think the time has come to ask a simple question:

Can we continue to support mass transit progress at any price?

The answer — and I speak for Boston — has to be NO.

Mass transit may be the wave of the future, but the property tax is a poverty-stricken refugee from the past.

This year I announced the largest one-year tax increase in Boston's history. The property tax is surely stretched to its limit. To step beyond this limit invites catastrophe.

Economists describe Boston's tax rate as confiscatory. That's too cold a term. What it really means is severe hardship and stinging deprivation for real people, whose only offense is to own a home or rent an apartment in a great city.

Despite the many communities
— the diverse interests in this room
— we all suffer this affliction.

Who is favored by the property tax? Who benefits from a system that restricts growth, retards progress, and suffocates prosperity?

Not Boston, and not Lynn — with a giant increase this year; and not Somerville, on the verge of a "great leap upward;" and certainly not Quincy, where the property tax rises $34.70 this year.

We fought for reform (the 50/50 bill) in 1972 because it was just, equitable, and above all, necessary.

Since 1972, we have seen MBTA costs rise, and our ability to pay, fall.

The deficit has doubled, and our tax base has dwindled, with no end in sight.

So in 1976, the cities and towns pay almost the same dollar amount

"T" Advisory Board . . .

burden we had in '72 — with one critical difference — the property tax is less adequate to the task than ever.

Boston can't stand $17 on the tax rate for the MBTA; Somerville can't endure $19; and Lynn can't afford $9 on theirs.

Can communities like Salem and Natick cough up half a million dollars annually to cover the cost?

Can Lynnfield, Burlington, Medfield, and Sharon — who get little or no MBTA service — pay the price? What about Beverly, Cohasset, or Duxbury?

These are the hard questions we must ask and answer. I have no simple solutions — just the firm conviction that this insanity cannot continue.

There is little disagreement about our problem, but there has been a reluctance on all parts to admit we've reached the limit.

But I've decided I must take the bull by the horns.

Starting today, Boston will not support a single expansion, or approve one expenditure, until a new way to pay for the "T" deficit is found.

I'm doing this for Boston's survival, but I believe it is in everyone's interest. I'll do it with or without your support, because I have to, out of responsibility for my constituents, but I hope we can work together, because most of you are in the same position I am.

MAYOR APPOINTS JOSEPH JORDAN POLICE COMMISSIONER

*Statement of Mayor Kevin H. White,
October 5, 1976*

Late yesterday and all of last night, I gave considerable thought to the issue of the appointment of the new Commissioner.

The post of Police Commissioner is vital, sensitive, and one that must be constantly manned. Speculation, lapse of time, procrastination are factors which, I believe, could jeopardize the leadership and progress so apparent during Commissioner di Grazia's tenure.

We have, today, in this city a unique opportunity to achieve a smooth and effective transition of leadership which was suggested yesterday in the Commissioner's remarks. Within the department is a man chosen to command by Commissioner di Grazia who, I believe, can carry on the programs of reform which we commenced four years ago.

"Therefore, I am convinced that in weighing all the factors, little is to be gained by waiting, and much is to be achieved by acting. So, today, I am naming Joseph Jordan as the successor to Robert di Grazia as Police Commissioner of the City of Boston.

I share with the Commissioner the belief that Superintendent-in-Chief Jordan is one of the best men available.

He has manifested over the past several years an incredible capacity to grow and work superbly in any task assigned him.

He has demonstrated time and again the ability to act fairly and decisively under conditions of crisis and stress.

He has not only been chiefly responsible for the execution of the innovative policies of Commissioner di Grazia, but shares equally a constant concern for the integrity of the department.

In a sentence, we have here Boston, a native son whose career has been exemplary. Joe Jordan deserves the opportunity to carry on the tradition of his predecessor. His appointment will commence immediately upon the formal resignation of Robert di Grazia.

MAYOR APPOINTS ECONOMIST RAYMOND G. TORTO

Mayor Kevin White has announced the appointment of Raymond G. Torto as special assistant to the Mayor on tax policy.

Professor Torto will be responsible for reviewing and recommending alternative sources of revenue for the city in an effort to reduce Boston's heavy dependence on property tax.

Specifically, he will examine the possibility of increasing state aid to Boston and new forms of taxation that would enable Boston to distribute its tax burden more equitably.

Currently, Boston is required to raise more than 70 percent of its revenues from the levying of state and personal property taxes. This is nearly twice the national average. A reduction in Boston's present tax dependence will require new state tax laws.

Professor Torto is on a leave of absence from the University of Massachusetts Boston campus where he serves as chairman of the Economics Department.

A recognized expert in the field of state and local public financial, political economy and urban economic affairs, Professor Torto also taught at Northeastern University and Salem State College. He has served as a consultant to the Massachusetts Taxpayers Federation.

"Raymond Torto is a man of proven ability and expertise and a welcome addition to my staff," Mayor White said.

HAUNTED HOUSE! IT'S ALL IN FUN

sted by for the most delightful, thrilling experience of your life! The chills, thrills, and goose bumps spotted by Boston radar stations recently are headed directly to Jamaicaaway and are due to about the Children's Museum on October 22.

That's when the "Haunted House '76" opens its creaky doors and its spooky, kooky structure will be the business of bewitching you on Sunday, October 31, Halloween, of course. The hours to visit this devil's domain are 2-6 P.M. on weekdays, and 10-6 P.M. on weekends.

Lest you think the "Haunted House" could tend to frighten rather than fascinate youngsters, be assured the attractions are done in the best of taste and talent. In fact the spooks should put your young ones in "the best of spirits." All in all it appears that the 1976 edition is a bigger, better, scarier than ever production.

Now, before some goblin comes along to interrupt, let us point out that the "Haunted House — '76" is sponsored by the Children's Museum Aid, a group of Greater Boston women who have dedicated themselves to supporting the Museum. Mrs. Hazel Henry of Medfield is Aid Chairman and Mrs. Betsey Rowland of Boston is Chairman of "Haunted House — '76." Mrs. Edith Forrester of Dedham is Media Chairman.

Proceeds from the program support the Museum's free and low-cost, educational services to Boston area schools and community agencies.

This marks the fifth time the Museum Aid will present the deadly delights of a "Haunted House." Admission will be 75 cents and advance tickets may be obtained at the Museum Shop, or by sending a check and self-addressed, stamped envelope to "Haunted House." The Children's Museum Aid, Jamaicaaway, Boston, Mass. 02130.

The 1976 edition of the eerie edifice features Skullay Station, a haunted subway tunnel, a spider web, and a troll bridge, plus a dozen other scares including shades of "Jaws," a shark tank room with a mechanical shark which rears out of the water with its intended "victims" being anyone in sight. Other attractions include a thunderstorm area, a shadow wall where images remain; and an oversized kitchen.

The decor of the house is being done by members of the Museum's staff and this year there will be a host of concessions to serve the public. They include a cider and donut booth, picture booth, and fortune teller. Also available will be a "Halloween Activity Booklet" containing such devilish hints as ideas for making masks, plus gooey, chewy recipes.

Although parking is available, patrons who can do so are urged to come to the Jamaicaaway via MBTA. The Museum can be reached by taking the Arborway car from Park Street or the Centre-Eliot bus from Dudley Station.

SKATING BUFFS: TAKE NOTE

MDC Commissioner John F. Snedeker has announced the launching of the 1976-1977 ice-skating season with the opening of fifteen enclosed MDC rinks. The rinks opened on October 9.

The Reilly Rink, in Brighton, is scheduled to open on November 1, and Veterans Memorial Rink, in Everett, will open in late December. Both rinks are being enclosed and undergoing other improvements.

The rinks now opened are: Veterans Rink in Arlington; Simoni Rink in Cambridge; Metropolis Rink in Canton; Porrazzo Rink in East Boston; Bajko Rink in Hyde Park; Connery Rink in Lynn; Lo-Conte Rink in Medford; and the Steriti Rink in the North End.

Also Shea Rink in Quincy; Cronin Rink in Revere; Veterans Rink in Somerville; Murphy Rink in South Boston; Veterans Rink in Waltham; Bryan Rink in West Roxbury; and the Connell Rink in Weymouth.

The remaining nine open-sided rinks are slated to open for the season on November 11.

The fee scheduled is ten cents for senior citizens, fifty cents for those eighteen and over at all sessions, and ten cents for those under eighteen years, except evenings, Saturdays; Sundays, and holiday afternoons, when the fee is twenty-five cents.

On school days rinks will be available at no charge from 9 A.M. to noon for public, private, and parochial schools within the MDC Parks District for recreational skating.

Rinks will be closed on Thanksgiving and on Christmas Day. On Friday, December 24, and on Friday, December 31, they will close at 5 P.M. On New Year's Day they will open at 2 P.M.

NATIONAL HOBBY MONTH

Throughout the month of October, the Postal Service will celebrate National Hobby Month in cooperation with the National Hobby Industry of America, Postmaster Philip L. Sullivan announced.

"Stamp collecting is the most popular hobby in America and we support the belief that this and other hobbies are an enriching way to fill leisure time with creative pursuits," he added.

Many post offices will make lobby space available to local stamp clubs and other hobbyists to display their collections.

"Each year, thousands of school children tour our post offices to learn how mail is processed and delivered," explained Postmaster Sullivan. "This year, most of our school-sponsored tours will take place during National Hobby Month.

"Not only will the children learn a great deal about how their Postal Service works, but they will also have a chance to examine other hobbyists' collections."

SPECIAL ARTISTS EXHIBIT

The "Artists from the Factory Fire" exhibit will be held at Boston City Hall's Main Gallery currently through October 28. The exhibit features artwork by Boston artists whose studios, works, and living quarters were destroyed in last February's Jamaica Plain factory fire. The factory served as living and working quarters for more than eighty members of Boston's artist community.

A wide variety of sculpture, painting, photographic arts, and prints will be displayed in styles ranging from realistic to abstract. Of special interest is a 10-foot by 12-foot, sketched portrait of artist Henry DeLeon by Andy Haley.

Photographs of artist's studios and living quarters at the Jamaica Plain factory will be shown in a special photo-documentary section of the exhibit.

"We are very pleased to be able to bring this exhibit to the public," said Office of Cultural Affairs Director Elizabeth G. Cook. "This office has been involved with the Jamaica Plain factory artists since the fire, helping to find alternative housing and working space and dealing with related issues, such as zoning laws. This exhibit is a way to share with more of the public the value and quality of these artists' work, and the significance of their community."

"Hopefully the show of these Boston artists will draw attention to the valuable contribution that, as creative people, they make to Boston's cultural scene," explains Tom Levin, spokesman for the artist group. "When the large factory building in Jamaica Plain burned to the ground last February, Boston lost a valuable artist colony. Many of the young, struggling artists were unable to relocate in a studio and were forced to leave."

The exhibit, jointly sponsored by the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs and the artists of the Jamaica Plain factory, will be open to the public through October 28, Mondays through Fridays, 10 A.M. to 4 P.M., and Saturdays, 10:30 A.M. to 3:30 P.M. For more information on the exhibit call Artsline, 261-1660, a service of the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs.

PORTUGUESE ART EXHIBITS

Currently Festival Bostonian celebrates the Portuguese-speaking cultures in Boston. Concerts, art exhibits, folk dances, and lectures are part of the month-long celebration. Portuguese-speaking people from the Azores, Continental Portugal, the Cape Verde Islands, Brazil, and Madeira Islands will share their traditions during the October events. The Portuguese-speaking celebration is sponsored by Festival Bostonian, a program of the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs, and Boston's Portuguese-speaking community.

Exhibits of Portuguese art and historic artifacts, as well as shows of contemporary Portuguese-speaking artists, will be displayed at Boston City Hall galleries through October 28. A one-man show by Rogerio Silva, famous designer, engraver, and painter, will be featured in City Hall's Scollay Square Gallery. Mr. Silva, originally from the Azores, is now a resident of New Bedford. He has exhibited in Lisbon, the Azores, and the United States. Other City Hall exhibits on the art and customs of Portuguese-speaking people include "Portuguese Scenes and Artifacts," "Portuguese Pilgrims and Dighton Rock," "Portuguese-Speaking People Here and There," and "Works by Portuguese-Speaking Artists."

INTERESTED IN SCIENCE?

A new program in the Hayden Planetarium at Boston's Museum of Science brings astronomical objects down to earth.

"How High?" gives a sense of the sizes and distances involved in understanding the universe. It begins with a comparison of the earth's center and that of other bodies in the solar system. With special projection on the Planetarium dome, it shows how distances to more celestial objects are determined by radar and other means.

Along the program's revelations: Although the sun is 400 times the diameter of the moon, the sun is also 400 times farther away, so the two bodies appear the same size from the earth, allowing the moon to completely block the sun during a total solar eclipse.

If the sun were hollow, more than one million earths could fit inside it.

Neutron stars are so small they are hardly wide enough to engulf Metropolitan Boston.

Other stars, such as the red giants, are hundreds of times greater in diameter than our sun. If the sun were placed at the center of the star Betelgeuse, for example, all the planets out to Mars would lie within the star.

The Andromeda Galaxy, nearest of the spiral galaxies to ours, is more than two million light-years away, and the recently discovered quasars may be up to 20 billion light-years away.

The voice on the taped program is that of local announcer, Jim Baslo, of WEEL.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT

THEATRICAL AGENCY SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with inviting proposals by advertising in the City Record, in awarding to the Ford Theatrical Agency, 120 Boylston Street, Boston, MA 02116, a contract to supply entertainment for Wednesday Evening on the Plaza, August 18, 1976, Irish Nite, for a total not to exceed $4,500. This is to be charged to the Parks and Recreation Department budget 1-11-41 (29), Miscellaneous
Contractual Services.

The services to be provided by the Ford Theatrical Agency include organizing and providing entertainers for the evening of August 18, 1976. The entertainers are Carmel Quinn, singer of Irish songs and ballads;
James Joyce, comedian specializing in Irish humor; ten Irish step dancers; and a five-piece orchestra.

Because the Ford Theatrical Agency is the local agent for this talent no useful purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
PETER G. MEADE,
Commissioner.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with inviting proposals by advertising in the City Record, in awarding to Mr.
Angelo Picardi, of 27 Prince Street, Boston, MA 02113, a contract to supply entertainment and to perform at Wednesday Evening on the Plaza, August 25, 1976, Italian Nite, for a total not to exceed $3,000. This is to be charged to the Parks and Recreation Department budget 1-11-41 (29), Miscellaneous Contractual Services.

The services to be provided by Mr. Picardi include organizing and providing entertainers and performing on the evening of August 25, 1976.

Because of the special nature of the services provided by Mr. Picardi no useful purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
PETER G. MEADE,
Commissioner.

PENAL INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT

COMPUTER CONSULTANT SERVICES

YOUR HONOR:

Your permission is respectfully requested to dispense with public bidding in contracting for computer consultant services in the development of the Deer Island Management System (D.I.M.S.), with the firm of Ernst and Ernst, 225 Franklin Street, Boston. This system will be fully integrated with the computer equipment made available to this department by the Boston Police Department. The firm of Ernst and Ernst is uniquely qualified in that it is presently consultant to the Boston Police and Administrative Services Departments and is most fully aware of the abilities and issues of their systems. To insert any other firm into this project would require it to learn the processes with which Ernst and Ernst are already familiar. Further, because of the sensitivity of the D.I.M.S. project, the credibility and experience of this firm with all parties facilitates an effective and timely implementation. The timeliness of implementation is a critical factor because, with the expanding Deed Island population, we need either to improve our existing system or add additional staff.

For the reasons detailed above, it is my conclusion that there is no public benefit in the public bidding processes. I request that the Penal Institutions Department be permitted to contract with the firm of Ernst and Ernst, for a sum not to exceed $7,500, for the period July 1, 1976, to June 30, 1977.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM W. NICKERSON,
Commissioner.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on July 21, 1976, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising, and to award a contract to Green International Affiliates, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation, with offices at 625 McGrath Highway, Somerville, Mass.

Under the terms of the contract, Green International Affiliates, Inc., will provide engineering services in the preparation of preliminary designs, working drawings, detailed specifications, and construction cost estimates for, and to supervise the construction of, the necessary facilities and utilities to provide ambulance and emergency vehicle driveways and a vehicle holding area on the site occupied by the Pavilion Building at the Boston City Hospital, Albany Street, Boston, at a cost for such services of 7.88 percent (Engineers 1967 "B" rate) of the presently estimated cost of construction of $130,000, the cost of the proposed services not to exceed $11,200 (including $956 for supplementary services).

In view of the professional and technical nature of the services to be performed, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

FEES AND LICENSES ANALYSIS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Approximately six years ago in 1970, the Boston firm of Casey and Dennis, real estate appraisers and consultants, was engaged by this department to submit a study and report to the Public Improvement Commission covering application of the city's regulations and statutes and the establishment of fee schedules for three specific projects, two tunnels, and a footbridge proposed to cross our public ways. In addition, in developing these reports, Casey and Dennis suggested fee schedules applicable to bridges and tunnels, in general and suggested guidelines for licenses relative to protection and/or indemnification of the city and aspects of the terms of the license.

Since that date, in addition to requests of abutters to bridge over or tunnel across our public ways, we have received requests for steam lines, chilled water lines, conduits, communication lines, and other similar services. These requests are not only for crossing our streets from side to side but also for tunnels and/or other utility systems to run longitudinally along our public ways.

Consequently, we feel that the original study and report, while excellent for its purpose, is inadequate to cover the ramifications of present day requests in general, and especially for the particular problems engendered by the special and nonconforming characteristics of the so-called "MASCO" tunnels, pipes, conduits, and other occupancy proposed for Longwood Avenue, Binney Street, Francis Street, and Vining Street, as planned by the hospital group here.

The firm of Casey and Dennis has shown marked ability in analysing this type of work for us before and they have submitted a proposal to us to undertake, for a fee of $3,750, a new study and report on behalf of the Public Improvement Commission which will examine all of the characteristics of the proposed occupancy including but not limited to:

The city's initial involvement; the city's continuing obligations and involvement; the extent, impact, and implications of the city's rights in and use of the ways; criteria for setting limits and extent of charges, and/or fees, both initial and ongoing; other pertinent information.

In addition, they propose, for an additional $750 fee, to upgrade the 1970 report relating in general to fee schedules and general license requirements with particular attention addressed to including recommendations relative to steam lines, pipes, conduits, and other similar installations not covered in the 1970 reports.

Therefore, recognizing the value of obtaining continuity and also to take advantage of their previously proven expertise, your Honor's permission is respectfully requested to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to Casey and Dennis, 73 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass., for the sum of $4,500, to provide the above-described services and for a period not to exceed ninety days from the date the contract is signed.

Very truly yours,
JOSEPH F. CASAZZA,
Commissioner of Public Works.

WEATHER FORECASTING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Snowstorms, heavy rains, and high winds create a number of problems for this department.

These problems can only be coped with by adequate preparations before the start of the storm. Accurate forecasts make the difference in being ready when it is necessary to spread salt on icy streets, plow snow, or to control drainage for flood operations, or to have the city tied up by a delay in the start of these operations.

The National Weather Services had not been able to furnish the type of forecasting we require, because of the lack of personnel, so for a number of years the city has depended on a private firm, Weather Services Corporation, who have given satisfactory service.

Accordingly, your permission is requested to dispense with the public advertising and award a contract to Weather Services Corporation, of 131A Great Road, Bedford, Mass., for weather information and consultation from July 1, 1976, to June 30, 1977, not to exceed the amount of $2,600.

Very truly yours,
JOSEPH F. CASAZZA,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT

SWIMMING PROGRAMS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Harold I. Miroff, for supervision of Boston Public Schools' swimming instructions of students and construction of pools for the Boston Public Schools.

This contract is to extend from July 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $21,008.

The contractor shall render the following services:

1. Recruit and screen personnel for all pools.
2. Train selected individuals in skills and techniques of teaching swimming which are particular to our schools.
3. Set up and maintain a comprehensive and up-to-the-minute inservice program for all instructors.
4. Be responsible for scheduling of duty hours for all permanent and part-time pool instructors.
5. Prepare a curriculum to include all phases of swimming.
6. Prepare programs for all grade levels and student abilities.
7. Observe and supervise pool personnel regularly at their duties.
8. Prepare for exhibitions and water shows several times during the year to acquaint parents and school administrators of the students progress.
9. Be responsible for all facets of pool operation and instruction.
10. Establish and conduct coaching clinics for our high school swimming coaches.

championship meets for the Boston schools.

12. Train new teachers and retrain teachers who conduct swimming classes at the Boston School Department in order to keep their water safety instructor's rating up to date.

13. Supervise all competitive swimming meets throughout the schools.

14. Supervise a middle school program if the School Committee votes to expand an existing program.

15. Train and instruct minority students for lifeguard positions for outside agencies.

16. Advisor to the Department of Public Facilities on the construction of pools and equipment to be used in all the schools of the City of Boston.

Because of the need to continue the swimming programs in community schools and high schools for the coming academic year, and because of his skills in teaching and administrative experience of past years in directing the smooth operational system of instructions and selection of swimming personnel—where there can be no accounting— and because of his expertise in the suggestions of the construction and maintenance of present pools and the input of experience for future swimming pools in the Boston schools, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest cannot be served by public advertisement of bids.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to David P. Bernstein, for implementation of the Budget Management Program, during the period of July 15, 1976, through June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $25,500.

The purpose of the Budget Management Program will be to identify and estimate the costs of providing education to the residents of the City of Boston, and to institute methods and procedures for controlling such costs.

Because of the need to implement the program immediately, and because of the unique experience and training of the consultant, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest cannot be served by public advertisement of bids.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

ANTHONY L. GALEOTA,
Chief Structural Engineer.

DATA PROCESSING EQUIPMENT

MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request that the Optical Scanning Corporation, Newtown, PA 18940, be awarded a contract, without public bidding, the amount of $12,552. The services provided are:

To install, maintain, and support an optical scanning device (OPSCAN 100 DM) and related equipment at the Data Processing Center of the Boston Public Schools.

No: A copy of the Optical Scanning Corporation proposal is attached.

The equipment is manufactured only by Optical Scanning Corporation, and has been at our center for many years. This contract would simulate a renewal for one year. We have given termination notice and the equipment will be removed June 30, 1976. We believe that the best interests of the School Department would be served by awarding a contract to Optical Scanning Corporation.

Sincerely yours,

JAMES W. DAILEY,
Director.

ENGLISH CURRICULUM

MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Professor Robert Rathbone, during the period from July 15, to August 31, 1976, at a cost not to exceed $2,100.

The contractor shall prepare a special English/communications curriculum for youngsters in the new technical school which will impart their knowledge of the great diversity of modes of communication while involving their own communications skills; develop a curriculum in the special skills in communications needed in the technological fields offered by the school; and direct preparation of the English/communications curriculum toward integrating communications into all activities fully with the other activities which motivate youngsters in the school. Professor Rathbone received the A.B. degree from Middlebury College and the A.M.T. degree from Harvard University. Professor Rathbone is presently Professor of Technical Communication in the Department of Humanities at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Professor Rathbone has played a major role in developing techniques for teaching technical writing in connection with M.I.T. programs in Civil Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Metallurgy and others. Prior to his tenure at M.I.T. he taught English in a variety of high school settings for eleven years.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this contract and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed without an appropriation under the provisions of G.L., ch. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, state approved Project No. 6-24.

Very truly yours,

EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

LANGUAGE PROGRAMS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Roberto M. Soto, during the period from July 9, 1976, through December 31, 1976, at a cost not to exceed $7,400.

The contractor shall inventory legal documents, codes, and guidelines pertinent to the educational needs of children of limited English-speaking ability. After said inventory, contractor will have appropriate materials translated into Spanish and Italian and disseminated widely throughout the Spanish- and Italian-speaking communities, respectively, of Boston. The contractor will provide supervision for the program staff for four days per week for twenty-five weeks.

Mr. Soto received a B.A. from Manhattan College in 1972 and an Ed.M. from Harvard University in 1974. He is currently a candidate for the doctoral degree at Harvard in its Administration, Planning, and Social Policy program. Mr. Soto has extensive educational experience with bilingual and other instructional programs for non-English-speaking children, and has served such programs in the capacities of teacher, supervisor, trainer, evaluator, and administrator.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this contract and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed without an appropriation under the provisions of G.L., ch. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, state approved Project No. 1C-14.

Very truly yours,

EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

GAS SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I request your approval of my action in issuing a service order, without advertising, to the Boston Gas Company, in the amount of $2,509, for providing the metering, increasing the gas services, and providing necessary underground piping for the heating of water in the Jefferson School (O.R.C. Center).

It is imperative that this project be undertaken immediately in order to provide the services necessary for the Cosmetology Program at this school.

Inasmuch as we must use the metering equipment of the sole supplier, the Boston Gas Company, no useful purpose would be served by advertising.

Respectfully submitted,

ANTHONY L. GALEOTA,
Chief Structural Engineer.

SERVICES UNDER CHAPTER 766

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Regis College, during the period from April 1, 1976, through December 31, 1976, at a cost not to exceed $18,390.

Regis College has been audited and approved by the state department for a licensure program in conjunction with Boston Public Schools. Up to twelve hours will be provided at this time for the first of a two-year program towards this competence-based program.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this contract and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed without an appropriation under the provisions of G.L., ch. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, state approved Project No. 1D-8.

Very truly yours,

EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston, and upon recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Simmons College, 300 The Fenway, Boston, MA 02115 (telephone 738-2000), for the provision of a District IV 766 Training Program during the period July 1, 1976, through December 31, 1976, at a cost not to exceed $9,000.

The contractor will provide required retraining to District IV teachers in accordance with chapter 766 professional standards. (See Exhibit A for an expanded scope of services description). Because Simmons College and District IV initiated this effort in 1975-76, and because Simmons College is one of only five colleges authorized by the state Department of Education to provide this specialized training, it is the determination of the School Committee that public interest would not be served by public advertisement of bids.

This agreement is to be executed without an appropriation under the provisions of G.L., c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, section 1, state approved Project ID-6.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,

MEDIA SPECIALIST SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Roger Thomas, for consultant services as a media specialist, during the period April 26, 1976, through June 30, 1976, at a cost not to exceed $2,000.

The contractor shall conduct twenty-five all-day workshops/training sessions in the classrooms of the three District VI middle schools. Content of the sessions will include training in the use of media equipment and opportunities for expanding media awareness and developing media skills for use in the classroom.

Because of Mr. Thomas' positive past experiences in working as a media specialist consultant with the three District VI middle schools in a similar 636 program funded last year and because of Mr. Thomas' knowledge and resources in the field of media, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed without an appropriation under the provisions of G.L., c. 44 s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, section 1, 6-32E.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

LEGAL SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston, I request your written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement and to award to Francis J. DiMento and James J. Sullivan, attorneys-at-law, 100 State Street, Boston, Mass., the following two amendments to a contract for legal representation in matters relating to civil proceedings involving racial imbalance and desegregation:

1. Change amount from $250,000 to $275,000.

Since the services to be provided under the proposed contract are to be both professional and confidential in nature, and due to the experience and past performance of Messrs. DiMento and Sullivan in matters relating to civil proceedings involving racial imbalance and desegregation, it is the view of the Boston School Committee that publicly inviting proposals would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

SUFFOLK COUNTY District Attorney's Office LEASING OF VEHICLES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As District Attorney for Suffolk County, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with public advertising in the award of a contract to Bonded Leasing Company, Inc., 955 Turnpike Street, Canton, Mass. 02121, in an amount not to exceed $26,340, for a one-year period, May 1, 1976, through April 30, 1977.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Governor's Public Safety Committee under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-351), as amended by the Omnibus Crime Control Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-644).

The purpose of the grant is to allow the Suffolk County District Attorney's Office to establish an intensive investigation and prosecution unit.

Bonded Leasing Company, Inc. is an automobile lessor which has provided leased vehicles to the above-mentioned project for the past two years. Two of the nine automobiles to be leased this year were also leased by this staff in the past year. They have already been equipped with devices necessary to allow this office to perform the tasks specified in the grant. These two vehicles will be leased this year at a greatly reduced rate. The cost of each vehicle will be approximately $960 per year, less than the rental of a new automobile.

Six automobiles will be leased at an annual per vehicle cost of $2,940, the same as the annual cost for a new automobile in the past year; and one vehicle will be leased at an annual cost of $3,300. We have solicited informal proposals from approximately ten other leasing firms. In each case, the alternatives to Bonded Leasing Corporation were over and above the average of $2,940 when considered with other incident advantages.

As in the past, the leased vehicles will be utilized for police surveillance activities. To publicly advertise the specifications of the automobiles would defeat the purpose for which they are to be leased.

It is my conclusion, based on (a) the cost of these vehicles; (b) the uniform manner in which these vehicles will be used at this office; and (c) the need for preservation of confidentiality with respect to the leasing of these vehicles, that public advertising serve no useful or practical purpose.

Respectfully,
GARRETT H. BYRNE,
District Attorney

AUDITING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertisement and to award a contract to Touche Ross and Co., a firm of certified public accountants with offices at One Boston Boston, Mass., for auditing services in connection with an investigation of transportation carriers under contract with the City of Boston.

The District Attorney's office, empowered by vote of the Grand Jury, has engaged Touche Ross and Co., to investigate certain records. Under terms of the contract, Touche Ross and Co. will conduct an audit and present a report describing methods and findings.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $100,000. The terms of the contract shall be from July 7, 1976, through October 15, 1976.

It is my opinion that public advertisement would serve no useful purpose, because of the specialized nature of the contract.

Very truly yours,
GARRETT H. BYRNE,
District Attorney

III. LETTER OF THANKS

"October 3, 1976.

DEAR COMMISSIONER PAUL:

I wish to let you know what a fine group of men you have at Ladder 9 in Charlestown. On September 14th, at about 5:15, my baby turned blue and stopped breathing. Group 3 was on my street in minutes. Mr. Buckley did what had to be done and held the baby until the ambulance arrived.

Thé baby is still in the hospital. It was the crib death syndrome. She will come home with a machine. This is apt to happen again, but knowing help is minutes away at Ladder 9 is going to make it a little easier to take. You must be proud of such a dedicated group of men.

Sincerely,

JUDITH E. EVERS,

24 St. Martin Street, Charlestown."

HON. KEVIN H. WHITE. MAYOR OF BOSTON

LOUISE DAY HICKS
PRESIDENT, CITY COUNCIL

VC. 68 MONDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1976 NO. 43

Mayor Appoints Job Evaluation Board

Mayor Kevin H. White has introduced a committee of eight members responsible for designing a fair and uniform personnel policy for all city employees.

The Mayor, with this action, creates for the first time in city history a permanent clearinghouse for municipal employment decisions.

Calling it a move to "cut costs, improve productivity, and reward hardworking employees," Mayor White said the Board will review all city departments to determine the need for existing functions and evaluate employee performance.

The Mayor said the Board will develop a standard, ongoing system for making recommendations to department heads for hiring, promotion, transfers, and terminations among the city's 14,000 employees. "This new Personnel Board is a mechanism meant to centralize and increase accountability to the process of evaluating, hiring, and promoting employees," the Mayor said.

"There has never before been one central clearinghouse for determining the city's employment needs — reviewing department efficiency, employees performance, of retaining competent employees, and felling unproductive employees accountable," Mayor White explained.

"This system is not meant to be punitive, but is an effort to both recognize and reward employees who have proven their competence and to find and weed out employees who are not productive.

"Too often in the past hardworking and interested employees have been overlooked and those who have not been pulling their own have gotten by.

"This system must be revamped. Boston is faced with serious financial problems and we must act decisively and over the long term to better manage our employee resources.

"We must create a personnel system that is flexible. One which places people in jobs they like, where they will have the most impact. At the same time," the Mayor said, "we should eliminate jobs that are no longer necessary to cut costs and improve productivity."

Appointed by Mayor White to serve as members of the newly formed Board are:

— Robert A. Freeley of Dorchester, forty-eight, now director of the Office of Personnel Management and former commissioner of Veterans' Services. Mr. Freeley is a career government employee and has served the city for sixteen years.

— Jane Deutsch of Brighton, twenty-six, former director of the Mayor's Commission on the Status of Women. Ms. Deutsch has worked as a legislative aide in the state Senate and has served the city for two years.

— John E. Murphy of Brighton, twenty-eight, former school teacher and job counselor, now deputy director of personnel in charge of non-civil service employee relations.

— Everett Shepard of Dorchester, fifty, former deputy commissioner of the city's Commission on the Affairs of the Elderly and a program manager, Elder Services Corps of the state Department of Elder Affairs.

— Marybeth Danenbarger of Boston, thirty-five, former high school English teacher, City Hall tour guide director, and a program director for the city's Office of Cultural Affairs. She has worked for the city for three years.

— Teri Weidner of Topsfield, thirty, former special coordinator for the city's Office of Communications and a special assistant to the Mayor. Ms. Weidner has served the city for four and a half years.

— Matthew F. Hanley, Jr. of Jamaica Plain, thirty-one, former deputy director of operations, Boston Housing Improvement Program. A city employee for six years.

— Marylou Gens of Boston, twenty-eight, former communications director for the city's Youth Job Evaluation Board . . .

Activities Commission. A city employee for four years.

The new Board will operate by consensus in all recommendations made in employment decisions.

"The Board I am appointing reflects the city's employee population in age, where they live, length of employment, and the diverse range of employment experience with the city," Mayor White said.

"I have a great deal of confidence that they will act fairly, openly, and with sensitivity in evaluating the need for specific functions and employee performance.

"I have every confidence that no personnel decisions will be made in haste or in a vacuum. There are no quotas, but hard personnel decisions must be made, and they will be humane and in the best interest of the city."

Criteria used in evaluating employees will be professional competence; job performance, including attendance, productivity, reliability, and interest; and residency will be used as a requirement in filling any new position.

In addition to employee evaluation, the new Board is responsible for developing a job bank for use in hiring new employees and acting on transfers for employees seeking a job change; structuring a recruitment and training program; publishing a handbook on employee benefits; and filling vacancies and expired terms on city boards and commissions.

MAYOR VETOES ORDINANCE CONCERNING ABORTION CLINICS OPERATORS

October 12, 1976.

To The City Council.

DEAR COUNCILLORS:

I return herewith without my signature and disapproved an ordinance passed by your Honorable Body on September 27, 1976, which forbids any person to operate an abortion clinic or, except in a general hospital, perform an abortion without a license from the Board of Health and Hospitals. That Board may issue a license for a fee of one thousand dollars to holders who comply with regulations adopted by the Board. The ordinance treats all abortions alike regardless of the stage of pregnancy.

My reasons for disapproval are that the ordinance in effect sets up special conditions for performing abortions during the first three months of pregnancy not generally applicable to other medical procedures involving no more risk. This the Supreme Court has said states may not do. Roe v. Wade, 410 U.S. 113. (1973). See Friendship Medical Center, Ltd. v. Chicago Board of Health, 505 F. 2d 1141 (7th Cir. 1974) cert. den. 120 U.S. 997 (1975); Haltmark Clinic v. North Carolina Department of Human Resources, 380 F. Supp. 1153 (E.D.N.C. 1974), aff'd. 519 F. 2d 1315 (5th Cir. 1975).

I am, however, in sympathy with the purposes of the ordinance to secure proper care to persons so treated. The safeguards which you enumerate for adoption by the Board of Health and Hospitals appear reasonable. There should be qualified professional persons in attendance with equipment and procedures for use in the event of emergency. Rho-Gam should be available to those who need it

In those precautions and others contained in Regulations for A bulatory Gynecological Surgery published by the Department Public Health, on May 29, 19 Although the validity of the reg tions is being challenged in fe court, I understand that thre the abortion clinics in Boston voluntarily comply with the requ ments they contain.

UNITED WAY CAMPAIGN FIRST REPORT

United Way of Massachusetts Bay Chairman David R. Palmer said recently that 32.5 percent of the $18.6 million goal for this drive has been raised.

Mr. Palmer told 500 United Way volunteers from state companies, institutions, and organizations, gathered at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Boston, that $6,015,266 has been raised through their efforts through September 11.

United Way raises and distributes funds which support more than 100 United Way agencies of health, family and child care for 1,000,000 people in Massachusetts.

This year's subtotal is $6,015,266, ahead of last year's pace and represents the largest amount ever presented to a United Way first meeting.

Mr. Palmer attributed the success this year to the outstanding effort by companies conducting employee campaigns.

The campaign runs until November 18. The second report was held October 21.

RECOGNITION DAY: IT WILL BE REMEMBERED

October 7, 1976, was Recognition Day for the senior volunteers of the city's Retired Volunteer Program. Mayor Kevin H. White commended the seniors at City Hall prior to their mid-morning departure for the Edaville Railroad in South Carver, Massachusetts. The R.S.V.P. volunteers provide thousands of hours of service to agencies in Boston. The group has been in existence for the past four years. The program assists Boston residents, who are sixty years of age and older, to find volunteer work in non-profit agencies throughout the city. Commissioner on Affairs of the Elderly, Maureen Schaffner, and Deputy Commissioner, James McCarthy, were on hand to congratulate the group.

Later, seven buses containing the excited visitors, were greeted at the Edaville Railroad by members of the R.S.V.P. staff and its advisory committee. The setting was magnificent. A steam locomotive and accompanying passenger cars were waiting at the station for the volunteers. One group of volunteers rode the train, accompanied by an accordionist, while the other half ventured to the barbeque grove for a delicious chicken dinner. Entertainment was provided by a one-man band.

After both groups had sated their appetites and ridden the train, they visited the antique car and train museum located at Edaville.

Kudos are due to Mervyn Gibbs, Director of R.S.V.P., and R.S.V.P. staffers, Marsha Sherman, Louis Galligan, Madelyn Hickson, Helen Slater, and Angela Fay, as well as those from the Commission itself and the members of the R.S.V.P. advisory committee, especially Paul Robinson. It was a lovely day and a lovely setting and the event will be long remembered by those in attendance.

THE CUSTOM HOUSE

The Custom House, built by Ammi B. Young in 1834-47, originally stood at the water's edge. It was built to replace the first Boston Custom House constructed by Uriah Cotting earlier in the century. Greek Revival style with a striking Doric colonnade, the two-story structure was capped by a saucer dome, now visible only from the interior. In 1913, when Customs needed additional space but had no budget for acquiring a new site, a 30-story tower was built over the dome, thereby preserving the structure for the future. As a federal building, the Custom House was exempt from the city's 125-foot height restriction placed on all construction in 1904. The Custom House thus became the first "high-rise" in Boston and remained the tallest structure in the city until the construction of the John Hancock Building in 1949. The Custom House observation platform on the top floor is open to the public, free of charge, and offers an outstanding view of the city.

NEW MEDICAL DIRECTOR

Dr. Michael J. Donovan, a prominent South Boston surgeon, was appointed medical director of the South Boston Community Health Center, October 14, at a community meeting attended by more than 100 persons.

After a four-hour meeting with Mayor Kevin White and Dr. David Rosenbloom, Boston's commissioner of Health and Hospitals, Marie Ryan, the director of the Center's personnel committee, announced that Dr. Donovan had been appointed to fill the position, vacant since July 1 - with the Department of Health and Hospitals approval.

MAYOR URGES: IMPROVE EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM

Mayor Kevin H. White has delivered a report, recommending a series of actions needed to improve policy-making and leadership in the city's public school system, to the Boston School Committee and Boston School Superintendent Marion Fahey.

The sixteen-page report — "Improving Boston Education" — was prepared by a panel of four nationally known educators, following numerous hearings held in August with members of the Boston School Committee, parents, teachers, and others closely involved in Boston's public school system.

Creation of the school reform panel, chaired by Dr. Joseph M. Cronin, was called for by Mayor White following the Committee on Violence Report, released June 23, which criticized and asked for "an end to the present unworkable relationship between the Boston School Committee and the Superintendent."

The report, which states that the "opportunity not only to reduce conflicts, but to make genuine educational progress exists in Boston," cites four general areas where change is needed to create conditions for educational reform in Boston; and outlines fourteen specific recommendations to be taken by the Mayor, the School Committee, and the School Superintendent.

The four general areas are:

- Leadership and cooperation among the Mayor, the School Committee, the Superintendent, and the Court;

- Governance and management reform in the school system;

- Reform in the personnel appointment system of the School Department; and

- A city-wide effort to coordinate youth services among labor, business, cultural institutions, and existing youth agencies.

"It is my hope that all of us — the Boston School Committee, the Superintendent, the Court, myself — to whom recommendations for improving this city's educational system are made, will find in this report an opportunity for decisive action in creating an effective school administration," Mayor White said.

"There are many positive recommendations in this report which can be accomplished in the short term through cooperative action by all who are involved in the school system. I, as Mayor, will certainly cooperate to ensure that necessary actions are taken," Mayor White said.

"I am grateful and would like to thank the four members of the panel, men known both in Boston and across the country for their experience and work in studying urban school systems, for coming to Boston and taking the time to assist us in evaluating our school administration," he said.

The members of the school reform panel are:

- Dr. Joseph M. Cronin, the former Massachusetts secretary of education and author of a 1970 report analyzing organization and management of the Boston School Department. Dr. Cronin is now superintendent of public instruction for the state of Illinois.

- Dr. David Seeley, director of the Public Education Association (PEA) in New York, and a former education advisor to former Mayor John Lindsay.

- Dr. Luvern Cunningham, professor of educational administration at Ohio State University and its former dean. Dr. Cunningham has worked as executive director of the Detroit Education Task Force, a group appointed by the Detroit School Board to examine the financial and management problems of the Detroit schools.

- Dr. Joshua Smith, dean of the School of Education, City College of New York. Dr. Smith is a native of Boston and a graduate of the Boston Latin School and a former program officer of the Public Education Section of the Ford Foundation.

DISPLAY OUR FLAG PROUDLY

DEDICATION CEREMONY AT OTIS AIR FORCE BASE

Maj. Gen. Vahan Vartanian, Massachusetts Air National Guard, heads a committee of more than forty civic, veterans, business, and community leaders planning a public dedication ceremony for the new 750-acre VA National Cemetery, at Otis Air Force Base, on Monday, October 31, at 3:30 p.m.

New England governors, and national veterans organizations as well as area United States Congressmen and Senators, will be among the distinguished guests.

The ceremony itself will take place on General's Boulevard, which is off Connery Boulevard, the main road into the air base from Bourne rotary on Route 28. Numerous direction signs will be placed to divert vehicular traffic into the base from Route 28.

According to John W. Mahan, director of VA's National Cemetery Service, the dedication will be conducted to a backdrop of a 50-foot ceremonial flagpole which will be highlighted by a semicircle of the unfurled colors of forty nations, state, and local veterans organizations.

Approaching the dedication, the public and guests will pass an "Avenue of Flags" framed by scores of mounted flags that will be draped the caskets of deceased veterans and were donated by veterans to be used as ceremonial at the new National Cemetery. Mr. Mahan advised survivors might care to donate such items that they should be sent, identified, prior to October 20 to the Commander, VFW Post 180, 180 Shore Road, Bourne, MA 02532.

One highlight of the dedication will be the "Dedication of the hallowed Ground" ceremony performed by four chaplains representing the Protestant, Catholic, Jewish, and Greek Orthodox faiths.

As a finale, airmen from the Air Base will perform a flyover maneuver called the "Missile Fly By."

The ceremony will be hosted by members of VA's Advisory ite on Cemeteries and Monuments, including Chairman Adm.

John S. McCann, Jr., USN (Ret.)
and member Rear Adm. James F.

CONTRACTS AMENDED

The Mayor has approved the amending of contracts, based on the following information:

GAZOLINE AND OIL

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I am writing in reference to contract number SC-2662-76, with Johnny's Exxon, 3 Neponset Avenue, Dorchester, approved by you July 27, 1976, for gasoline and incidental oil for the Senior Shuttle vans assigned to Federated Dorchester Neighborhood Houses, Mary Ellen McCormick Project, and the Murphy Community School, for the period September 1, 1975, to March 31, 1976, in an amount not to exceed $3,000.

The funds used to cover this contract are provided under the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-383). Due to an extension of the CDBG fiscal year through June 30, 1976, your permission is hereby requested to extend this contract from April 1, 1976, to June 30, 1976, with a subsequent increase in the appropriation of an amount not to exceed $4,200.

Sincerely,
MAUREEN SCHAFFNER,
Commissioner.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

NUTRITION PROGRAM

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I hereby submit an amended letter of award to replace a previous letter, dated July 8, 1976, requesting permission to dispense with bidding and to award a contract to the Roxbury Federation of Neighborhood Centers, Inc., d/b/a Roxbury Beautification Program, 612 Blue Hill Avenue, Roxbury, Mass., for a nutrition program.

Specific information contained in the original letter of award has recently been modified and requires amendment as follows:

The contractor, originally identified as the Roxbury Federation of Neighborhood Centers, Inc., d/b/a Roxbury Beautification Program, is hereby amended to the Women's Service Club of Boston, d/b/a Roxbury Beautification Program.

On the basis of the Roxbury Beautification Program's previous experience and demonstrated ability to provide a similar nutrition program in the community, and due to the specialty of the services, I recommend that a contractual relationship between the city and the Women's Service Club, d/b/a Roxbury Beautification Program, be established at this time. Moreover, it is my view that public advertising would not serve any useful or practical purpose.

Sincerely,
E. OWEN DONNELLY,
Director.

MANPOWER ADMINISTRATION

CETA PROGRAM SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with advertising in the City Record, and to award an amendment to a contract with Kathy Mazzeo, 7 Hawthorne Street, Somerville, Mass. Approval of the contract amendment for $2,500 will raise the total contract amount to an amount not to exceed $14,656.

The purpose of the amendment is to allow Ms. Mazzeo to continue to assist the Manpower Administration in performing services under a special grant (Federal Grant Contract No. SP-25-6-P006-TAT) recently extended by the United States Department of Labor to November 30, 1976. The purpose of the grant is to provide for critical assessment of alternative techniques for evaluating the effectiveness of manpower programs under CETA.

The new period of performance will be from February 1, 1976, through November 30, 1976, or not to exceed ten months. The rate of pay will be $14,000, plus an additional $656 for travel expenses during the ten-month period.

Due to the fact that Ms. Mazzeo is already engaged in providing these services, and since the federal government has extended the grant, it is my opinion that no useful purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
JOSEPH R. DUGGAN,
Manpower Administrator.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT

BOSTON COMMON IMPROVEMENTS

DEAR SIR:

On April 28, 1975, your Honor approved the award of a publicly advertised contract to Center Construction Corporation, 35 Commercial Drive, Wrentham, Mass., for construction of restorations and improvements in the Boston Common, contract No. C-944-75.

The contract price at the time of award of the contract was $989,553. Article 11B of the contract provided for increasing or decreasing the quantities specified in the proposal in any of the unit price items, provided that the final contract sum shall not exceed the contract sum at the date of its execution, exclusive of the total of any lump sum prices, plus 5 percent thereof. The Auditor encumbered the sum of $1,036,650.65 for this contract, which included the contract sum at the date of its execution, plus the 5 percent provision of Article 11B.

Two change orders have been executed to date with the net result that the adjusted contract price is $945,549.60, and the total money encumbered as of this date is $992,647.25.

Underground electric, water, and drain pipes were removed, replaced, and relocated in order to construct the improvements called for under the contract. As the location, depth, etc. of the existing underground conditions were not known prior to excavating in the field work, orders were issued to cover the extra work not called for in the contract documents. Changes in the construction details, scope of work, and in the original design also required extra work. The result of the extra work is that the final contract price will be approximately $1,153,000.

Therefore I respectfully request your Honor's authorization to amend the contract between Center Construction Corporation and the City of Boston for construction of restorations and improvements in the Boston Common, dated May 30, 1975, to delete the wording "plus 5 percent" in Article 11B, and insert in place thereof the wording "plus 22 percent." This amendment will increase the total of money encumbered against the contract to $1,153,570.51, an increase of $116,919.86 over the original encumbrance of $1,036,650.65 and will enable the department to process formal change orders for the extra work. The actual increase in the contract price of this contract is approximately 16.6 percent over the contract price at the time of award of the contract.

Very truly yours,
PETER G. MEADE,
Commissioner.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

DESIGN OF GAME COURTS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on August 25, 1976, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in entering into an agreement with David A. Oldham, Robert J. Soforenko, Carl S. Priestley, and John W. Priestley, Jr., d/b/a Oldham, Soforenko, Priestley Associates, architects, 77 North Washington Street, Boston, Mass., amending a contract between the City of Boston and Oldham, Soforenko, Priestley Associates, dated November 14, 1975, to prepare preliminary designs, design development drawings, basic outline specifications, construction cost estimates, working drawings, and detailed specifications, and to supervise the construction of game courts at six locations in the City of Boston, Mass., so as to change the scope of work from six to four and decrease the compensation therefor.

Under this amendment, design of the Milmore Play area and Chester A. Payson Memorial Playground has been eliminated, lowering the estimated construction cost from $207,250 to $115,250, resulting in a design fee credit of $6,900.

Due to the provisions of law to the effect that executed and existing city contracts may only be altered by a writing signed by parties thereto, including the Mayor and the contract surety, it would appear that public advertising in this instance would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Respectfully,
VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

CRITICAL PATH METHOD SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on August 25, 1976, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in entering into an agreement with Systematic Associates, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation, offices at 163 Highland Avenue, Needham Heights, Mass., amending a contract between the City of Boston and Systematic Associates, Inc., dated October 29, 1974, to provide CPM (Critical Path Method) service in connection with the construction of Quincy School and Barnes School, so as to increase the amount authorized for expenditure under the contract by $4,500, from $77,960 to $82,460.

This amendment is to cover the cost of an additional fifteen weekly meetings contemplated when the contract was originally awarded.

Due to the provisions of the law to the effect that executed and existing city contracts may only be altered by a writing signed by all the parties thereto, including the Mayor and contract surety, it would appear that public advertising in this instance would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Respectfully,
VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

LEGAL SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston, I request your written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement, and to award to Kline and Gordon, attorneys at law, 92 State Street, Boston, Mass., an amendment to a contract for legal representation in the case of *Black Voters, Rose Jolley et al., Civil Action No. 75-812-T, vs. John J. TITLE I ENABLING PROGRAM

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to John B. Young of 96 Argilla Road, Andover, MA 01810, for the Title I, E.S.E.A., Enrichment program, funded by H.E.W., Title I, E.S.E.A.

This contract to extend from February 1, 1976 (or upon School Committee approval), through August 30, 1976, at a cost not to exceed $2,508. On the original award letter dated January 26, 1976, the amount of the contract was incorrectly stated at $2,058 through a typographical error. The purpose of this award letter is to state the correct amount of the contract of $2,508.

The contractor shall (1) Contact all state, city, and federal departments and agencies necessary for the gathering of statistics which will comprise the basis for determining individual school eligibility for Title I services; (2) Devise a formula which will satisfactorily authenticate a final priority listing of schools by levels (elementary, middle, high school) for Title I services matching pupils, age, AFDC recipients and address; (3) Research and submit all private and parochial school enrollment information to be submitted with public school data; (4) Write a computer program that establishes eligibility of Boston Public Schools for Title I program; (5) Submit computerized printouts which will provide backup material for our entire eligibility study; (6) Provide a system of updating Title I equipment and materials located in Title I schools; (7) Investigate possibility of writing a computer program for our annual "comparability" study.

It is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids because of the unique nature of the services to be performed (as enumerated above).

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G.L., c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from H.E.W., Title I, E.S.E.A.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

Park Plaza: New Development Plan

After almost six years of delay, a new version of the development of the Park Plaza Project appears to have been accepted. A news release was called recently by the Park Plaza Civic Advisory Committee to announce its support of a new plan to redevelop the Park Plaza area.

Seward Forbes, BRA deputy director for development, said that only state approval now stands in the way of construction. Work on the Plaza might start in the spring of 1978, and possibly end during 1985.

Henry Lee, chairman of the advisory group, called the latest proposal "realistic" and noted that the group will continue to monitor the project and, if necessary, "criticize it to agree."

Ar Mort Zuckerman, the developer, said his part of the project would amount to about $125 million. The remainder of $400 million will be derived from combined federal, state, and city funds. The Massachusetts legislature must approve construction of the proposed state transportation building which would house offices of MBTA, Department of Transportation, and Massport.

Park Plaza Fact Sheet:

As a result of the 22-month environmental analysis of Park Plaza, the density of the project has been reduced from 10 million square feet to approximately 2.3 million square feet.

The number of tower elements has also been reduced from five to two and the maximum height of those towers from 40 to 300 feet, respectively.

— Under the revised plan, Park Plaza will now consist of the following components:

- A low-rise, luxury hotel of 150 rooms, along Boylston Street, between Hadassah Way and Charles Street. Height of the building will be 130 feet along its street facade.
- On the east side of Charles Street (where the Trailways Bus Terminal and Eliot Street Garage are now located) there will be a 600,000-square-foot State Transportation office building. Height of the building will be 155 feet.
- A low-rise office building of 550,000 square feet along Boylston Street, between Arlington Street and Hadassah Way. Height of the building will be 85 feet along its street facade, with a setback of 50 feet where it becomes 130 feet high.
- It is proposed that the existing Motor Mart Garage will be expanded into a 1,000-car parking garage.

- A public plaza of 65,000 square feet (1.5 acres) will be built in what is now Park Square.
- An apartment tower 300 feet high, with 300 units of market rental housing, will be constructed at the southern edge of the Plaza.
- There will be parking for 100 cars in the basement level of the State Transportation office building.

PRODUCTIVITY: CATALYST TO PROSPERITY

By Richard F. Treadway
District Director
U. S. Department of Commerce/Boston

Every American has a vital stake in improving productivity. Only through productivity growth can Americans continue to be the highest-paid workers in the world.

The U.S. Department of Commerce has a number of services in the area of productivity. Our Boston District Office can provide resource material, counselling, and assistance to firms interested in doing something about productivity problems. Firms in the New England area may obtain our services by calling or writing me at the Boston District Office, 10th Floor, 111 Stuart Street, Boston, Mass. 02116. Phone: 617-223-2381.

I believe that hopes for a better life for family and children depend on productivity. Hopes for more material comforts, more leisure time, greater real security in retirement all will be directly affected by our future productivity gains.

There is no sleight-of-hand that can increase long-term real wages or profits in a competitive society without productivity gains.

The economic benefits which come from increases in productivity can lead to increases in wages, increases in profits, or to a combination of each. Decreases in productivity can only adversely affect wages, prices, and profits, and eventually will jeopardize the continued existence of an enterprise competing in a free market.

With a viable rate of productivity growth we can: continue to enjoy high and rising standards of living; sharpen our competitive ability in both the domestic and foreign markets; expand real job opportunities by increasing our exports and by increasing real incomes; better meet the costs of environmental cleanup, improved transportation systems, and better health facilities through the wealth produced by rising output per man-hour.

The National Commission on Productivity and Work Quality says the most crucial factors affecting productivity fall into three basic categories: human resources, technology and capital investment, and government regulation.

There used to be fears that productivity was synonymous with the job "speed-up" or harder physical work on the one hand and a loss of jobs on the other. History shows, however, that productivity improvements have made work easier, less demanding and, on the whole, pleasanter. Forty years ago, building excavations took a lot of man-hours with pick and shovel. Today the job is done by fewer men using powerful earthmovers.

Productivity is not just working harder. More often, it is working smarter — more efficiently and rationally so that more can be accomplished and produced with less effort. It means providing workers with more and better capital goods. It means re-examining the old ways of doing things, and changing them when it makes sense to do so. This could mean improving the work environment, getting workers more deeply involved in what they are doing, changing modes of transportation, or investing in new technologies. Improved productivity means improving the quality as well as the quantity of work, with increased quantity often resulting from improved quality.

"T" TEMPORARY DISRUPTION

Weather permitting and until further notice, Sunday service on the Red Line between Kendall and Charles Stations will be disrupted while the West Boston Bridge across the Charles River is waterproofed.

Buses will be substituted for trains between the two stations, starting at 6 A.M. Sundays. Regular Red Line service will resume at 5 A.M. Mondays. Saturday night service on the Red Line will not be affected.

If the weather is inclement and the contractor cannot work on the bridge, normal Sunday train service will be operated.

DON'T GET FLU: GET A SHOT!

The American Lung Association urged chronic lung disease sufferers to make certain they receive protection against the flu viruses expected during the 1976-77 season. Usually a mild illness for healthy people, flu can mean serious trouble for those with lung diseases," Dr. J. Welch, of the American Association of Boston, said. "As risk is concerned, this is no different for these 14 million Americans than any other season."

A lung infection can interfere with the lung's cleansing mechanism and the supply of oxygen to the body, the Christmas Seal spokesman explained. For those with diseases such as emphysema, who rarely got enough oxygen without complications, the result may be dangerous, even fatal. Flu is a no hazard for those with chronic bronchitis. It can exacerbate asthma, even precipitate attacks.

Dr. Welch said TB patients are at extra risk, because so many are elderly or suffering from other ailments, such as heart disease or diabetes. Any one of these conditions places an individual at risk when flu strikes, he said.

Dr. Welch said controversy surrounding the government's mass immunization program, and recommendation that persons at risk receive two separate vaccines, may be confusing to lung disease patients and their families. "All persons should receive the inactivated vaccine, that protects both against the so-called "swine-flu" virus (A/New Jersey/76) and last year's A-flu virus (A/Victoria/75). This is expected to resurface this season. The bivalent vaccine is available free of charge through the city sponsored inoculation program, that began this week in the Boston area.

Dr. Welch said the American Lung Association and its medical arm, the American Thoracic Society, recommend that adults with chronic lung diseases also be protected against the B-flu virus. B-flu vaccine is available only from private physicians and must be given in a separate shot. The B-flu vaccine will not be offered at government-sponsored inoculation centers.

The local Christmas Seal Association is offering a special pamphlet, "Flu, 1976-77," that answers many questions about this year's flu season and the inoculation program. For a free copy, write the American Lung Association of Boston, 51 Sleeper Street, Boston, Mass. 02210; or call 426-8330.

MARIGOLD GARDEN EXHIBIT AT BPL

A myriad of color, style, and talent will be represented in the Boston Public Library exhibition Marigold Garden: 38 New England Illustrators, to be held in the Wiggin Gallery from November 3 through 28. The exhibition is co-sponsored by the New England Authors and Illustrators of Children's Books — a local group formed two years ago to promote an interest in authors and illustrators and to make available to others the expertise of those already established in the field.

Co-coordinators of the group are Gretchen Wichtermann, illustrator and portrait artist, and Barbara Yacono, illustrator and graphic designer.

The exhibit will include many of the Boston area's well-known illustrators — Ed Emberley, James Marshall, Blair Lent, Wallace Tripp, Barbara Cooney, Marcia Sewall, Trina Schart Hyman, Tomie de Paola, Donald Carrick among them.

An all-day program concentrating on various techniques of book illustration will be held on Monday, November 8, from noon to 10 P.M. at the Boston Public Library. During the first session, four separate small groups of artists, editors, and book designers will describe the problems and stages of working with photography, wood cuts, watercolors, and pencil sketches.

At 8 P.M. that evening, Donald Reynolds, Jr., editor, Children's Literature in Education; librarian, Walden School, New York City; and former member of American Library Association's Juvenile Book Evaluation Committee, will discuss "The Picture Book as Art." He will also moderate a panel of illustrators and art directors, which includes John Steptoe, Trina Schart Hyman, Tomie de Paola, and Ava Weiss from Greenwillow Press.

The programs will be held in the Lecture Hall of the Boston Public Library. For further information please contact the Library's Information Office, 536-5400, Ext. 231.

RACE FOR THE WHITE HOUSE

Its statewide journey completed, "The Race for the White House," a series of free exhibitions and documentary films exploring the nature of Presidential election campaigns, returns to Boston next week for display at the Boston Public Library in Copley Square through November 6.

The series is sponsored by the John F. Kennedy Library and the 16 home-based life insurance companies of Massachusetts.

The elaborate exhibit, prepared for the Forum by the Kennedy Library, consists of political memorabilia from Presidential campaigns since the Truman-Dewey contest of 1948. Through a vast array of colorful posters, original speech drafts, deadlines and photos, the panorama puts the electoral process into historical perspective.

By analyzing the activities of Presidential hopefuls, including Jimmy Carter and Gerald Ford, the collection revives the excitement of the campaign, the elements of the race, the personalities involved and the crises faced in the climb for the nation's highest office. The exhibit may be viewed from 9 A.M. to 9 P.M., Mondays through Fridays, from 9 A.M. to 6 P.M. on Saturdays, and from 2 to 6 P.M. on Sundays.

DISPLAY OUR FLAG PROUDLY

NEW APPOINTMENT

Mayor Kevin White has announced the appointment of Anne T. Muenster as manager of the Allston-Brighton Little City Hall. Ms. Muenster succeeds Susan Dillard who is now a student at New England School of Law.

Ms. Muenster, 25, is a North End resident and graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University where she majored in sociology. A city employee for three years, she worked in the Roslindale Little City Hall as a service coordinator and in the West Roxbury Little City Hall as a field representative. She is presently the director of the Boston Energy Office and utility and energy adviser to Mayor White.

"I am pleased to make this appointment. Anne Muenster is talented and hard working and will, I am certain, bring a high level of service to the Allston-Brighton community through her new position," Mayor White said.

LOWER POSTAL RATES

Banks, retail stores, insurance companies, and public utilities are among businesses taking advantage of the Postal Service's new reduced postage rate for presorted first-class mail.

The new regulation, which went into effect last July, provides a one cent per piece discount for presorted first-class metered and permit imprint mail.

The presorted first-class mail program is open to all customers.

A minimum of 500 pieces per mailing is needed to qualify under the plan. The lower rate applies only to groups of 10 or more first-class pieces which have been presorted to the same five-digit ZIP Code or to 50 or more presorted pieces going to the same first three-digit ZIP Code.

Remaining pieces, known as residual mail — in insufficient quantities for presorting to the five- or three-digit ZIP Code groups — also may be counted toward the minimum requirement of 500 pieces for each mailing.

An annual mailing fee of $30 must be paid by customers who mail under this system. Customers also are required to take the items being mailed to their local post offices.

Accordingly, in conformity with the ns of chapter 802, Acts of 1972, nded, particularly section 124
I have asked and have received onor's permission to enter these premises and to raze the buildings structures.

Bidders were requested to submit an te bid for the entire lot of build-structures, but to break down ls to show the charge against each address. This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award
to be made to the lowest qualified bidder,
and have received the following:

John J. Duane Wrecking, $55,300; Circlepower Demolition, $58,376; Napoli
Wrecking Co., Inc., $59,231; Mystic Building Wrecking, $66,025; Ups and Downs Wrecking, $81,240.

John J. Duane Wrecking Co., Inc., 600
Southern Artery, Quincy, Mass., has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Bids for the individual buildings or structures were not requested because it would be a practical, physical impossibility for several different contractors to conduct efficient contracting operations simultaneously in individual buildings or structures. Under such conditions, there would be much mutual interference and each contractor would be exposed to severe hazards not under his control, by the operations of adjacent contractors. I also believe that the aggregate cost of individual bids would be much higher than the cost of one bid for the total buildings or structures to be demolished, and that handling the buildings or structures as one unit results in one administrative cost to the city rather than what would result from handling the individual buildings or structures as separate bids and contracts.
Unit handling results, however, in this case, in a contract price of over $2,000, or over the statutory limitations upon awards that can be made without advertising, unless your Honor approves the transaction.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding, without advertising, as required in the City Charter, of a contract in the sum of $55,300, to the John J. Duane Wrecking Company, 600 Southern Artery, Quincy, Mass.

Very truly yours,
RICHARD L. GRANARA, JR.,
For Building Commissioner.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. These buildings are a menace to the neighborhood. The lo-

34 Mead Street, Ward 2; 115-117 East Cottage Street, Ward 7; 50 Gates Street,
Ward 7; 52 Gates Street, Ward 7; 51

Street and garage, Ward 12; 113 Magnolia Street, Ward 13; 7 Wales Street,

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 802, Acts of 1972, as amended, particularly section 124 thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these various premises and to raze the buildings or structures.

aggregate bid for the entire lot of buildtheir bids to show the charge against each separate address. This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award
to be made to the lowest qualified bidder,
and have received the following:

Napoli Wrecking Co., Inc., $47,931;
Ups and Downs Wrecking Corporation,
$59,130; Mystic Building Wrecking Co., Inc., $51,290.

Napoli Wrecking Co., Inc., 105 Norwell Street, Dorchester, Mass., has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Bids for the individual buildings or structures were not requested because it would be a practical, physical impossibility for several different contractors to conduct efficient contracting operations simultaneously in individual buildings or structures. Under such conditions, there would be much mutual interference and each contractor would be exposed to severe hazards not under his control, by the operations of adjacent contractors. I also believe that the aggregate cost of individual bids would be much higher than in the sum of $47,931, to the Napoli

Wrecking Company, 105 Norwell Street,
Dorchester, Mass.

Very truly yours,
RICHARD L. GRANARA, JR.,
For Building Commissioner.

APSAULE HISTORY OF BOSTON

Physically, the Freedom Trail — on New England's Heritage Trail — from the Common to the Old North Church. Historically, it runs from the Mayflower Compact and the Charter of 1628, past the spire of Paul Revere's lanterns hung at the Old North Church, through the great anti-slavery speeches of the abolitionists Garrison and Sumner at Park Street Church. During this span Boston has won her Freedom. In Boston, the Charter of the Massachusetts Bay Company was transformed from that of a business organization to that of a democracy. As the focal point of the American Revolution, Boston was foremost in protesting the tyranny of the British Crown, and finally became necessary to take arms. Everyone knows how on March 3, 1775, Warren sent out the call to action. Revere and others led the fighting part of the American Revolution began. Everyone knows how Warren died at Bunker Hill, how Henry Knox brought the cannon from Ticonderoga and how Washington had them put on Dorchester Heights (now South Boston) to drive the British away. And since those days Boston has always remained a monument to freedom.

But to Boston is a must for the American, for without Boston there would have been no free life. A metropolitan area with a population of three million it is the country's largest market and fish-shipping port and the fourth largest wholesale center. Her memories reach back to 1630, to Indians, pillories, sailing ships. But Boston's place is on the world of nuclear energy and from her laboratories come the ideas that help shape the future.

Boston is a city of great contrasts: old and new; Bulfinch and modern architecture; narrow cowpath alleys and sweeping superhighways; a city of scholars and sailors; of the smell of books and the tang of fresh air.

Boston's universities have made her a world center of education, medicine, research, electronics, art, and the theater. Visitors can hear the world's best music in the Boston Symphony and at the Pops Concerts; or can sit in on the birth of new jazz forms in the intimate little after-dark clubs.

Throughout the centuries Boston has given America many gifts: patriots of old and statesmen of today; clipper ships and ocean liners cruising the seven seas; pioneers to settle the wilderness; scientists to split the atom; and the financial backing which has built the nation's industries. Boston is a city of many nationalities, of sports champions, of unique stores and restaurants, of great transportation gateways leading to the lands beyond the horizon. Boston is a city of beautiful spring twilights, of quiet autumn haze, of soft winter snows, and cooling Atlantic breezes in summer. So enjoy the historic sites of "Old Boston." But don't overlook the "New Boston." Enjoy yourselves and come back again for another visit — or as a permanent citizen — to the many worlds of Boston.

TAX BILLS: FIRST HALF DUE

Collector-Treasurer James V. Young has issued a reminder to all Boston taxpayers that the first half of their real and personal property tax bills must be paid on or before Monday, November 1.

Failure to do so will result in an added payment of 8 per cent interest on the amount due, which by law is computed retroactively to October 1. Mr. Young stated that in no case is the City permitted to waive penalties and interest set by law.

Failure to make the first tax payment may also result in the loss of the right to appeal abatement decisions before the State Appellate Tax Board.

DEMOLITION STARTED ON WHITE CITY COMPLEX

Demolition of the abandoned White City apartment complex on Hyde Park Avenue in Jamaica Plain is under way, Mayor White announced October 26.

The building is expected to be completely razed by mid-November.

The complex, abandoned for more than two years, has been the scene of countless fires, vandalism, and an eyesore in the community.

"The history of the White City apartment complex is not a very pleasant one," said Mayor White. "For the past several years, through the tireless efforts of the Woodbourne Association and the city's Building Department, attempts have been made to convert the property into much needed housing for our elderly citizens.

"These attempts have been met with a great deal of frustration, and now the complex is no longer habitable. The city, most recently through the efforts of Tom Mulhern, the Mayor's neighborhood organizer, was awarded foreclosure rights on the property, and to ensure the safety of local residents, the building will come down," the Mayor said.

"An interim use will be made of the site, depending on neighborhood priorities, as an off-street parking lot, community garden, or tennis court, to ensure that the property be kept available for elderly housing in the future," he added.

AFTER 87 YEARS: A WOMAN PRESIDENT!

Margaret C. Carlson of Framingham, a realtor veteran of 19 years, was elected president of the Greater Boston Real Estate Board October 21; the first woman to hold that office in the Board's 87-year history.

As president of the Real Estate Board, she will be heading an organization of 2,500 members in 56 cities and towns—one of the largest local boards of realtors in the nation.

Mrs. Carlson, proprietor of Five Star Realty, Inc. in Natick, has held a number of leadership posts with the Boston Board and the Massachusetts Association of Realtors as well as being voted "Realtor of the Year" in 1975. She also has been awarded the designation of GRI—Graduate, Realtors Institute.

"The matter of a long-standing tradition being broken is not as important as recognition of Peg's outstanding leadership abilities and unstinting work in the realtor movement that led to her being elected head of our organization," said Donald C. Dolben, the Board's current President.

Mrs. Carlson, who assumes the post January 1, has chaired the Boston Board's Finance Committee for the past two years and is a member of the Board of Directors. She served for 2½ years as president of Council "N" of the Brokers Institute, which is composed of realtors in 11 communities in the greater Natick-Framingham area.

She has held several key positions with the Massachusetts Association of Realtors, including chairperson of the Multiple Listing Service and Education Committee. She has also been secretary and vice president of the Eastern Massachusetts Chapter of the Women's Council of Realtors.

Mrs. Carlson has been active in community programs, serving as secretary of the South Middlesex Area Kidney Foundation, a lecturing on real estate subjects Framingham State College. She co-chairing a benefit function the Evening Division of the National Women's Club.

She and her husband, Art, reside in Framingham. They have three grown children.

LV REVENUE SERVICE: TOP "T" PRIORITY

Replacement of the Presidents Conference Committee (PCC) cars by the new Light Rail Vehicles (LRVs) is the most important priority for the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) in 1977. A. R. Goodlatte, Chief Mechanical Officer, recently.

Mr. Goodlatte, who heads the Rail Equipment Department until during 1976 by combining the former Rail Equipment Maintenance Department and the Mainline Shops Department, testified the second in a series of public hearings being held by the Advisory on Budget Committee on the city's 1977 budget requests.

Mr. Goodlatte said the costs that will be involved in the transitional shift from PCCs to LRVs is most difficult to estimate because of uncertainties surrounding the costs. He cited as uncertainties delivery dates, reliability of the vehicles and its components, how many inspections and repair men will be required, and the amount of PCCs that can be taken out of service while keeping an adequate back-up fleet.

While the potential exists for cost savings during the transitional period, he said, the LRV budget will require a maintenance staff which will achieve the long range goal of maintenance costs equivalent to those of other existing rail vehicles by the end of 1977. If the LRVs reliability and maintenance performance falls short of expectations, he said, the problem will not be rectified through modification of the vehicles by the manufacturer under the terms of the warranty, rather than through increased maintenance manpower.

The Rail Equipment Department will be responsible for two new programs being initiated in 1977 to make the cars safe, reliable, and clean in order to attract new passengers. A comprehensive PCC overhaul program, designed to provide dependable, attractive streetcars to supplement the LRVs. The program is the modernization and rebuilding of 88 Red Line cars, generally known as the "Bluebirds," which operate between Ashmont and Harvard Stations.

TURN ON THE HEAT!

Landlords violating State heat requirements will face severe action in Boston Housing Court, Housing Inspection Commissioner John Vitagliano warned on October 22.

Under State sanitary codes, landlords must keep temperatures at 70 degrees between 7 A.M. and 11 P.M., and at 65 degrees between 11 P.M. and 7 A.M.

The heat requirements went into effect September 15.

"I want to remind Boston landlords that there is a State code which requires them to turn heat on and maintain it at a certain temperature, before there are problems," Commissioner Vitagliano said. "They should be checking heating systems to make sure they work properly now."

Vitagliano said the City's 70 Housing Inspectors will actively check on all complaints and, where necessary, use the City's Housing Court to enforce the heat law.

NEW HEALTH CENTER FOR EAST BOSTON

Groundbreaking ceremonies were held recently in East Boston for a $3 million community health center expected to help provide medical care in the face of a declining number of private doctors in the area.

David Rosenbloom, Boston commissioner of Health and Hospitals, said the construction of the planned three-story center represents the fulfillment of "one of our highest priorities."

The development of a replacement for the family doctor. That replacement is the community health center."

Nearly 25 years ago, there were 14 private physicians in East Boston. Now there are 12. According to the directors of the old health center, at 79 Paris Street, they will be incorporated into the planned center.

Besides offering the community a projected 60,000 patient visits annually, the new health center — to begin operation in 14 months — will provide East Boston and Logan Airport with 24-hour emergency and disaster medical service.

Massport Chairman James Fay said his agency has a $100,000 contract with the new health center to provide emergency care. He said the contract represents Massport's contribution to the center, which has received $2 million in Federal funds and will receive $500,000 a year in city funds.

The event, an annual educational offering by the state's major food-service organizations, is open to all interested in the industry, Stover said.

The 1977 seminar will be planned and guided by a committee headed by Professor Charles E. Eshbach of Amherst, a member of the Department of Hotel, Restaurant, and Travel Administration faculty at the University of Massachusetts, representing the Western Massachusetts Branch of the International Food Service Executives Association.

CRIME RESISTANCE PROGRAM

The Senior Citizen Security Program Commission on the Affairs of the Elderly of the City of Boston is pleased to join with the Federal Bureau of Investigation in introducing a new crime resistance program to a number of elderly of Boston, now through December 8.

This will be the first time that the FBI will address itself to the crime problems of the elderly at the community level. It is a program of self-help that covers a wide range of areas: Burglary; Street Crime; Fraud; Bunco; and Police Assistance.

The presentations will be made by Special Agent Otis Cox, Crime Resistance Coordinator for the FBI in Boston in conjunction with the staff of the Senior Citizen Security Program. The areas currently selected for these presentations are: Jamaica Plain, South End, Brighton, Dorchester, and Roxbury. The audiences will be small by design in order that Mr. Cox might relate more closely to the crime problems in a particular neighborhood.

The Commission on Affairs of the Elderly is anxious to expand its program on Senior Citizen Security and welcomes the participation of the FBI in helping older Bostonians to become more alert and to feel safer.

COMMUNITY SCHOOLS

SWIMMING POOLS MAINTENANCE

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This contract had been advertised publicly three times, and all bids were rejected on the first two advertisements. On the third public advertisement, A-W, Inc., bid $49,987.50, and B. F. Associates, Inc., bid $84,280. However, A-W, Inc., has filed a document with our office stating in substance that they made a substantial error in their bid and would not proceed with the work at the price.

We have negotiated with the second bidder, B. F. Associates, Inc., whose third bid was calculated at a rate of $32 per pool, per day, for a per pool, per day cost of $26.80. This is a substantial reduction from their bid price and a substantial reduction from the $30 per pool, per day cost of our contract, during the past fiscal year with the same company.

Therefore, your Honor's written authorization is requested to dispense with further public advertising and to award a contract to B. F. Associates, Inc., 166 Statler Office Building, Boston, Mass., in the amount of $69,144.

Sincerely,

LISA ZANKMAN,
Director.

COMPUTER DATA SERVICES

DEAR SIR:

An invitation for bids for providing computer data services for the Medical Records Department at Boston City Hospital, for the period commencing July 1, 1976, and ending on June 30, 1977, was advertised in the City Record, on May 1, 1976, and no bids were received in reply. However, Massachusetts Hospital Association, Inc., the current contractor, has agreed to continue to provide this service for another year at no increase in price over our current contract, which is $9,600.

Under this contract, Massachusetts Hospital Association, Inc. will provide data required by Boston City Hospital for licensure by the Massachusetts Department of Public Health and accreditation by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals. Approximately seventy-eight hospitals, a majority of the hospitals in Massachusetts, utilize Massachusetts Hospital Association, Inc. for these computer data services.

Inasmuch as Massachusetts Hospital Association, Inc., to our knowledge, is the only firm in Massachusetts capable of providing these specialized services, and inasmuch as this firm has provided the

Very truly yours,
DAVID L. ROSENBLUM,

PENAL INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT IBM SERVICES

YOUR HONOR:

Permission is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract for copying services for the Penal Institutions Department, to the International Business Machines Corporation, One Gateway Center, Newton, Mass.

The selection of the IBM Corporation by the Penal Institutions Department is motivated by several factors:

(a) The IBM equipment has the versatility required to copy unique criminal history forms, hooks, and documents; and

(b) The department received written estimates from four major copier concerns and found the IBM fees to be significantly less than the others.

Accordingly, this department believes there would be no public interest or benefit to be served by observing the competitive bid process in this instance. We request that a contract be awarded for the period July 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, for an amount not to exceed $2,400.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM W. NICKERSON,

YOUR HONOR:

I respectfully request your written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, in awarding to the Boston Foundation, Inc., a Massachusetts nonprofit corporation, a contract for the development and implementation of a comprehensive legal assistance program at the Suffolk County House of Correction at Deer Island.

Very truly yours,

POLICE DEPARTMENT

REPAIRS TO BUILDINGS

DEAR SIR:

On June 28, 1976, this department, by an advertisement appearing in the City Record, invited interested competent persons and firms customarily engaged in performing miscellaneous building repair work, located within a reasonable distance of Boston Police Department buildings, whether or not located within the City of Boston, to enter into a contract with the city for estimating periodically the cost of, and thereafter, upon the lowest responsible estimate, performing repairs to, Police Department buildings.

Because of insufficient response to formal public bids in the past and the repetitive need for minor repairs to Police Department facilities, the Police, Auditing, and Law Departments have developed a method to allow bids on work amounting to less than $2,000, with the lowest written offer in each case receiving the work. This method enables the city to obtain the most economical prices per unit of work and to complete necessary repairs in the most efficient manner.

The June 28, 1976, invitation resulted in the following firms, located within a reasonable distance of Police Department buildings, declaring their intent to enter into a contract with the city under the above conditions. I therefore, respectfully request your Honor's written authorization to dispense with further public advertising and to enter into a contract with the below named firms:

Malco, Inc., 121 Corey Street, West Roxbury, Mass. 02132; Suffolk Specialties Co., Inc., 108 South Street, Jamaica Plain, Mass. 02130; Thomas J. Foley, 83 Chestnut Street, Boston, Mass. 02108; William H. Chellman Co., Inc., 755 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass. 02116; John W. Graham 464 Albany Street, Boston, Mass. 02118.

Alliance Glass Corporation, 902 Dorchester Avenue, Boston, Mass. 02125; Francis L. Caulfield, 6 Ericsson Street, Dorchester, Mass. 02122; Clifford Construction Co., Inc., 320 Dorchester Street, Boston, Mass. 02127; J. Stevens Co., Inc., d/b/a Stevens Hardware, 1823 Centre Street, West Roxbury, Mass. 02132; George Robbins & Co., Inc., 80 Gardner Street, Allston, Mass. 02134.

I propose to enter into one contract to be signed by each of the firms. In no event shall the payments to be made by, nor the liability of the city under, this contract for the period September 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, exceed the total sum of $100,000.

Very truly yours,
ROBERT J. DI GRAZIA,
Police Commissioner.

ABILITIES EVALUATION SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with public advertising in the award of a contract to RHR Institute, Inc., 610 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, in an amount not to exceed $6,222, for a period of July 1, 1976, through September 30, 1976.

The purpose of this contract is to implement an assessment center for the positions of police captain and lieutenant, with the final product being the development of a variety of exercises that will more accurately evaluate the abilities of individuals seeking these positions. This represents the final step in the new promotional system currently being developed by the department in conjunction with the Massachusetts Division of Personnel Administration.

RHR Institute, Inc. was awarded contract for this purpose on March 1, 1976, in the amount of $21,222. Because of unavoidable delays in administration and grading the promotional examinations by the Division of Personnel Administration it has been necessary to change the scheduled completion date for the assessment center contract beyond the end of the fiscal year.

RHR Institute, Inc. has completed and billed $15,000 of the original $21,222 cost of the contract. Thus, the amount of this contract ($6,222), is the cost of the balance of work remaining on this contract which will be completed in fiscal year 1977.

Therefore, because this is a continuation of an incomplete contract awarded on March 10, 1976, public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully submitted,
ROBERT J. DI GRAZIA,
Police Commissioner.

MAYOR DEDICATES JOSIAH QUINCY SCHOOL

The new Josiah Quincy Community School in Chinatown, though it has been open for more than two months, became an official part of Boston on October 31.

Students, parents, friends, and neighbors joined Mayor White and family on the rooftop playground for a formal dedication of the handsome new complex, as part of a noon to 4 P.M. open house.

A refinished, 175-year-old plaque from the old Quincy School, and a new plaque for the new school were unveiled during the ceremony.

Firecrackers and a rendition of the Chinese lion dance, complete with gong and drum, helped celebrate the event. For the children, there were refreshments, roving entertainment, special buttons and balloons.

Throughout the afternoon, the children and other volunteers directed tours of the complex, which, in addition to the elementary school, houses the South Cove Community Health Center, the Chinatown Little City Hall, and the special rooms and offices of the Community Schools program.

On view was the pool, the gymnasium, the library, the classroom clusters, the playgrounds, the medical facilities, and the many murals, both inside and outside, created by artist Maria Tremini of Boston, with an assist from the school children.

Planning for the dedication and open house has been under way for months through a committee of representatives from the elementary school, the health center, the Little City Hall and the Community School Council.

The unique design of the complex, most notable for its imaginative use of a small site, was created by The Architects Collaborative (TAC) of Cambridge.

It was built by the Franchi Construction Company of Boston, under direction from the city's Public Facilities Department.

The school population is 800, with students coming from Charlestown, Beacon Hill, Chinatown, South End, and Roxbury.

FEDERAL GRANTS FOR UNEMPLOYED BOSTONIA

Mayor Kevin White has signed an order of the City Council releasing $7,542,365 in federal grants for the training and placement of unemployed Bostonians.

The program will aim to train and find jobs for 8,000 Boston residents within a year through grants from the city's Manpower Administration to eighteen nonprofit community agencies.

The Mayor, in signing the order, objected to the refusal of the City Council to release $195,000 intended for training and placement of minorities in the construction industry.

"I signed the order to make sure the manpower program as a whole will continue job training and placement aggressively and unabatedly," the Mayor said.

"I would have preferred to see the program for placing minorities in construction jobs as it was," he said.

"The Council refused flatly on this issue, and any further effort on my part would have jeopardized funding for eighteen other agencies accounting for more than 95 percent of the total grant.

"I am very definitely determined to maintain a construction job component for minorities in the manpower program, but it would be unrealistic to think it will continue through the same agency."

"With that in mind, I will submit as soon as possible an alternate proposal for funding of a program for training and placement of minorities in construction jobs."

The Mayor said the present grantee, the Third World Job Clearinghouse, Inc., will be funded through December 31 by an extension of its contract for last year.

MAYOR LAUDS RESIDENT-ELECT CARTER

statement of Mayor Kevin H. White,
November 3, 1976:

I give my congratulations and best wishes to Jimmy Carter for his great and dramatic victory over President Gerald Ford.

Jimmy Carter ran a persistent and tough campaign, rising in just 10 years from virtual obscurity to become the first Democratic President since 1964. He is to be praised for his stamina, tenacity, and forthrightness in a long and often glorious campaign.

He won on sheer effort. His victory is impressive. The American people have chosen well.

I'm glad for Boston and for every major city in the country that Jimmy Carter was elected. His victory is the best shot-in-the-arm for the nation's cities in eight hard years.

Jimmy Carter is a former governor. He understands the ties that inexorably bind federal and local governments. I know he will listen to the nation's mayors, that we will have a strong voice in the development of a new urban policy, responsive to our needs and priorities.

Though I did not support and did not want to see the Republican administration remain in the White House, I do want to congratulate Gerald Ford for the dignified manner in which he served the country and conducted his campaign. I join him in his call for unity throughout the nation and full support for the administration of Jimmy Carter and Walter Mondale.

of Suffolk University. The course will cover the economic growth of the Boston urban area and explore the relationship between the public and private sectors. Representatives from government planning agencies and private industry will discuss the issues in special forum. Professor Levitan has his doctorate from New York University and has worked in the real estate and construction industries and for the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) in New York and Boston before coming to Suffolk University.

"From the Psalm Book to the Symphony: Music in the Culture of Boston" will be presented on Thursday evenings by Dr. John Swan, lecturer in English at Tufts University. This course will be a general survey of musical writing, performing, and appreciation in Boston from the early Puritan psalm singers to the founding of the Boston Symphony at the close of the nineteenth century. In addition to recorded music, soloists and groups will perform representative pieces in recital. Dr. Swan, a Ph.D. from the Tufts University Graduate School, in addition to his scholarly interest in musical history, is an enthusiastic amateur musician.

The "Boston: an Urban Community" program under which these courses are offered is made possible by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH). For further information contact Paul M. Wright, director of the program, at the Boston Public Library in Copley Square, Tel. 536-5400.

categories of cartoon art: political, sports, strips, and panels, and will include the illustrations of more than one-half dozen Pulitzer prize cartoonists, among them, Oliphant, Teen, Szep, and Wright. Several of the pieces will be rotated to allow more of the collection to be shown.

One of the most valuable pieces from the Turbeville Collection and the oldest one to be displayed, is an 1889 Thomas Nast political cartoon entitled "Compliments in Season." Thomas Nast had been considered one of the most influential cartoon artists of his time because of the impact of his political illustrations, some of which greatly influenced the breakup of Tammany Hall.

Other rare and classic works to be exhibited will be Frederick Oppen's "And the Name was Maude," 1931, and "Happy Hooligan," 1924.

Two prized editorial cartoons of the 1930s expounding the anti-New Deal philosophy will be represented by the works of Hugh Hutton of the Philadelphia Enquirer and C. D. Batchelor of the New York World Telegram.

Gluyas Williams, well-known artist, now in his nineties, will be represented by one of his many humorous cartoons from the New Yorker magazine.

Sports fans will find selections from the works of Willard Mullin, who is considered one of the classic sports cartoonists and from the works of Phil Bissell, well-known sports cartoonist from the Herald American.

A brand new cartoon by Jim Dobbins of the Boston Herald American, published on November 3, depicting Jimmy Carter, the winner of the 1976 Presidential race, has just been added to the collection.

An original example from the comic strip "Prince Valiant" by Harold Foster, a cartoonist known for the high artistic quality of his work, has also been selected for the exhibit. Fans viewing comic strips for nostalgia's sake, will enjoy seeing the decade of the 30s represented by Rust Westover's "Tilly the Toiler," Percy Crosby's "Skippy," Edgar Martins's "Boots

LEARNING PROGRAM AT BPL

Continuing its very successful NEH Learning Library Program, the Boston Public Library announces two courses for the November, 1976-January, 1977 session.

CARTOON ART EXHIBIT AT BPL

"The Turbeville Collection of Cartoon Art" is the featured exhibit at the Boston Public Library, Copley Square, now through November 30, at the Library's Boston Room.

Dr. Gus Turbeville, president of Emerson College and owner of a unique collection of more than 1,200 pieces of American cartoon art, has loaned some fifty outstanding works to the library for the exhibit. These selections will represent four major and Her Buddies," and Martha Orr's "Apple Mary" (a forerunner to the present-day "Mary Worth"). Martha Orr, incidentally, was one of the few female cartoonists in this country.

Dr. Turbeville has actually collected 1,800 pieces of cartoon art. In the recent past he has donated 600 of those works to the "Museum of Cartoon Art" in Greenwich, Connecticut.

Discussing his unusual interest, he says, "I collect for nostalgia and for fun. Cartoon art itself, is certainly an acknowledged American pop art form. The best examples often combine humor with drama, as well as reflecting American morals and manners."

"The Turbeville Collection of Art" will continue on a revolving basis with new works periodically exhibited during November. Hours will be Mondays to Fridays, 9 A.M. to 9 P.M.; Saturdays, 9 A.M. to 6 P.M.; and Sundays, 2 P.M. to 6 P.M. The library will be closed on Thursday, November 26, a state holiday.

CHRISTMAS SEAL CAMPAIGN STARTS

The American Lung Association of Boston will kick off its sixty-ninth annual Christmas Seal Campaign "for Life and Breath," on Sunday, November 21, with a benefit art show and auction to be held aboard the S.S. "Peter Stuyvesant" at Anthony's Pier 4 Restaurant in Boston.

Viewing of the nearly 200 original works of art, representing such masters as Picasso, Chagall, Miro, Eli, Neiman, Calder, Amen, Toulouse-Lautrec, Schoenberg, and a host of other internationally acclaimed artists, will begin at 5 P.M. on the second deck of the permanently berthed excursion boat, followed by an auction at 6 P.M.

Lung Association trustee, Mrs. Sally Hull Jones, R.N., of Brookline, chairman of the art auction committee, said that all of the work is authenticated and includes signed and numbered lithographs, etchings, drypoints, serigraphs, woodcuts, collagraphs, and many original oils and watercolors. She said that each piece has been custom-framed and is ready to hang. Opening bids will range from fifteen dollars to several hundred dollars.

Mrs. Jones pointed out that the auctioneer for the evening will be noted actor and art collector, Harold Landers. Mr. Landers is best known to the public for his portrayal of Dr. Hoffman on the old Ben Casey television series.

Proceeds from the Christmas Seal benefit auction will help to support the Lung Association's year-round battle against crippling lung diseases such as asthma, emphysema, and chronic bronchitis. For more information call the American Lung Association of Boston at 426-8330.

The "Constitution"
Affectionately called "Old Ironsides"

The U.S.S. Constitution lies in dock at the United States Naval Shipyard, across the Charles River at Wapping and Chelsea Streets, Charlestown. She was launched in 1797 at Hartt's Shipyard, a short distance from her present resting place. In the next year she helped clear the coast and the West Indies of French privateers. Later engagements with the British in the War of 1812 brought her undying fame and her nickname Old Ironsides. The 44-gun frigate was constructed of well-seasoned live oak and red cedar timbers secured by bolts and copper sheathing made by Paul Revere. Now restored and seaworthy, the historic craft may be boarded daily, 9:30 to 4, free. Uniforms, cannon, and newspaper accounts of the War of 1812 are displayed.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT LEASING CERTAIN PREMISES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in leasing certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the Director for two city functions—one, the Workmen's Compensation Division of the Law Department, the other the Economic Development and Industrial Commission purposes. There is a further delegation of power from the Commission to the Director to execute such lease, or extension thereof, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor of Boston.

The demised premises consist of 4,500 square feet of space on the first floor of the building at 60 Congress Street, Boston.

The initial term of the lease will begin July 1, 1976, terminating June 30, 1977. The lessor gives the city options to extend the term of this lease for three consecutive twelve-month terms, beginning July 1, 1977.

The monthly rental for the term will be $3,275.

The lessor will provide and pay for all utilities, which would include, but not be limited to, heat, air conditioning, and electricity.

The lease contains two escalation clauses, one a standard tax escalation clause using 1975 as the base year. In addition, if the cost of electricity should exceed present estimates, i.e., be in excess of the amount of $2,700, for any period beginning July 1, 1976, the lessee will pay upon demand the additional charge over the base amount of $2,700.

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is not felt by the writer that public advertising would be useful in this instance.

Very truly yours,

VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

The rental for the term will be $325 monthly, exclusive of telephone, all utilities, heat, and air conditioning which will be supplied by the lessor.

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is not felt by the writer that public advertising would be useful in this instance.

Very truly yours,

Under the terms of the contract, Richard White will provide architectural and engineering services necessary to repair the roof at the Jamaica Pond Boat House in the Jamaica Plain District of the City of Boston, at a cost for such services of 9 percent (A.I.A. BRIDGE REPAIRS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On Monday, August 23, 1976, about 7:15 A.M., a seagoing tug with barge and cranes, struck the northside of the main span truss on the Long Island Bridge. This bridge, owned by the City of Boston Health and Hospitals Department, is the only means foot and vehicle traffic can travel between the mainland and Long Island Hospital.

Damage to the bridge from the collision of the crane includes dislocated and distorted structural steel supports and bracing and dislodging of 65 feet of 12-inch water main.

The loss of this only water service to Long Island creates extremely dangerous and hazardous conditions to persons and property and can only be alleviated by the necessary repairs to the bridge structure and replacement of the water service under emergency procedures.

To effect repairs, I have invited proposals from three contractors normally engaged in this type of work and received bids as follows:

Skane Steel Erection, Inc., $9,671; Dorel Steel Corporation, $10,900; and L. Antonelli Iron Works, Inc., $28,965.

I have received approval from Labor and Industries to proceed to contract without resorting to the requirements of sections 44A through 44L, chapter 149, G.L., because this is considered an extreme emergency. Therefore, your Honor's written approval is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising for bids and to award a contract to Skane Steel Erection, Inc., 32 Commercial Street, Salem, Mass., for an amount not to exceed $9,671.

Respectfully,
VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

EMERGENCY DEMOLITION

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As a result of numerous fires and several acts of wanton destruction, including the removal of internal structural supports by vandals, the Hynes Field House is structurally unsound. The roof especially, of wood frame construction, presents an immediate danger to persons and property, in the event of additional fires, or continued acts of vandalism. Razing the building by emergency procedure is considered the best solution under the circumstances.

Because of the exigency of the situation, I requested and received written approval from the Massachusetts Department of Labor and Industries to dispense with public advertising, providing we obtain prices from at least three contractors normally engaged in this type of work. Having invited reputable contractors to submit bids for this demolition work, I received contract proposals from three contractors as follows:

The Duane Corporation, $8,400; Napoli Wrecking Co., Inc., $11,731; and Ups and Downs Wrecking, $12,300.

Your Honor's written approval, therefore, is respectfully requested, in recognition of the fact that an emergency situation exists, and to authorize the dispensing with public advertising for bids and to award a contract, without advertising, to the Duane Corporation, 41 Hallet Street, Dorchester, Mass., for an amount not to exceed $8,400.

Respectfully,
VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

Johnson and Associates, Inc., landscape architects, a Massachusetts corporation, 133 Mt. Auburn Street, Cambridge, Mass.

Under the terms of the contract, Carol R. Johnson and Associates, Inc. will prepare Bureau of Outdoor Recreation funding submissions, including schematic designs and cost estimates, for up to seven parks projects, as may be designated from time to time by the Director, at a cost for such services (payable as set forth in, and further defined by, the terms and conditions of the now proposed contract) not to exceed $24,000.

In view of the professional and technical nature of the services to be performed, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,

VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

CONSULTING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Pursuant to a recent vote of the Public Facilities Commission, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising, and to award to McManis Associates, Incorporated, a New York corporation registered to do business in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, with offices at 1201 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., a contract to provide assistance to the City of Boston in developing standard operating procedures for Community Development Block Grant projects, and project planning and monitoring procedures for capital and federally funded projects, at a cost for such services not to exceed $25,000 (payable as set forth in, and further defined by, proposed contract).

In view of the professional and technical nature of the work to be performed (a senior staff member of McManis Associates, who will be assigned to this project was involved in drafting the original Community Development Act legislation), it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,

VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

LABORATORY TESTING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Public Works Department intends to purchase a large amount of salt (sodium chloride) for snow and ice control for the winter season of 1976-1977. The contract for the purchase of this salt provides for a range of prices for payment that is controlled by the percentage of moisture, sodium chloride content, and gradation. In order to properly determine these factors, samples are taken from the salt to be delivered for laboratory tests.

During the past thirteen winter seasons, the sampling and testing of our salt was performed by the Thompson & Lichtner Co., Inc., of Brookline. This firm has performed our seasonal plant inspection of asphalt and concrete for twenty-three years, and has given excellent service. Therefore, I would like to give the salt inspection work to this company for the coming winter season.

Accordingly, your permission is requested to dispense with public advertising and to award to the Thompson & Lichtner Co., Inc., 8 Alton Place, Brookline, Mass., a contract in the amount of $11,000, for this work. It has been agreed that the sampling will be set forth in the proposed contract, and will include Social Security, Unemployment Compensation, insurance, payroll costs, overhead, and profit. The laboratory tests will be made at a unit price per test.

It is understood and agreed that the total to be paid under this contract will not exceed $11,000.

Respectfully,

JOSEPH F. CASAZZA,
Commissioner of Public Works.

The Institute has drawn attention from around the country for its effective work in monitoring control and information services, providing legal services to parents and students, preparing and distribution of excellent documents dealing with various aspects of the desegregation process, and for educational counseling services.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this contract and the expertise of Freedom House, Inc., providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G.L., ch. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, state-approved project.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

EMERGENCY REPAIRS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I request your approval of my action in awarding a contract, without publicly advertising, for repairs to the brickwork at the Rice School.

A recent inspection of the school revealed certain severe deterioration taking place in the brickwork in various locations in the walls of the building.

It is my opinion that emergency repairs had to be done to the brickwork to preserve the health and safety of the children and other persons in and about the school.

Approval has been secured by the Department of Labor and Industries that this is an extreme emergency (see copy attached).

I did solicit three bids, without publicly advertising, and they were received as follows:

P. Veneto and Sons, $3,850; Clifford Construction Company, $4,100; J. Palumbo, $5,100.

I, therefore, am awarding a contract to P. Veneto and Sons, the lowest responsible bidder, in the amount of $3,850.

Respectfully submitted,
ANTHONY L. GALEOTA,
Chief Structural Engineer.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I request your approval of my action in awarding a contract, without publicly advertising, for rebuilding the front entrance at the Michael J. Perkins School.

On Thursday, August 12, vandals caused severe damage to the main front entrance of the above-named school by attaching tow wires to the railings causing the brick and stone balustrades to be destroyed and doing severe damage to the stone and brickwork at the main entrance.

Whereas time was of the essence to have this front entrance rebuilt in time for the opening of school, I did deem this an extreme emergency.

Approval has been secured by the Department of Labor and Industries that this is an extreme emergency (see attached copy).

I did solicit three bids, without publicly advertising, and they were received as follows:

P. Veneto, and Sons, $4,975; Webster Construction Company, $5,370; Folan Waterproofing and Construction Co., Inc., $5,330.

I, therefore, am awarding a contract to P. Veneto and Sons, the lowest responsible bidder in the amount of $4,975.

Respectfully submitted,
ANTHONY L. GALEOTA,
Chief Structural Engineer.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Richard H. Murch, 20 Weeks Avenue, Roslindale, Mass., for Title I, E.S.E.A.

This contract to extend from September 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $17,290.

The contractor will act as a liaison between the Community Relations Department and the Parent Advisory Council. He will be a liaison between the Title I Department, schools, and parents. He will maintain a daily log of activities to be submitted to the assistant director in charge. The advisor will also submit a monthly report to the office of the superintendent of schools detailing his monthly activities. The community relations advisor will provide orientation and training to the local, district, and city-wide PAC in parliamentary procedures and he also will be available to provide guidance to all parent groups in the interpretation of their roles as members of a Parent Advisory Council. The advisor will provide assistance in the interpretation of all federal and state guidelines.

It is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids because of the unique nature of the services to be performed (as enumerated above).

This agreement is to be executed, without appropriation, under the provisions of G.L., c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from H.E.W., Title I, E.S.E.A.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Your authorization is requested for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Rayburn Musical Instrument Company, for furnishing musical instruments to Boston Technical High School, Music Department, at a cost not to exceed $3,430.

Because this is a unique endeavor, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

Very truly yours,
LEO J. BURKE,
Business Manager.

Data Processing Center IBM BOOKLET PREPARATION

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request that the IBM Corporation, 520 Boylston Street, Boston, MA 02115, be awarded a contract, without public bidding, and in the amount of $10,008. The services provided are:

To design and prepare artwork and plates and to print 50,000 test answer booklets which will be used in Grades 1 through during spring reading test program. Prep transportation is included in the contract.

The booklets contain a new design concept, which will require the installation of a new optical scanner (IBM model). The new booklet will also require approvals from the test publisher (the Psychological Corporation). I consider it important that I develop the new booklet and engage in publisher approval process, so that I interest in the new scanner will assure equal interest in a successful first-year experience. Thereafter, bidding from all competent vendors would be resumed. This I believe that the best interests of the School Department would be served by awarding the contract to IBM.

Sincerely yours,
JAMES W. DAILEY,
Director

STATE-BOSTON RETIREMENT SYSTEM LEGAL SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Permission is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising, and award contract to Hutchins and Wheeler, attorneys at law, One Boston Place, Boston, represent the Board in an equity suit brought by various employees of the city against Retirement Board in connection with proposals that the Board purchase bonds of City of Boston. The amount of the contract will not exceed $13,000, which will be charged to the Expense Fund of the Retirement System. The services will be carried out during the calendar year 1976.

In view of the fact that officials of city, as well as the Retirement Board, were parties to this suit, it was agreed with Corporation Counsel that it would be order for the Board to engage outside counsel.

In view of the professional nature of the services, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
THOMAS J. MCGRIMLEY,
Chairman

TREASURY DEPARTMENT

Collecting Division
CONSULTANT SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with public advertising in the award of a contract to Thomas Ragonetti, 32 Pleasant Street, Cambridge, Mass. 02138, for continuation of services as a consultant in (1) overseeing the conduct of the Trust Fund Administration Project; and (2) performing research on matters related to city's fiscal functioning.

In the former area Mr. Ragonetti has been and will continue to be responsible for overall management of the Trust Fund Administration Project and the coordination of all activities in this area.

In the latter area Mr. Ragonetti will undertake such research as the Treasury may from time to time require. Topics of the research will include, but will not be limited to legal matters pertaining to municipal finance, revenue raising by the city, collection of revenue by the city, and debt financing by the city.

Charges for the above services will be $100 an hour, and the term of the contract will be from July 1, 1976, to June 30, 1977. The total liability of the city will not exceed $7,500. Itemized bills will be submitted periodically.

Mr. Ragonetti has considerable experience in public finance consulting and has, in the last fiscal year, been under contract with the city for the services described above. In view of Mr. Ragonetti's qualifications and familiarity with the services to be performed, I do not believe that public advertising is necessary.

Sincerely,
JAMES V. YOUNG,
Collector-Treasurer.

COMPUTER SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Permission is respectfully requested to dispense with the usual form of advertising and to award a contract to Drake International Company, Inc., of 636 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. The amount of this contract will not exceed $7,500, for the period from August 15, 1976, through September 10, 1976.

The work to be performed under the proposed contract will involve the design and implementation of the data entry procedures for the Tax Title Management Information System (TAXI). The data entry procedures are needed to convert from manual files to computer files, some 8,500 individual parcel records. Drake will design the procedures and test it with approximately 10 percent of the files. If the test is successful, I would expect Drake to complete the project on a subsequent contract.

The implementation of the computerized TAXI system will result in the acceleration of the tax-taking process, and will free up personnel to work on active collection efforts.

I have discussed this issue with numerous experts and potential vendors in the field of data processing and systems analysis, and have concluded, both in terms of cost and feasibility, that the public interest would be served by the award of this contract.

Respectfully,
JAMES V. YOUNG,
Collector-Treasurer.

PRINTING OFFICIAL STATEMENT

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Bowne of Boston, Inc., 411 D Street, Boston 02201, for the printing of the city's official statement for the negotiated sale of $85,000,000 in bonds and $20,000,000 in bond anticipation notes.

Unique and uncertain conditions in the market for bonds of the Commonwealth and the city during the past year have made it nearly impossible to decide in advance the best time to market bonds, and the growing stringency of municipal disclosure requirements has made it difficult to anticipate the form which an official statement will take, especially where, as here, an uncommon negotiated sale, rather than the typical public sale, is utilized.

Financial printing is a highly specialized field and there are a very limited number of firms which can perform this kind of service. In printing these official statements, the firm chosen had to have the capacity to make changes and produce proofs of the draft official statement twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week, thus permitting the continuous revision of the official statement, a process which was necessary to meet the scheduled issuance of the bonds. Therefore, in printing the official statements for these two debt issues there were imperatives of time and quality of service which were unique. Bowne was selected for this work based upon the recommendation of leaders in the financial community, underwriters, and counsel, that it had the greatest capacity to perform this work at a cost comparable to other alternatives. The total cost to the city for these services will not exceed $42,000. Heretofore no elaborate prospectus or disclosure statement was required and, therefore, printing costs in connection with such an offering did not have to be considered.

We have compared the price charged by Bowne to amounts paid by the University of Massachusetts and the Southeastern Massachusetts Technological Institute on their recent issues of securities and found this price to be comparable.

In view of the conditions described above, I respectfully request your approval of dispensation of public advertising which was neither feasible nor desirable.

Sincerely,
JAMES V. YOUNG,
Collector-Treasurer.

SUFFOLK COUNTY

Court House Commission

RENTAL OF EQUIPMENT

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

The Court House Commission has leased air conditioners and water coolers from the Boston Filter Company, 43 Harvard Square, Charlestown, Mass., upon the requests of the courts and various offices, to overcome the uncomfortable conditions in both the New and Old Court House buildings. These air conditioners and water coolers have been leased on a monthly rental basis, at an approximate cost of $1,375. The rental of this equipment is for the fiscal year starting July 1, 1976, to June 30, 1977. The amount of this service shall not exceed $16,500.

The Boston Filter Company furnishes and installs proper units and water coolers for various sections of the buildings where needed. These units remain the property of the contractor and are serviced without any additional charge. The Commission has found that this is the most economical way to do this.

In view of the foregoing, the Court House Commission requests your Honor's permission to continue this rental arrangement with the Boston Filter Company. It is the opinion of the Commission that nothing would be gained by the city in advertising for bids for this service.

Respectfully yours,
COURT HOUSE COMMISSION,
ALBERT SHERMAN,
Chairman.

TOWEL SERVICE

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

In anticipation of adoption of the 1976-77 budget, and because of the satisfactory service rendered by the Federal National Linen Service Company of Boston, in supplying towel service to the Suffolk County Court House, the Court House Commission believes it would be for the best interest of the City of Boston and the County of Suffolk to continue this service with the Federal National Linen Service, and respectfully requests your authority to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to Federal National Linen Service, on the basis of supplying 1,300 towels weekly, for the period commencing July 1, 1976, and ending June 30, 1977.

The total amount contemplated for expenditure under the proposed contract is $5,408, based on the rate of 1,300 towels per week at a price of $.08 per towel. This amount represents no increase over the previous year's contract.

Federal National Linen Service owns the towels, bears the losses and replacements, guarantees the suitability of the towels furnished, and undertakes to save the county from any claims arising through the performance of the service.

In the past years when the Commission publicly advertised for bids for this service, Federal National Linen Service was the only vendor to submit a bid.

In view of the foregoing, the Court House Commission is of the opinion that nothing would be gained by the City of Boston or the County of Suffolk by publicly advertising for bids for this service.

Respectfully yours,
COURT HOUSE COMMISSION,
By ALBERT SHERMAN,
Chairman.

Jail

SUPPORTIVE COUNSELING, ETC.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I hereby request your permission to dispense with written proposals and to award a contract in an amount not to exceed $10,000, to Massachusetts Halfway Houses, Inc., a nonprofit corporation, located at 307 Huntington Avenue, Boston, Mass.

Under the terms of the contract, Massachusetts Halfway House, Inc. will aid the reintegration of defendants released by the court into the custody of the Intake Service Center component of the Suffolk County Jail, by helping them find shelter, clothing, and food through financial assistance; referring them to necessary employment and social service agencies; and providing them with supportive counseling in the areas of short-term goal-setting and problem-solving.

The terms of the contract will be ten months, beginning September 1, 1976, and terminating June 30, 1976.

In view of the nature of the professional services to be rendered, and because of the satisfactory services provided by this agency during the past year, it is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose, and the award of this contract will be in the best interest of the City of Boston.

Very truly yours,
THOMAS S. EISENSTADT,
Sheriff.

PSYCHIATRIC SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with inviting proposals in the C Record, and to award a contract to Dr. S. Joseph, M.D., of 58 Larchmont Road, Newton, Mass. 02168, for psychiatric service at the Suffolk County Jail, for the period July 1, 1976, to June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $15,000.

Dr. Joseph has been the psychiatrist at the jail since October, 1975, and is thoroughly familiar with the rules and practice of the jail.

Psychiatric services are part of regular jail services, and enhance the philosophy contained in the federal court order Judge Garrity, concerning humaneness treatment.

In view of the nature of the services engaged, it is my view that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
HAROLD V. LANGLOIS,
Master Jailor

Municipal Court, Dorchester District

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

The court house has leased air-conditioning units from the Boston Filter Company, 43 Harvard Square, Charlestown, Mass., upon the requests of the various offices, to overcome the uncomfortable conditions in the court house and the trailers. These conditioners have been leased on a monthly rental basis, at an approximate monthly cost of $300. The rental of this equipment is for the fiscal year starting July 1, 1976, to June 30, 1976. The amount of this service shall not exceed $3,600 for the year.

The Boston Filter Company furnishes and installs proper units for various sections of the building where needed. These units remain the property of the contractor and are serviced without any additional charge. The court has found that this is the most economical way to do this.

In view of the foregoing, the court requests your Honor's permission to continue this rental arrangement with the Boston Filter Company. It is the opinion of the court that nothing would be gained by the city in advertising for bids for this service.

Very truly yours,
PAUL H. KING,
First Justice

Municipal Court, West Roxbury District XEROX COPIER

DEAR SIR:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with public bidding and award a contract to the Xerox Corporation, in an amount of $3,300. Due to the nature of the services to be provided to this court it is my opinion that public bidding would serve no useful purpose. I feel that the cost is fair and reasonable for a plain black and white copier to serve our needs.

Very truly yours,
RICHARD F. FELL,
First Assistant Clerk

CONTRACTS AMENDED

The Mayor has approved the amendment of contracts, based on the following information:

AUDITING DEPARTMENT

PAYROLL SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Permission is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising, and to amend contract number 5026 with Price Interhouse & Company, 225 Franklin Street, Boston, Mass. 02210, to provide assistance in the implementation of the plan for encumbering school payrolls, developed in cooperation with the Data Processing Division under this contract. The cost of this amendment will not exceed $4,900, and the period of the contract will be from July 28, 1976, to June 30, 1977.

This project is considered necessary because of the fact that payrolls account for a major share of School Department expenditures, and it is extremely difficult to control such expenditures in relation to budgets in the absence of encumbrance procedures.

Respectfully yours,
W. W. MERRILL,
City Auditor.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT

VARIOUS ENGINEERING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On March 21, 1973, the City of Boston, acting through its Commissioner of Parks and Recreation, and Storch Associates, entered into an agreement for landscape architect's and engineering services for the preparation of plans and specifications and supervision of construction of improvements to fourteen park and recreation facilities, funded in part by a grant from the U.S. Housing and Urban Development under its "Open Space Program" funded by the U.S. Department of Interior Bureau of Outdoor Recreation.

The letter of award for the above contract, dated February 26, 1973, was approved by your Honor on March 14, 1973. The above contract was amended on August 26, 1974, to adjust the designer's basic fee as the scope of the project was increased from an estimated construction cost of $991,000, to an estimated construction cost of $1,126,000. The maximum liability of the city under the terms of the contract as amended is $136,642.70, based on a basic fee amounting to $6,142.70, and supplementary services amounting to $40,500.

Construction contracts have been awarded for all projects and all construction projects have been completed or substantially completed, except for the Fidelis Way Playground which was delayed pending approval of the federal agency. Construction of Fidelis Way commenced six weeks ago.

Because of our small in-house engineering staff, a full time clerk of the works will be employed through the designer to supervise the construction of the Fidelis Way Playground. It is estimated that the services of a clerk of the works will be approximately $12,000, as the construction of the improvements to Fidelis Way (construction contract cost, $308,000) will not be completed until late summer, 1977.

As only $369 remains unexpended in the supplementary service article of the design contract it will be necessary to amend the contract to provide the additional funds.

Therefore, I respectfully request your Honor's authorization to dispense with inviting proposals in the City Record, in amending the agreement between the City of Boston and Storch Associates, to increase the supplementary services from $40,500, to $52,131, thereby changing the maximum liability of the city from $136,642.70, to $148,273.70.

Very truly yours,
PETER G. MEADE,
Commissioner.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On July 19, 1974, the City of Boston, acting through its Commissioner of Parks and Recreation, and Storch Associates, entered into an agreement for landscape architect's and engineering services for the preparation of plans and specifications and supervision of construction of improvements to the following park and recreation facilities:

1. Commonwealth Avenue Mall; 2. Columbus Park, South Boston; 3. East Boston Recreation Center; 4. Ryan Playground, Charlestown; 5. Mission Hill Playground, Roxbury; 6. Connolly Playground, Roxbury; and 7. Crawford Playground, Roxbury.

The letter of award for the above contract, dated May 30, 1974, was approved by your Honor on July 16, 1974. The maximum liability of the city under the terms of the contract is $73,920.80, based on a basic fee amounting to $50,920.80, and supplementary services amounting to $23,000.

After construction contracts had been awarded and construction started at three of the above sites, namely Columbus Park, East Boston Stadium, and Mission Hill Playground, we found unknown underground obstructions, existing underground water service and drain piping which were not serviceable, and miscellaneous additional work which required field research, revisions to the contract drawings and specifications, and negotiations with the contractor for the extra work not included in the original advertised contract.

The Commonwealth Avenue Project has been completely designed, but is not under construction due to lack of construction funds. It is our intention to fund this project under the Public Works Bill. The Back Bay Community has requested that we redesign the sprinkler system so as to reduce the excavation in and around the large, old, elm trees on the Mall. This will require a redesign of the sprinkler system for which the designer will be compensated under Article 13, Supplementary Services.

The investigative work, changes to the contract drawings and specifications, and contractors change orders were or will be done by the designer under Article 13, Supplementary Services of its design contract. As only $50 remains unexpended under this article of the contract, I propose to amend the designer contract to increase the supplementary services $11,500, to cover the cost of the additional services rendered by the designer.

Therefore, I respectfully request your Honor's authorization to dispense with inviting proposals in the City Record, in amending the agreement between the City of Boston and Storch Associates, to increase the supplementary services from $23,000, to $34,500, thereby changing the maximum liability of the city from $73,920.80, to $85,420.80.

Very truly yours,
PETER G. MEADE,
Commissioner.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On July 29, 1974, the City of Boston, acting through its Commissioner of Parks and Recreation, and Storch Associates, entered into an agreement for engineering services for the preparation of plans and specifications and supervision of construction of decorative, iron fencing along Park Street and Beacon Street at the Boston Common.

The letter of award for the above contract, dated May 31, 1974, was approved by your Honor on July 3, 1974. The maximum liability of the city under the terms of the contract is $13,987.60, based on a basic fee amounting to $9,987.60 and supplementary services amounting to $4,000.

Because of underground conditions and also the settlement of granite edgestone along Beacon Street, it was necessary to have the designer modify the fence foundation design to meet field conditions and to establish a new line and grade where existing edgestone was to be reset.

The cost of the extra work performed by the designer is $789.02, and as all monies provided under Article 13, Supplementary Services of the contract have been expended, I propose to amend the designer's contract to increase the supplementary services $789.02.

Therefore, I respectfully request your Honor's authorization to dispense with inviting proposals in the City Record, in amending the agreement between the City of Boston and Storch Associates to increase the supplementary services from $4,000, to $4,789.02, thereby changing the maximum liability of the city from $13,987.60, to $14,776.62.

Very truly yours,
PETER G. MEADE,
Commissioner.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

services for the preparation of plans and specifications, and supervision of improvements to the Boston Common. The letter of award, dated August 26, 1974, was approved by your Honor on September 11, 1974.

The contract was amended on September 17, 1975, and again on April 28, 1976. The first and second amendments increased the supplementary services $31,000, to cover the cost of a full-time clerk of the works to provide constant supervision during construction.

After the working drawings and specifications were completed and approved the designer was requested to make changes in the design of the Charles Street Plaza, MacArthur Mall, and the Mayor's Walk. The scope of the project was also increased at this point to include a $20,000 tree-planting program which required revisions and additions to the completed contract documents. The cost of the additional services rendered by the designer is $4,725.93.

Therefore, I respectfully request your Honor's authorization to dispense with inviting proposals in the City Record, in amending the agreement between the City of Boston and Schoenfeld Associates to increase the supplementary services from $71,000, to $75,725.93, thereby changing the maximum liability of the city from $124,171.30, to $128,897.23.

Very truly yours,
PETER G. MEADE,
Commissioner.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On September 20, 1971, the City of Boston, acting through its Commissioner of Parks and Recreation, and Schoenfeld Associates, Inc., entered into an agreement for landscape architects and engineering services for the preparation of plans and specifications and supervision of improvements to the Public Garden, at an estimated cost of construction of $603,000. The letter of award for the above contract, dated August 26, 1971, was approved by your Honor on September 11, 1974.

On May 7, 1975, the contract was amended to increase the scope of the contract to an estimated cost construction of $903,000 and to increase the supplementary services $14,000 for full-time clerk of works. A second amendment dated September 17, 1975, increased the supplementary services an additional $15,000 for employment of a full-time clerk of the works.

After final working drawings and specifications were approved design changes were made to the Southwest Lagoon sitting area, the skater's area, and to the fountain bowls. Walkways in the final drawings were deleted and the designer was requested to prepare a feasibility study of placing a dome greenhouse in the Garden. Because of special conditions in the Public Garden relative to the layout of pedestrian lighting the designer was authorized to construct mockups of proposed lighting fixtures and upon selection of the final fixture to conduct a series of nighttime tests to locate the position of new pedestrian lighting in the field in order to provide adequate lighting and avoid damage to existing trees.

The changes to approved contract documents, feasibility report, and field test of pedestrian lighting pattern are to be paid for under Article 13, supplementary services of the designer's contract. The total cost of this work is $12,039.70.

Therefore, I respectfully request your Honor's authorization to dispense with inviting proposals in the City Record, in amending the agreement between the City of Boston and Schoenfeld Associates, Inc., to increase the supplementary services from $51,500, to $63,539.70, thereby changing the maximum liability of the city from $107,510.15, to $119,549.85.

Very truly yours,
PETER G. MEADE,
Commissioner.

ARCHITECTS SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on August 25, 1976, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in entering into an agreement with Michael Kallmann, Noel Michael McKinnell, and Henry Wood, partners, d/b/a Kallmann and McKinnell, architects, of 127 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass., amending a contract between the City of Boston and Kallmann and McKinnell, dated May 3, 1973, and approved by the Mayor of Boston, June 8, 1973, to prepare working drawings, detailed specifications, and construction cost estimates for, and supervise the construction of, a branch library in the Roxbury Civic Center of the Washington Park Urban Renewal Project of the City of Boston, so as to increase the amount authorized for expenditure under the contract by $23,743, from $105,615, to $129,358.

The Phase II contract fee for Kallmann and McKinnell was based on an estimated construction cost of $1,358,121. Because the initial bids received were considerably in excess of that amount, this department requested the architects to completely revise and redraw the project so that it could be rebid. However, the revision and redrawing so significantly altered the character and utilization of the facility, that (after consultation with the Library Department) a decision was made to re-advertise the original project in the hope of receiving lower bids. Upon re-advertisement, there was a significant decrease in the bid amounts, and the construction contract was awarded for $1,699,538. In order to compensate the architect for the extra work performed in redrawing the project, this amendment covers (a) the $20,743 difference in cost between the fee computed on the original construction cost estimate and the fee computed on the amount of the low bid received; as well as (b) an increase of $3,000 to cover the value of additional furnishing design and specifications services performed by the architect.

Due to the provisions of law to the effect that executed and existing contracts may only be altered by a writing signed by all the parties thereto, including the Mayor and the contract surety, it would appear that public advertising in this case would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Respectfully,
VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

Mayor Addresses Real Estate Board

Mayor White's remarks given before the Greater Boston Real Estate Board.
November 6, 1976.

I. Introduction

A year ago last summer I had the opportunity to speak to this organization on the subject of 100 percent valuation.

I appreciate the opportunity to return — because although the battleground has shifted — the war is the same.

It is basically the struggle to create conditions that allow Boston to survive — and we hope grow — as both a place of work and a place to live.

The greatest obstacle in that struggle is a state tax system that, to paraphrase the President-elect, is a "disgrace to the human race."

I won't take much of your time. I come here today with a single message: "The property tax is bad."

The tax hike in Boston this year is the final, though I hope not the final, proof of that fact.

Development

Mark Twain once said that land is the best investment, because they can't make any more of it. That's an amusing insight on his part — but it's also Boston's crisis in a nutshell.

While Boston's economy has been booming the last ten years, sending personal income up 60 percent, and creating tens of thousands of new jobs — the value of our property (on constant terms) has hardly gone up at all.

What that means is simply this: the only way to increase city revenues, to meet the soaring cost of services, and to cope with skyrocketing inflation is to raise the tax rate. Even though we've cut costs, held expenditures, and dismantled programs, inevitably we've had to raise it (though we've held it below the rate of inflation, even with this year's increase).

The fact is that we are saddled with an archaic, outworn, and obsolete tax system. It is killing us — and it's killing you.

We are the only large city in America forced to rely solely on the property tax. (That is a uniqueness that's embarrassing.)

While cities like New York, San Francisco, and Los Angeles get 30 percent of their revenue from property, we get 70 percent.

Sixty percent of our property is tax-exempt, making the remaining 10 percent shoulder the whole burden, as well as paying for the free ride of the tax-exempts.

As a result, Bostonians pay the highest per capita tax levy in the nation.

This city reaps the whirlwind of the property tax — in rising vacancy rates, abandoned housing, and a depressed economy.

No one would argue that our tax system is equitable or fair. High property taxes make home ownership a privilege — and renting an apartment a luxury.

The present system is at best an anachronism, and at worst, a travesty.

Taxes should serve communities, not penalize them. Taxes should balance inequities, not cause them.

Proportionately, a family in this city earning $9,000 pays three times more of its income in taxes than a family earning $45,000. Anyone who knows Boston knows most of our families are in the first category.

Just to make matters worse, the state, which has mandated this tax disaster, is solving its own fiscal problems at the expense of the cities and towns.

Three years ago, the state paid 37 percent of its revenues in local aid. While state revenues have grown $700 million since then, they've cut local aid to 27 percent.

Boston provides 22 percent of all state revenues — and what we get back is a pittance — not even two bits on the dollar. If we could keep what we give the state, we wouldn't even need a property tax.

Real Estate Board . . .

III. What it means to you:

But we're stuck with the property tax, and it hurts us badly.

On humanitarian grounds, it's indefensible, but in business terms, it's even worse. I'm sure this is no news to you.

One way to look at a tax system is as a structure of rewards and punishments.

A tax system shapes patterns of consumption — it can encourage investment — or shut it off.

A tax system can allow families to live and business to flourish — or kill them both.

You people own property in this city. The effective tax rate on property in Boston is almost 10 percent. That means you are paying 10 percent of a property's market value in taxes every year. In ten years you pay the entire price of that property in taxes.

Economists say that an effective rate above 5 percent is catastrophic — and ours is almost double.

That tax rate sends the value of property in this city down. That is taking dollars out of your pocket and bread off your table.

In short, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts does a great job in depressing property values and dampening investment. In effect, our tax system tells everyone: don't invest in property, because we are going to tax it to death.

IV. Conclusion

Unlike floods and famines, our tax system is not a natural disaster. The Legislature created it — and they can change it at will.

The job can't be put off another day. By every conceivable standard, whether it be justice or equity, common sense, or sound fiscal practice, our tax system must be changed — changed to allow cities like Boston to live and grow.

The first task is to find another revenue source for Boston — and we can't wait a year or five years for it to happen.

I want you to join me in not requesting, but demanding, a special session of the Legislature — so that stopping this insanity can be made Number One on the agenda of this Commonwealth.

SOLAR SYSTEM: ARE YOU INTERESTED?

Although "East of the Sun and West of the Moon" may be enough for fairy-tale readers, adults today want to learn more details about the earth's nearest neighbors.

The sun, moon, planets, and other objects in the solar system will be discussed in the next astronomy course at the Planetarium of Boston's Museum of Science. Starting Tuesday, November 23, "The Solar System" will meet for eight successive Tuesday evenings, from 7:30 to 9.

For those sixteen and older, the course will explore the most recent scientific theories about the origin and development of the solar system and present the latest available information about conditions on the planets and satellites of the solar system.

Fee for the course is $30, with a $5 reduction for family and contributing members.

NEW TRAFFIC EXPERIMENT

On Monday, November 15, the City of Boston and the Metropolitan District Commission began rerouting traffic in an experiment at the Charles Street-Cambridge Street rotary near the Massachusetts General Hospital in downtown Boston.

Due to this new traffic pattern MBTA bus route No. 700 (Burlington to Boston) is forced to change its end point from Park Square Haymarket Station.

Passengers wishing to continue their former destination at Park Square may transfer at Haymarket Station to the Green Line and get off at Boylston or Arlington Stations. Passengers also can transfer at Haymarket Station to the Orange Line if they wish to go to State Street, Washington or Essex Stations, or other stations along the Orange Line.

The change in route is necessary because the buses will no longer be able to turn from Charles Street onto the Longfellow Bridge.

The bus stop for Route 700 Haymarket Station will be at the corner of New Sudbury and Congress Streets, a block away from the John F. Kennedy federal office building. If the new MDC/City of Boston's traffic pattern proves successful, it will continue to operate on a permanent basis beyond the sixty-day trial period.

The schedule for the buses Haymarket will maintain the same times as the schedule from Park Square.

Kenneth D. Campbell, Director of Public Information for the MBTA, said: "This change in the MDC/City of Boston's traffic pattern obviously is going to inconvenience some bus riders by requiring them to transfer to the subway system.

"However, the new stop at the Government Center/Haymarket area is also a central location which we hope will prove attractive to some new riders on the Route 700 bus."

The Route 700 bus stops in Burlington, Woburn, Winchester, Arlington, and Kendall Square in Cambridge before reaching its terminus

THANKSGIVING DAY

In the first year of his office, resident George Washington issued proclamation recommending that November 26, 1789, be kept as a day of "national thanksgiving" for the establishment of a form of government that made for safety and happiness. For years the festival was almost exclusively a New England institution, celebrated with religious services in the churches, the sermon often a political address, and by the gathering at the old home of the scattered members of the family. The day gradually became a custom in the western and some of the southern states, each appointing its own day. In 1863 President Lincoln issued a proclamation in which he "appointed and set aside" the last Thursday in November as a day of national thanksgiving "for the defense against unfriendly designs without and signal victories over the enemy who is of our own household." Until 1939 each president followed Lincoln's example in proclaiming the last Thursday in November a national day of thanksgiving. In that year Franklin D. Roosevelt, wishing to lengthen the interval between Thanksgiving and Christmas, moved the next to the last Thursday as the date of celebration. It is in December, 1941, Congress passed a resolution making the fourth Thursday a legal holiday. Governors in the various states usually issue proclamations to this effect. The day is also celebrated all the territories and possessions.

THINKING OF RETIRING?

Suffolk University's Center for Public Management will sponsor a conference, "Retirement: Transition or Oblivion?" on Thursday, December 2, 1976, at the Holiday Inn in Newton, Massachusetts.

This conference will focus on the problems posed by retirement and will bring some effective responses to these problems for individuals and managers alike.

Participants will learn from experts in the field of pre-retirement preparation how to make retirement a successful transition to new satisfactions instead of a personal dead end for retirees and for those who must counsel them.

Those making presentations are Richard R. Egan and Richard B. Griffin, of Duke and Egan Associates, a firm that deals with pre-retirement planning; Jack Leff, the first Secretary of the Department of Elder Affairs of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; Donald Reilly, the Director of Employee Development of Personnel Administration for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; and Dr. Frederick J. Stoley, Superintendent of the Waltham Public Schools who has lectured extensively on retirement.

The Center for Public Management was founded in 1973 with a grant from the New England Regional Commission and with support from Suffolk University. The center utilizes the resources of the university to serve the needs of the community by providing technical assistance to the family of governments as well as to interested and concerned community groups. Dr. Donald Levitan is the director of the center. He is the former director of intergovernmental relations for the City of Newton and previously worked for HUD in a planning and management capacity.

The conference cost is $15 and includes conference materials and luncheon. For more information about this conference or the center, please contact Ms. Jayne Sinnott at the center at (617) 723-3700, Ext. 374.

ANNUAL THANKSGIVING DINNER

The Residents Group, which for the past seventeen years has conducted an Annual Thanksgiving Dinner Party for the needy of South Boston, has announced that it plans to conduct its traditional party on Thanksgiving Day, November 25, at the Carmen's Post V.F.W., on West Broadway.

Free tickets are available now, and admission will be by ticket only. These are available by writing to: Broadway Thanksgiving Dinner Party, Inc., Post Office Box 44, South Boston 02127.

The group stated in their announcement that all those wishing to attend should write immediately to avoid disappointment since the supply of tickets is limited and will be distributed on a "first-come" basis.

The Broadway Thanksgiving Dinner Party, Inc., since 1959, has conducted a Free Turkey Dinner Celebration for the poor, the elderly, and lonely — those who cannot afford a celebration of their own, are unable to observe the occasion with their families, or who might otherwise have no place to go on the holiday.

This annual event is sponsored by local businessmen, institutions, and persons within South Boston.

FREE EDUCATION PROGRAM

"What Is A Medical School?", a free public education program, will be held on Monday, December 6, under the sponsorship of the Health Planning Council for Greater Boston, the official Health Systems Agency for sixty-five area communities.

The public is invited to attend this free program which will be held in Keefer Auditorium, University Hospital, 75 East Newton Street, Boston, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Guest speakers will be: John I. Sandson, M.D., dean, Boston University Medical School; Juan Albino, fourth-year medical student, Harvard Medical School, who is also chairperson of the Boricua Health Organization; and Michael Yedidia, Ph.D., clinical professor at Tufts Medical School.

Ethel Lennox of Dorchester, program chairman, said the program is designed to help consumers and health professionals gain a broader understanding of the role of medical schools in training health manpower and serving the consumer.

The program will include an open discussion period in which the audience may present questions to the guest speakers.

Free program brochures are available by phoning the Health Planning Council for Greater Boston in Brighton at 787-5800.

MASSACHUSETTS BAY TRANSPORTATION AUTHORITY
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Pursuant to section 3(d)(1) of the Urban Mass Transportation Act of 1964, as amended, and/or the Federal Aid Highway Act of 1973, the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority will hold a Public Hearing at 10:00 A.M. in the Brandeis Room at the Parker House, 60 School Street, Boston, Massachusetts, on Thursday, December 2, 1976, concerning plans for the reconstruction of 100 PCC cars.

The proposed project involves the overall reconstruction of PCC cars currently in service on the MBTA's Green Line. The project is in two phases: the first involving fifty reconstructed cars; and the second, fifty more. This reconstruction work will focus primarily on the car interior and cab, the trucks, the electrical auxiliaries and wiring system, and propulsion system. Upon completion of the reconstruction work, a thorough testing program will be conducted.

The total project is estimated to cost $16,030,960; an application for a capital grant of $12,824,768 will be filed with the Urban Mass Transportation Administration of the United States Department of Transportation, under the provisions of the Urban Mass Transportation Act of 1964, as amended, and/or the Federal Aid Highway Act of 1973. The remaining $3,206,192 in capital funds will be provided as local share by the issuance of Authority bonds consistent with authorization granted by Legislature.

No families or businesses will be displaced by this project and no significant adverse environmental impacts are expected as a result of the project. The project is part of the Transportation Improvement Program for the Boston region of the Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO). The Metropolitan Planning Organization consists of representatives from the following six agencies: the Executive Office of Transportation and Construction, the Metropolitan Area Planning Council, the Massachusetts Department of Public Works, the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority, the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority's Advisory Board, and the Massachusetts Port Authority.

The following documents will be displayed at the hearing, and are available for public inspection at the offices of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority, 500 Arborway, Jamaica Plain, Massachusetts:

(1) The application of the MBTA for a Mass Transportation Facilities Grant to the Urban Mass Transportation Administration;

(2) The Transportation Improvement Program for the Boston region, 1976-1980.

All parties with significant social, economic, or environmental interests will be given an adequate opportunity to publicly present their views with regard to the proposed project.

ROBERT R. KILEY,
Chairman.

"T" ATTACKS
VANDALISM PROBLEM

Groundwork was laid recently for a major attack on the serious increase in vandalism on the MBTA's commuter rail system.

MBTA Police Chief Richard E. Kenney called a meeting of law enforcement and management officials from Amtrak, Conrail, the Boston & Maine Railroad, and the Authority to review the problem and discuss suggestions for a coordinated effort to make the public aware of the danger to the personal safety of passengers and train crews arising from vandals' acts and the cost of vandalism on the tax-supported commuter rail system.

Because the MBTA owns the right-of-way over which Amtrak and Conrail operate commuter trains and expects to own the B & M rights-of-way by the end of this year, the group also discussed areas of responsibility and jurisdiction, current anti-vandalism efforts by each organization, and funding for future coordinated efforts. A national transit vandalism survey coordinated by the MBTA's Police Department's anti-vandalism program manager, Morton R. Tappe, was briefly discussed.

Chief Kenney outlined the Authority's program for a concerted comprehensive educational effort against vandalism that will be spearheaded by his department with the hope of implementing the program in elementary schools throughout the transportation district.

"For too long," Chief Kenney said, "the major emphasis has been on protection and apprehension. While this is very necessary, today's complex society requires preventive measures so that our Commonwealth's very resources are not wasted."

FANEUIL HALL

Faneuil Hall, "Cradle of Liberty" at Faneuil Hall Square at Merchant Row, was built and given to the city by Peter Faneuil in 1742. It was burned in 1761, was rebuilt in 1764, and enlarged in 1803. The first story was used as a market while the upper story served as a town hall and was the scene of many stirring meetings during the revolutionary movement. British officers used the building as a theater during the occupation of the city. It now contains historical paintings depicting famous battles from early present times, a library, and military museum. Open Monday through Friday, 9 to 5; Saturday, to noon; Sunday, 1 to 5; library, armory, and museum open Monday through Friday, 10 to 4. Free.

OUR FLAG

On June 14, 1777, two hundred years ago, the Congress of the United States enacted a resolution: "... that the flag of the United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white, that the Union be thirteen stars, white on blue field representing a new constellation."

In 1795, eighteen years later, June 14 was designated officially in the United States as Flag Day.

The flag of the United States is a symbol of freedom and justice.

It is a symbol of hope to the millions of people who live in fear, poverty, and in slavery. To millions of people throughout the world it is a symbol of rich material blessing and a land of opportunity.

In the hearts and minds of these millions of people is a deep yearning that some day, somehow, they may have the opportunity of making their homes in this great land of ours.

In these days of doubt, fear, and uncertainty, when freedom and justice are so seriously threatened, it is fitting that we should pause to dedicate ourselves to the basic principles symbolized by our flag.

These principles have sustained us throughout our history.

They have enabled us to triumph when our freedom and our security were threatened.

They have made it possible for us to grow in power and in prosperity.

They have strengthened us when we faltered; given us courage when we were afraid; united us when we were divided.

In the principles of freedom and justice which our flag symbolizes lie our strength and our hope for the future.

For our own sake, and for the welfare of those who follow us, we should make sure that these principles do not perish in our time.

Elizabeth II — will be preserved in a soon-to-be-published ninety-six-page book of dramatic color and black and white photographs with accompanying text entitled "Boston Celebrates July '76." The book is scheduled for delivery to major Boston area book stores by November 20th, and will retail in paperback for $4.95.

"Boston Celebrates July '76," sponsored jointly by Boston 200 and Boston's Fourth of July, Inc., was produced by Boston 200. Proceeds realized by the organizations (both certified nonprofit corporations) through the book's sale will be used to support visitor service and environmental improvement programs in the city initiated during the Bicentennial by Boston 200, and Boston's annual Fourth of July Esplanade program.

The work is divided into three sections, one each on the Esplanade, the Tall Ships, and the Queen. Each section combines photographs and text in a format designed to reflect both the physical happenings and the spirit that surrounded them. News media reports on the events serve as the main source of text throughout the book.

Pictures appearing in the book were generously contributed by some thirteen different organizations and freelance photographers including: The Boston Globe, Boston Herald American and Sunday Advertiser, The Christian Science Monitor, Eastern Gas and Fuel Associates, John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company, Seagull Corporation, United Press International, the United States Navy, William Brett, Douglas Bruce, Lou Jones, C. ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

This requests your approval of the award, without advertising, of a contract to the International Time-Sharing Corporation for time-sharing computer services, for the period beginning July 1, 1976, and ending June 30, 1977.

This corporation under this contract will make available to us time-sharing computer service for the purpose of long-range budget planning.

Although there are other corporations which provide time-sharing computer service, no other service has the equivalent of this corporation's copyrighted programming language, which has great advantages of simplicity, which enables us to write our own computer programs.

The total cost for these services will not exceed $10,000 during the contract period.

In view of the above-specified advantages of this service, public advertising would serve no useful purpose; and in the best interest of the city, I request approval of this request.

Respectfully,
EDWARD T. SULLIVAN,
Director.

COPYING MACHINE

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with writing proposals by public advertising in the City Record, and to award a contract to Xerox Corporation, 100 Charles River Plaza, Boston, Mass., for the supply and maintenance of a Xerox copying machine, during period July 16, 1976, to June 30, 1977, at a total cost not to exceed $9,500.

Under the terms of the proposed contract, Xerox will deliver, install, and furnish the use of the copy machine for the PSE/CETA administration. The terms of the proposed contract will cover equipment and servicing.

Due to the fact that Xerox can provide services which are of a highly unique nature, and because of the quality of the machinery involved, it is in my opinion that no useful purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
EDWARD T. SULLIVAN,
Director.

Purchasing Division

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

In September, 1975, a bronze statue "Boy with Bird" was stolen from the Public Garden. The Parks and Recreation Department has submitted a requisition for a duplicate statue to replace the one which was stolen.

The new statue is available from the Roman Bronze Works, Inc., the foundry that has the mold for "Boy with Bird" and is willing to sell direct to the city for a price of $2,800.

It is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Permission is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Roman Bronze Works, Inc. for the above statue.

The amount of the contract is not to exceed $2,800, net.

Respectfully yours,
FRANK F. CHIN,
Purchasing Agent.

AMBULANCES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On August 3, 1976, bids for furnishing ambulances to the Boston City Hospital (Proposal 261), were publicly opened and read in this office. The lowest bidder, Miller Meteor Sales, Inc., inadvertently, failed to return certain printed pages of the proposal (Form of Advertisement, Notice of Bidders, Terms and Conditions), thereby causing the bid to be considered irregular.

Inasmuch as bids were received through competitive bidding on Proposal 261, Miller Meteor Sales, Inc. was the lowest bidder, and notified this office that it was not the intent of the company to exclude any of the terms and conditions included in the original proposal, permission is requested to reject all bids received at the public opening and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Miller Meteor Sales, Inc., to furnish five Type III, Class I ambulances to the Boston City Hospital Division of Health and Hospitals Department, in an amount not to exceed $91,975, net.

All prices and specifications will be those submitted by Miller Meteor Sales, Inc. on Proposal 261, publicly opened on August 3, 1976.

Respectfully yours,
FRANK F. CHIN,
Purchasing Agent.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT

RAZING OF BUILDINGS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. These buildings are a menace to the neighborhood. The locations follow:

20 Collins Street (203-205 Clare Ave.), Ward 18. Emergency bid submitted in bid box; one copy to Auditing Department. Bid box opened by Mr. Vey's Office. This building is in an unsafe and dangerous condition, a hazard to the general public.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 802, Acts of 1972, as amended, particularly section 124 thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these various premises and to raze the buildings or structures.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the entire lot of buildings or structures, but to break down their bids to show the charge against each separate address. This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

Napoli Wrecking Company, $5,400; Design Demolition Company, $3,450; Mystic Building Wrecking, $3,450; Ups and Downs Wrecking, $2,800; John A. Berardi Wrecking, $4,242.

Ups and Downs Wrecking Corporation, 606 Columbian Street, Braintree, Mass. 02184, has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Bids for the individual buildings or structures were not requested because it would be a practical, physical impossibility for several different contractors to conduct efficient contracting operations simultaneously in individual buildings or structures. Under such conditions, there would be much mutual interference and each contractor would be exposed to severe hazards not under his control, by the operations of adjacent contractors. I also believe that the aggregate cost of individual bids would be much higher than the cost of one bid for the total buildings or structures to be demolished, and that handling the buildings or structures as one unit results in one administrative cost to the city rather than what would result from handling the individual buildings or structures as separate bids and contracts. Unit handling results, however, in this case, in a contract price of over $2,000, or over the statutory limitations upon awards that can be made without advertising, unless your Honor approves the transaction.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding, without advertising, as required in the City Charter, of a contract in the sum of $2,800, to Ups and Downs Wrecking Corporation, 606 Columbian Street, Braintree, Mass. 02184.

Very truly yours,
RICHARD L. GRANARA, JR.,
For Building Commissioner.

NOTE: Per order of Commissioner Geus, No. 20 Collins Street (203-205 Clare Avenue) was removed from Community Development Block Grant bid and placed under city money because it was a church and could not be done with Community Development Block Grant money.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. These buildings are a menace to the neighborhood. The location follows:

19 Harbor View Street, Ward 13. Emergency bid submitted in bid box; one copy to Auditing Department. Bid box opened by Mr. Vey's office. This building is in an unsafe and dangerous condition, a hazard to the general public.

This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

Ups and Downs Wrecking, $5,800; Design Demolition Corporation, $3,790; John J. Duane Wrecking, $4,799; Napoli Wrecking Company, $3,700.

Napoli Wrecking Co., Inc., 105 Norwell Street, Dorchester, Mass. 02121, has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Bids for the individual buildings or structures were not requested because it would be a practical, physical impossibility for several different contractors to conduct efficient contracting operations simultaneously in individual buildings or structures. Under such conditions, there would be much mutual interference and each contractor would be exposed to severe hazards not under his control, by the operations of adjacent contractors. I also believe that the aggregate cost of individual bids would be much higher than the cost of one bid for the total buildings or structures to be demolished, and that handling the buildings or structures as one unit results in one administrative cost to the city rather than what would result from handling the individual buildings or structures as separate bids and contracts. Unit handling results, however, in this case, in a contract price of over $2,000, or over the statutory limitations upon awards that can be made without advertising, unless your Honor approves the transaction.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding, without advertising, as required in the City Charter, of a contract in the sum of $3,700, to Napoli Wrecking Co., Inc., 105 Norwell Street, Dorchester, Mass. 02121.

Very truly yours,
RICHARD L. GRANARA, JR.,
For Building Commissioner.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition.

Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. These buildings are a menace to the neighborhood. The location follows:

10 Iowa Street, Ward 15. Emergency bid submitted in bid box; one copy to Auditing Department. Bid box opened by Mr. Vey's office. This building is in an unsafe and dangerous condition, a hazard to the general public.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 802, Acts of 1972, as amended, particularly section 124 thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these various premises and to raze the buildings or structures.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the entire lot of buildings or structures, but to break down their bid to show the charge against each separate address. This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder and have received the following:

Ups and Downs Wrecking, $5,000; John J. Duane Building Wrecking, $3,145; Design Demolition, $3,400; Napoli Wrecking Company, $3,180.

John J. Duane Co., Inc., 600 Southern Artery, Quincy, Mass. 02169, has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Bids for the individual buildings or structures were not requested because it would be a practical, physical impossibility for several different contractors to conduct efficient contracting operations simultaneously in individual buildings or structures. Under such conditions, there would be much mutual interference and each contractor would be exposed to severe hazards not under his control, by the operations of adjacent contractors. I also believe that the aggregate cost of individual bids would be much higher than the cost of one bid for the total buildings or structures to be demolished, and that handling the buildings or structures as one unit results in one administrative cost to the city rather than what would result from handling individual buildings or structures as separate bids and contracts. Unit handling results, however, in this case, in a contract price of over $2,000, or over the statutory limitations upon awards that can be made without advertising, unless your Honor approves the transaction.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding, without advertising, as required in the City Charter, of a contract in the sum of $3,145, to John J. Duane Co., Inc., 600 Southern Artery, Quincy, Mass. 02169.

Mystic Wrecking Co., Inc., 265 Carter Street, Chelsea, Mass., has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

MAKING SAFE OF BUILDINGS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

Tri Construction Company, $3,528;
Donald Clancy and Sons, $2,320.

NOTE: Although only two bidders, this bid was awarded by Building Commissioner to prevent further deterioration and for the safety of the general public.

Donald Clancy and Sons, 339 Dorchester Street, South Boston, Mass. 02127, has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding, without advertising, as required in the City Charter, of a contract in the sum of $2,320, to Donald Clancy and Sons, 339 Dorchester Street, South Boston, Mass.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

HEALTH SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I hereby request your permission to dispense with bidding, and to award a contract in an amount not to exceed $10,000, to the Greater Roslindale Health Organization, Inc., located at 4208 Washington Street, Roslindale, Mass. Payment for this contract shall be made from the Community Development Block Grant.

Under the terms of the agreement, the Greater Roslindale Health Organization, Inc. will conduct a primary care health program to include pediatrics, adult medicine, obstetrics/gynecology, blood pressure screening, and nutrition for the southwest Boston area, including Roslindale, West Roxbury, and Hyde Park. The period of performance shall be December 1, 1976, through November 30, 1977.

The Greater Roslindale Health Organization, Inc. has had past experience and demonstrated expertise in delivering similar services in the community. In the interest of continuity of service delivery, I recommend that a contractual relationship be established at this time, between the city and the Greater Roslindale Health Organization, Inc.

Therefore, for the reasons cited above, it is my view that public advertising ould not serve any useful or practical purpose.

Sincerely,
E. OWEN DONNELLY,
Director.

ELECTION DEPARTMENT

MACHINE BALLOT LABELS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As authorized by the Boston Election Commission under a vote taken this day, August 16, 1976, I hereby request for and on its behalf, permission to dispense with public invitation for competitive bids in the City Record, and to award a contract to Acme Printing, Inc. of Medford, Mass., to provide this department with American Party machine ballot labels for the September 14, 1976, State Primary, at a price not to exceed $5,000.

This request is based on the decision of the Secretary of State (who has jurisdiction over the ballot printing), to only print paper ballots for the American Party Primary.

In view of the fact that the City of Boston is fully mechanized on voting machines, the Election Commission estimates that it would have been far more costly to replace and repair ballot boxes, build voting booths, and hire additional personnel to administer the American Party Primary, as required by law, than to have voting machine ballot labels printed.

The City of Boston Printing Plant, though having the capability for printing ballot labels, is prevented by law (G.L., chap. 54, sec. 40, chap. 53, sec. 1) from printing voting machine labels, and therefore, was not consulted for printing.

Acme Printing, Inc. of Medford, Mass., was the low bidder for the state ballot printing contract, and therefore, the logical firm to be awarded the contract.

Respectfully,
For the Board,
JOHN M. ROBINSON,
Chairman.

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT

AUTOMATIC TYPEWRITER

DEAR SIR:

An invitation for bids for rental and maintenance of automatic typewriters for use in the Pathology and Radiology departments at Boston City Hospital, for the period July 1, 1976, through June 1, 1977, was advertised in the City Record on June 14, 1976, and bids were publicly opened and read aloud on June 25, 1976. According to the advertised specifications, 10 machines would be allocated to the department of Pathology and one to the department of Radiology, and bidders were invited to bid for Pathology's machines or for Radiology's machine, or for both. Since the requirements of the Radiology and Pathology Departments are not identical, the Department of Health and Hospitals reserved the right to award the contract in total, or choose different machines, depending on the needs of each department. The following bids were submitted in response to the advertisement:

Savin Business Machines Corporation, 11 North Beacon Street, Allston, Mass., Radiology (1) — $2,030; Pathology (2) — $4,056.

International Business Machines Corporation, One Gateway Center, Newton, Mass., Radiology (1) — $3,300; Pathology (2) — $5,520.

Olivetti Corporation of America, 1255 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass., Radiology (1) — $2,820; Pathology (2) — $5,610.

After an evaluation of all machines offered, it has been determined that the machine offered by Savin Business Machines Corporation, the low bidder, satisfies the requirements of the Radiology Department at Boston City Hospital.

Therefore, in accordance with the authority delegated to the Commissioner by the Board of Health and Hospitals at its meeting of June 22, 1976, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to award this contract to Savin Business Machines Corporation for rental and maintenance of one 900 Word Master automatic typewriter for use in the Radiology Department at Boston City Hospital, for the period July 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, at a cost to the city not to exceed $2,030.

There is forthcoming to your Honor a separate letter requesting permission to reject all bids for rental and maintenance of two automatic typewriters for the Pathology Department, and award a contract, without advertising, to IBM Corporation, in accordance with the specifications of the contract as described above.

Very truly yours,
DAVID L. ROSENBLUM,
Commissioner.

TRANSCRIPTION SERVICES

DEAR SIR:

An invitation for bids for providing medical records transcription services to the Medical Records Division of Boston City Hospital was advertised in the City Record, on May 31, 1976, and bids were publicly opened and read aloud on June 18, 1976. Bidders were invited to submit bids in terms of the number of lines they would transcribe for $70,000, and the length of such lines.

The bids submitted were as follows: International Dictating Services of Boston, Inc., 739 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass. — 1,000,000 lines, 7 inches in length for $70,000.

Private Secretary, Inc., 913-945 Reservoir Avenue, Cranston, Rhode Island — 1,000,001 lines, 7 inches in length for $70,000.

Although Private Secretary, Inc.'s bid does include one additional line of transcription, a reference check conducted by the department indicated that while the work of Private Secretary in Boston area hospitals is good, it does not in any way compare with the volume of work required by Boston City Hospital. Furthermore, the inconvenience of sending our work out of state, the uncertainty of receiving and getting our work back in emergency situations, and the fact that International Dictating Services, Inc. is a Boston firm which allows for ready access and quick delivery of required material, does not, in our opinion, justify an award to Private Secretary, Inc. for the additional line of transcription.

International Dictating Services of Boston, Inc., the current contractor, has provided very satisfactory services to this department for the past four years and at no increase in cost over this period of time. Therefore, in accordance with the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals at its meeting of June 22, 1976, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to reject both bids and award this contract for providing medical records transcription services, without advertising, to International Dictating Services, of Boston Inc., for the period July 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $70,000.

Very truly yours,
DAVID L. ROSENBLUM,
Commissioner.

STAFF AND BUDGET REVIEW

DEAR SIR:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to the Commissioner by the Board of Health and Hospitals at its meeting of June 22, 1976, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Arthur D. Little, Inc., Acorn Park, Cambridge, Mass., for the period August 1, 1976, through August 31, 1976, at a cost to the city not to exceed $7,000.

Under this contract, Arthur D. Little, Inc. will provide a review of house staff allocations and expenditures for physician salary support, comparing it with information gathered on other institutions. Intern and resident staffing levels, as well as any other physician support, will be considered on a department-by-department basis. Data on numbers of house staff assigned to various services will be collected and analyzed, and general comparisons with house staff allocations and approved residencies in other institutions will be attempted as a guide to the department's planning with the chiefs of service for budgeting house staff positions for next year. Furthermore, the budget support for any other physicians in the department will be reviewed on a service-by-service basis as has been done in reviews conducted in other municipal institutions affiliated with medical schools.

Arthur D. Little, Inc., a nationally recognized management consultant firm with experience in hospital management problems, is particularly well qualified to perform these services having conducted, in 1971, an extensive analysis of major purchasing, personnel, and management problems in the Department of Health and Hospitals.

Because of the specialized, professional services to be rendered under this proposed contract, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
DAVID L. ROSENBLUM,
Commissioner.

COMPUTER SERVICES

DEAR SIR:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to the Commissioner by the Board of Health and Hospitals at its meeting of June 22, 1976, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Digital Equipment Corporation of Waltham, Mass., for the period September 1, 1976, through October 31, 1976, at a cost to the city not to exceed $8,000.

Under this contract, Digital will provide computer consultant services by which a patient-index computer program will be converted from the Univac operating system at Tufts New England Medical Center to the DEC System-20 computer manufactured by Digital and presently installed at Mattapan Hospital.

Due to the highly technical nature of program conversion and modification, as well as the very complex nature of the DEC System-20, a considerable expertise in DEC System-20 hardware and software is required. At the present time, however, since the DEC System-20 is a new computer system, there are few if any consultants with sufficient experience to complete the conversion properly and expeditiously.

In view of the above and inasmuch as the cost is reasonable, in my opinion no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
DAVID L. ROSENBLUM,
Commissioner.

SERVICING OF EQUIPMENT

DEAR SIR:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to the Commissioner by the Board of Health and Hospitals at its meeting of June 22, 1976, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Searle Analytic, Inc., 45 Hartwell Avenue, Lexington, Mass., for the period October 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, at a cost to the city not to exceed $3,736.50.

Under this contract, Searle Analytic, Inc. will service, at the costs indicated, the following equipment originally purchased from Searle and presently in use in the Department of Clinical Biochemistry at Boston City Hospital:

Model 720, Liquid Scintillation Counter, $866.25; Model 1085, Auto Gamma Counter, $834; Model 1185, Auto Gamma Counter, $1,023.75; Model 6868, Scintillation Counter, $1,012.50.

The above cost figures include two automatic maintenance calls per year, corrective maintenance, any parts required for repair, labor, and travel expenses.

Searle Analytic, Inc., the only firm known which manufactures parts for the equipment listed above, is also the only company which can provide trained personnel competent to repair this complex equipment. Furthermore, Searle offers ready accessibility of parts required for repair purposes.

Therefore, inasmuch as this contract is of a highly specialized nature and since Searle Analytic, Inc. is uniquely suited to furnish the required services at a cost which is reasonable to the city, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
DAVID L. ROSENBLUM,
Commissioner.

DEAR SIR:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to the Commissioner of the Board of Health and Hospitals at its meeting of June 22, 1976, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Coulter Electronics, Inc., 110A Commerce Way, Building 1, Woburn, Mass., for the period October 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, at a cost to the city not to exceed $6,000.

Under this contract Coulter Electronics, Inc. will service the following equipment presently in use in the Central Hematology and Outpatient Department Laboratories at Boston City Hospital:

One Coulter Counter Model S, red and white blood cell counter (in Central Hematology), $2,625; one Coulter Counter Model S, red and white blood cell counter (in Outpatient Department), $3,375.

The above cost figures, which in my opinion are reasonable, include four preventive maintenance inspections, emergency service calls (which occur as a result of instrument failure), replacement parts, labor, and travel expenses.

Inasmuch as Coulter is the only firm which manufactures this highly specialized equipment, as well as the parts needed for its repair, and since reliable service by trained technicians is unavailable from other sources, no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
DAVID L. ROSENBLUM,
Commissioner.

PULMONARY DISEASES SERVICES

DEAR SIR:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals at its meeting of June 22, 1976, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to enter, without advertising, into a contract between the City of Boston and the Pulmonary Section of the Boston University School of Medicine, for the period July 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, to provide treatment services for patients with tuberculosis.

The total cost to the city for this contract shall be a sum not to exceed $21,000.

Under the terms of this contract arrangements will be made for physician from the Pulmonary Section of the Boston University School of Medicine with specific training and expertise in pulmonary diseases to staff the tuberculosis clinic. This arrangement will partially replace the so-called session coverage system previously employed, and assures better quality, continuity of care, and accountability.

Because of the special fitness of the University to provide these services and because of the professional nature of the services to be provided, your approval respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising, and to award this contract, without advertising, to Boston University School of Medicine under the terms and conditions stated above.

Very truly yours,
DAVID L. ROSENBLUM,
Commissioner.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

LEASING CERTAIN PREMISES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in extending the lease of certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the Director for the Department of the Mayor — Youth Activities Commission purposes. There is a further delegation of power from the Commission to the Director to execute such lease, extension thereof, upon receipt of such written authority from the Mayor or Boston.

The demised premises consist of the adjoining offices on the second floor of the building at 344 Washington Street, Brighton, one office consisting of approximately 266 square feet (Office A) and one office consisting of approximately 7 square feet (Office B).

The term of the lease will be two months beginning July 1, 1976, and terminating June 30, 1977.

The monthly rental will be $200, which will be charged to Youth Activities Commission Account No. 1-13-79-49, with a rental charge for this renewal term not to exceed $2,400.

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is not felt by the writer that public advertising would be useful in this instance.

Very truly yours,
VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising for bids.

Robert T. Kenney, BRA Director, Resigns

Robert T. Kenney, director of the Boston Redevelopment Authority for the past six years, is resigning from the position, effective January 1, 1977, to establish a management consultant firm specializing in development planning.

At the same time, Mayor Kevin H. White announced that Robert Walsh, currently serving as deputy director for community development at the BRA, would be Mr. Kenney's successor.

Mr. Kenney disclosed that his new firm would be affiliated with FE Corporation, Waltham, Massachusetts, a corporation which already provides consulting engineering services to numerous municipalities and their clients.

Mr. Kenney said, "My decision to leave the BRA is based solely on considerations concerning my own professional advancement.

"Nine years ago I took a year's leave of absence from Price, Waterhouse to work for the city. I intended, quite frankly, to return to private business long before now. I concluded within the past year that I could delay no longer the decision to return to the private sector."

Of his six years as head of the renewal agency, Mr. Kenney said, "I have been privileged to head what is generally considered to be the finest renewal agency in the country. It was a distinct pleasure to work with the talented and dedicated men and women on the BRA staff. I am also pleased that Bob Walsh, an old friend and an extremely competent administrator, will now head the agency. I can't think of a better recommendation for a BRA director than that he has been a member of the BRA staff."

Mr. Kenney is generally credited with bringing to fruition the BRA's plans for renewal of the downtown waterfront, where this past summer both a five-acre waterfront park and the Faneuil Hall Markets project were opened.

In addition, during his tenure the BRA oversaw the construction of 10,000 units of housing, of which 8,500 were subsidized units.

Mr. Kenney also pointed to the construction of seventeen parks by the BRA throughout the city as one of the highlights of his administration, as well as the initiation of two large-scale renewal projects, Jordan Marsh/Lafayette Place, and the Charlestown Navy Yard.

"What we've accomplished in the past six years has been done in the face of many obstacles," Mr. Kenney said.

"We've had to continue a renewal program when national urban policy did not favor large cities.

"We've had to weather a national economic recession.

"We've had to contend with a federal moratorium on subsidized housing.

"We've had to adjust our development process to the new and commendable concerns of environmentalists and preservationists."

He also reported that when he assumed control of the BRA in 1971 the agency had only enough funds to meet its payroll for two months. Since that time it has received approximately $170 million in federal funds and the balance of committed funds the agency could receive in future years is approximately $83 million.

Mr. Walsh, thirty-five, grew up in the Savin Hill section of Dorchester. He is a graduate of Boston College High School and received his bachelor's degree in political science from St. Michael's College in Winooski, Vermont, in 1963.

Prior to joining the BRA in 1967 he was an employee of the Cambridge Redevelopment Authority. At the BRA he served on the South End project staff and became project director of the South End project, the largest renewal project in the United States, in 1969.

He became deputy director for community development in 1971. In that capacity he has been responsible for all residential renewal projects in the city, with the exception of the waterfront.

BRA Director Resigns . . .

Mr. Walsh will be the first BRA director in the twenty-year history of the agency to have served on the staff before becoming director.

He and his wife, Carol Ann, are the parents of three children. They live in Hanover, but will be moving to Boston in the near future.

"T" SETS NEW HIRING, CONSTRUCTION GOALS

An affirmative action program for the hiring of minorities and women by the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority and its contractors has been approved by the MBTA Board of Directors.

Director of Personnel Daniel J. Sullivan said a specific objective of the affirmative action program was to employ systematic efforts to fill all vacancies with at least 50 percent minorities and 20 percent women in 1976, with the intention to arrive at a 20 percent minority employment level by December 31, 1978. Mr. Sullivan said the plan formalizes the hiring practices the Authority has used over the last year — that wherever possible, we have used a 50 percent minority hiring posture and sought to increase female representation.

Another key goal of the program is that "15 to 25 percent of each prime contract, as measured by total contract price, shall be performed by minority contractors to the extent feasible." The MBTA has plans for construction worth more than $1 billion over the next decade.

Dr. James D. Corbin, director of equal employment opportunity/affirmative action, said that in the program to increase the use of minority and women contractors in both construction and the purchasing of materials, a list of such contractors will be maintained to identify businesses owned by minorities or women so that they may participate in competitive bidding.

The affirmative action document quoted Chairman Robert R. Kiley's statement before the Affirmative Action Seminar of the American Public Transit Association in Boston on March 5, 1976.

"The fact that we have a de facto situation in this Authority of employment of minorities around 5 percent, women less than 5 percent, is really astonishing, some sixteen years after the sit-ins began, at least a decade after a series of civil rights laws passed, some twenty-two years after Brown v. The School Board, and all of the court cases.

"Still, in most sectors, to be honest with ourselves, little real progress is being made on a really broad front. Now I think that's a particular problem for those of us who are in public agencies and are spending public dollars. So those of us, I think, in the public sector, have a special obligation not simply to be in compliance with statutes, court precedents, and regulations, but to take some aggressive leadership and that's going to be difficult.

"We are going to have to take some risks and perhaps change some images of ourselves and over the course of the next twelve months, two years, four years, or five years, we must dramatically turn around the employee profile of the organization, the adjustment of attitudes on the part of people of both sexes and all races and ethnic groups. It is going to be difficult. It is going to be agonizing. It may be psychologically debilitating for many people. I think in the last analysis will be uplifting; at least it will be just and fair, and I think that is a worthy objective of all of us," V. Kiley said.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR MINORITIES

The Greater Boston Real Estate Board has signed an Affirmative Marketing Agreement with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development to promote and create minority opportunities in the real estate industry. It was announced recently. It is the first real estate board in the state to commit itself to the program.

The joint announcement was made by Real Estate Board President Donald C. Dolben and Glendora Putnam, HUD's deputy assistant secretary for Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity, who flew to Boston from Washington for the formal signing ceremony. She was former head of the Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination.

Glendora Putnam noted that MCAD is still in the business of processing individual discrimination grievances, but that various agencies "could process discrimination complaints for the next 10 years and we would not eliminate discrimination.

"The most effective way (of eliminating discrimination) is dealing through the institutions," she said, "and the real estate boards of this nation are part of the institutional framework of the housing market.

"The fact that you have signed this agreement means that you not only agree to obey the law, but that you are committing yourself to doing more than that," Ms. Putnam said. "Such voluntary commitment certainly means more than simple obedience to the law.

"This is truly a momentous occasion for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts," she added.

A rate of $4 per inch of 12 lines (set solid) has been established for such advertisements as under the law must be printed in the City Record. Advertising and other copy must, except in emergencies, be in hand at the City Record office by noon, Tuesday of each week to insure its publication in the Monday issue.

The agreement, said Mr. Dolben, illustrates how private industry and government can work together to come up with a meaningful program rather than government dictating restrictive regulations arbitrarily without seeking industry's views. The Department of Housing and Urban Development is to be commended for undertaking this cooperative approach — one which should lead to long-lasting results."

Also participating in the signing was Maurice E. Frye, Jr., HUD regional administrator, who noted that back in the 1950s, two of the Real Estate Board's divisions were the only representatives of the industry in the state to support fair housing laws, and the first in the nation to press for their passage.

Under the Affirmative Marketing Agreement, the Boston Real Estate Board will develop a program to encourage minorities to enter the real estate field and actively campaign to enlist minority brokers as members of its organization.

The board will also develop a training program, including distribution of manuals and materials to member firms who become voluntary signatories to the agreement, outlining their obligations — among which is the recruitment of minorities for job opportunities in their offices.

Another section of the agreement calls for the Real Estate Board to mount an advertising campaign to inform the public about the program as well as remind brokers and homesellers of their nondiscriminatory obligations under the equal opportunity and fair housing laws.

HUD shares equal responsibility with the Real Estate Board for implementation of the program.

Progress of the program's implementation will be monitored by a twelve-member Community Housing Board, drawn from a cross section of civic and minority organizations in the metropolitan area.

Members of the Community Housing Resources Board are:

Ms. Norma R. Bogen, Metropolitan Area Planning Council; Mr. Robert O. Bowles, Urban League of Eastern Massachusetts; Mr. Elliott

G. Carr, Savings Banks Association of Massachusetts; Mr. Peter Kin-lap Chan, Chinese Consolidated Benevolent Association of New England.

Mr. John K. Gaffney, Framingham Human Relations Commission; Ms. Polly Jackson, League of Women Voters of Massachusetts; Mr. Robert E. McKay, Citizens Housing and Planning Association of Metropolitan Boston; Mr. Frederick Norton, Jr., Boston Bar Association; Mr. Edward R. Redd, Boston Branch, NAACP.

Mr. Robert R. Ruddock, Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce; Mr. Lawrence R. Smith, United Housing Coalition of Black Housing Task Force; Mr. Miguel A. Torrado, Hispanic Office of Planning and Evaluation, Boston, Massachusetts; Mr. Robert Sanders, Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination.

JOB PLACEMENT PROGRAM

A job-finding team for Boston high school graduates was completed on November 16, with the appointment of two new members.

Formation of the team had been recommended by the Committee for Boston.

Martin Stone, a business executive, was appointed by Mayor White in August to start the job placement program in the city's business community.

Joining him will be Burt Wolfman, administrative dean of Radcliffe College, and Donald Manson, director of the city's Youth Activities Commission.

Mr. Wolfman will be responsible for overseeing an employment program for the city youths in local universities and nonprofit groups in the metropolitan area.

Mr. Manson will be in charge of a job placement effort in city, state, county, and federal governments.

The committee was named by Mayor White last summer with the charge to "recommend ways of solving neighborhood-based tensions and problems."

Announcing the latest appointments, Mayor White said: "I have no doubts that the lack of job opportunities for our young people — and hence a lack of belief in the future — are at the heart of many of the tensions which have faced this city."

The Mayor noted that the city's unemployment rate climbed to 10 percent this summer. The unemployment rate among youths is more than one in four, he said.

"If we can get the business community, government-employing community, and nonprofit groups to cooperate in an effort to place the maximum number of graduates in jobs with a future," the Mayor concluded, "we will have made great strides."

PLEASE MAIL EARLY!

The Postal Service has advanced its suggested Christmas mailing deadlines for domestic parcels and letter mail to December 3 and 10, respectively, in anticipation of an exceptionally high mail volume.

Citing the impact of greatly increased mail volumes generated by the the fifteen-state United Parcel Service strike in the east and south, and its residual effect on other parts of the country, the Postal Service said it is compelled to ask the public to mail even earlier than normal.

The service said that because of the dedication of its employees, many of whom have been working long hours, it has had little trouble handling the increased mail volume since the parcel strike began in mid-September. It expressed confidence that it will continue to be able to cope with the increase, with the cooperation of the public and major mailers.

Parcel volume has already more than doubled in the strike area and significantly nationwide, and letter mail is also on the rise, the Postal Service said. It said most of the increase to date, has been from large volume business mailers, who pre-sort their mail and deposit at scheduled, non-peak hours, in plants prepared to handle it. For example, the service said it is working closely with shippers of perishable goods to handle millions of gift packages normally moved by other shippers.

As Christmas nears, however, more and more of the mail will be from the general public, deposited at neighborhood post offices, branches, and stations, on top of the already unprecedented business mail volume, the Postal Service said.

As a result, while priority will be given to letter mail, many postal facilities normally dedicated to letter mail may have to be used to prevent an unmanageable backlog of parcels.

Therefore, the Postal Service said, it strongly urges the public to deposit their parcels by December 3, and their letters and greeting cards by December 10, to assure delivery by Christmas.

It asked that customers mail as early as possible, use proper packaging materials and techniques, and properly address and ZIP code their mail.

Suggested mailing dates for international mail are unchanged. However, customers were strongly urged by the Postal Service to deposit overseas packages and greetings immediately, and to send them by airmail if they want to assure delivery by Christmas.

LET THERE BE LIGHTS!

Boston Common may be without its traditional glowing garb during the 1976 winter holidays unless the public comes to the rescue, according to Peter Meade, Commissioner of Boston's Parks and Recreation Department.

Every year, Boston's downtown merchants and private sources have contributed to the Christmas Festival Fund. The fund provides for a 50-foot main tree, manger scene and the decoration of 50 to 60 smaller evergreens. Shoppers, visitors, workers downtown, and Boston residents enjoy this manifestation of holiday spirit.

This year, despite a mailing of 800 appeals to the usual sources, no one responded.

"I'm asking for contributions from the public this year — those who enjoy and appreciate the display," Commissioner Meade said. "Our goal is $20,000 by December 6 when the lighting ceremony will be held, if it is held. We'd appreciate any and all contributions as soon as possible."

Contributions should be sent to Christmas Festival Fund c/o Harbor National Bank, 5 Franklin St., Boston, MA 02110.

MAYOR URGES: REFORM STRUCTURE OF CITY GOVERNMENT

Mayor White has vowed to go to the City Council by December with a home rule petition for dramatic reform of the structure of city government.

The Mayor made the vow ordering key staff and legal advisers to conduct an immediate and exhaustive analysis of a 40-page report on charter reform released November 18 by the Committee for Boston.

He deferred comment on the specific findings of the report, but strongly endorsed the substance of the report.

"I agree totally, on the basis of 30 hours of review and reflection with the Committee's perception of our problems," the Mayor said.

"We must make the School Department vastly more accountable; all our neighborhoods must be brought back into the process of city government; and a way must be found, and locked into law, to stunt the voter alienation that grows worse in this city with each passing year," he said.

"My own sense of the city and its neighborhoods tells me there is a genuine hunger and hope for change, and for an end to the exhaustion of living with a distant, unrepresentative government."

Mayor White appointed the Committee for Boston on August 26 in an effort to seek ways to ease racial and social tension in Boston.

The committee is comprised of 11 private citizens, and is chaired by former Massachusetts Attorney General Edward J. McCormack.

DISPLAY OUR FLAG PROUDLY

BHA FUNDS INCREASED

The U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development has revised its formula for subsidies to public housing authorities, which means a funding increase of more than $1 million a year for the Boston Housing Authority.

The revised formula, which benefits the nation's older and larger housing authorities, will also significantly increase the annual subsidies to Cambridge and a number of other communities across Massachusetts.

HUD Secretary Carla Hills, in announcing the new formula which took effect October 1, said that housing authorities which began their fiscal years on April 1 and July 1 are eligible for retroactive funding under the guidelines.

For Boston and Cambridge, whose fiscal years began April 1, this means Boston will get $300,000, and Cambridge will get $50,000.

The additional funding will be part of the Federal subsidy for normal operating expenses and will be in addition to any allocations for construction or modernization.

The BHA operates about 13,000 units of Federally subsidized housing in 40 developments. Federal subsidies to the BHA for the current fiscal year amounted to about $11 million.

PLEASE HELP IF YOU CAN

The South Boston Information Center and the South Boston Marshals have established the Seaman-Breadmore Fire Fund for two families who were victims of recent fires.

DEAR COMMISSIONER PAUL:

This is a long overdue letter to thank the men of District 5, Engine 37, Aerial Tower 2 who responded to an emergency call when a water pipe burst on the second floor of our Palmer Building at the Deaconess Hospital.

Since there were about thirty very sick patients on this floor, we appreciated the prompt response of the men involved. They went about their duties in an exemplary fashion enabling us to continue vital patient services throughout the emergency.

I want you to know how much we appreciate the response and assistance from your department. It is reassuring to those of us who are also providing vital services to citizens of Boston to know that we can rely on the Fire Department in times of emergency.

Again many thanks.

OLD STATE HOUSE

Here "the child Independence was born" according to John Adams, our 2nd President. Built in 1713, it was the seat of the Colonial Government and the center of activity for such patriots as James Otis, John Hancock, Samuel and John Adams. It was known as the Town House until Massachusetts became a state. Just outside, the Boston Massacre occurred. The Declaration of Independence was first read in Boston from the East balcony, and President Washington here reviewed a parade in his honor in 1789. It was here, too, that John Hancock served as first governor of the Commonwealth.

Open Monday through Saturday, 9 A.M. to 1 P.M. Closed Mondays, December through April.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT

EDUCATION COLLABORATIVE PROGRAMS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to the New England Conservatory of Music, for services during the period from September 1, 1976, through May 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $10,441.

The contractor shall, in collaboration with the Madison Park High School, conduct a program for 300 students. Attendance at rehearsals of Conservatory ensembles, master classes, and listening sessions in the Firestone Library (with accompanying preparation and follow-up sessions), are part of this musical offering. In addition, a group of forty advanced students participate in rehearsals and performances of Conservatory ensembles. Throughout, the historic and cultural derivations of music played and heard will be highlighted, including both Afro-American and Spanish-American music.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this contract and the unique facilities and skills of the New England Conservatory of Music, and because the institution is working in conjunction with the school in its desegregation plans, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G. L., c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, section 1, Project No. 77-9S-474.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Boston University, for a bilingual teacher-training program, during the period September, 1976, through August, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $54,900.

Boston University shall provide a bilingual teacher-training program for professionals and paraprofessionals from the Boston public schools. The contract monies will pay for the tuition and registration expenses of the students from the Boston public schools and for a special course in the area of reading that will be offered free of charge to staff from the Boston public schools.

Because Boston University has already operated this bilingual teacher-training program successfully for one year and because the U. S. Office of Education has recommended Boston University as the site for Boston's bilingual teacher-training program, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without appropriation, under the provisions of G. L., c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from Title VII, Office of Education, Washington, D. C.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Offering direct services to students in basic skills of science and math; 2. providing reinforcement of reading and language skills of classroom teachers; 3. coordinating long- and short-term curriculum planning by elementary school teachers; 4. providing teacher and parent workshops for values clarification and cultural exchange; 5. continuing the tutorial/student aide program; and 6. continuation of special needs program, library/media resource program, physical education program.

Emmanuel College has been requested by the court to collaborate with Ohrenberger School in its desegregation plans and has worked closely with the school in drawing up its proposal. Because Emmanuel College is especially capable of delivering the services noted above, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G. L., c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, state-approved Project No. 77-9S-379.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G. L., c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, state-approved Project No. 77-9S-377.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Wellesley College, during the period from September 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $53,000.

Because Wellesley College is especially capable of delivering the services noted above, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed without an appropriation, under the provisions of G. L., ch. 44, s. 53A, and is made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, state-approved Project No. 77-9S-392.

Sincerely yours,

EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

The contractor, in collaboration with English High School, shall carry out the intent of the Phase II collaborative school/university pairings by:

1. Developing curricula in art foundation exploration, sculpture, TV studio, art history, and art for non-majors; 2. expanding occupational education and guidance program featuring commercial design and portfolio courses; 3. continuation of visiting artists program — field trips and extracurricular art activities; 4. establishing interdisciplinary linkages between art, math, science, and language course offerings; 5. providing assistance to staff to improve art teaching skills; and 6. continuation of community liaison.

Massachusetts College of Art has been requested by the court to collaborate with English High School in its desegregation plans and has worked closely with the school in drawing up its proposal. This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G. L., ch. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, state-approved Project No. 77-9S-381.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G. L., ch. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, state-approved Project No. 77-9S-383.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G. L., ch. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, state-approved Project No. 77-9S-385.

Very truly yours,

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to the University of Massachusetts at Amherst, during the period from September 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $36,382.

The contractor, in collaboration with English High School, shall carry out the intent of the Phase II collaborative school/university pairings by:

THEATER ARTS PROGRAMS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to the Boston Foundation, Inc., for a multicultural theater arts project, during the period September, 1976, through June, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $131,613.

The contractor shall provide a bilingual-bicultural theater arts program in Boston's secondary schools, which will include a variety of ethnic groups. DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to the Pocket Mime Theater, for services during the period from September 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $16,947.

The contractor shall, in collaboration with the Madison Park High School, conduct a program for sixty students. Students will take both an introduction to theater course (focusing on verbal expression) and a movement course (focusing on non-verbal expression) during the first semester. They will choose either a "process" class (intermediate acting) or a production class for the remainder of the year. In addition to the theater course, a dance class directly relates to the acting and production classes through joint performances.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this contract and the unique staff skills available from the Pocket Mime Theater, and because the institution is working in conjunction with the school in its desegregation plans, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G. L., c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, section 1, Project No. 77-9S-477.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

NEGOTIATION SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston, I request your written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement, and to award to Holtz and Drachman, attorneys at law, 185 Devonshire Street, Boston, Mass., a contract negotiating a collective bargaining agreement between the Boston School Committee and the Boston Teachers Union, in the amount of $67,000, for the period July 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977.

Since the services to be provided under the proposed contract are both professional and confidential in nature, and due to the experience of Holtz and Drachman in labor negotiations, it is the view of the Boston School Committee that publicly inviting proposals would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

EVALUATION COMPONENT SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the Boston School Committee and upon the recommendation of the Superintendent and the Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization to award a contract, without public advertising, to Dr. Michael J. Savage, for the implementation of the evaluation component of the Emergency School Aid Act Project, during the period September, 1976, through June 29, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $21,415.

Dr. Savage shall be responsible for the implementation of the ESAA Evaluation Component, supervision of the evaluation staff, and utilization of resources in accordance with city and federal rules and regulations.

Because of the need to continue the program during the present academic year, the School Committee believes that the public interest would not be served by a time-consuming process of public bidding for this position. Moreover, inspection of Dr. Savage's resume, in light of the job description and responsibilities in question, reveals that he is most qualified for this position and can be reasonably expected to serve the citizens of Boston quite satisfactorily.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G. L., c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under the grant from Emergency School Aid Act Grant No. G310-1-76-005.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request that the Psychological Corporation, 757 Third Avenue New York, NY 10017, be awarded a contract, without public bidding, and in the amount of $6,820.

The contract provides for a licensing fee by which the Psychological Corporation grants us permission to reproduce copyrighted test material in the administration of the Metropolitan Achievement Test to Grades 1 through 5 in our reading program.

Since the material is copyrighted only to the Psychological Corporation, no competitive bidding is possible. I believe that the best interests of the School Department would be served by awarding the contract to the above firm.

LEO J. BURKE,
Business Manager.

RECORD-KEEPING

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your approval of the award, without advertising, of a contract to the Julian R. McDermott Corporation, for services during the period of July 1, 1976, and ending June 30, 1977.

The contract will be for services to:

1. Develop and operate a system of programs for record-keeping by computer to serve the needs of the collection of taxes equitably and expeditiously under the rent control ordinance of the City of Boston.

2. Provide keypunching, computer operation, equipment rental, and supplies of forms as required to accomplish the regular procedures noted above.

3. Train personnel in procedures for feeding information to the system, requesting reports, and monitoring the office activity in this regard.

The total cost for these services will not exceed $196,920.

Mr. McDermott and members of the above firm have worked intensively with the city and the Boston Rent Control Administration since 1972.

They offer expertise in data processing, competence in real estate and economics, awareness of record-keeping problems encountered with Boston Real Estate, familiarity with other city departments which provide information essential to the administration, and proposed hourly rates of payment below prevailing rates for similar services.

Considering the above qualifications, public advertising would serve no useful purpose nor be in the best interests of the city. I, therefore, recommend approval of this request.

Sincerely,

JAMES V. YOUNG,
Collector-Treasurer.

Sincerely yours,

DONALD B. MANSON,
Executive Director.

YOUTH SERVICES PROGRAMS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to the Hayden Inn School for Boys, a private, nonprofit, social service agency, serving adolescents with special needs. The Hayden Inn School is accredited by the Boston public school system and will provide educational services to children referred to it by this court under Statute 1973, chapter 1073, the Children In Need of Service Act.

Under the terms of the contract, the Hayden Inn School will provide services by way of a three-track program. The first phase is residence, treatment, and education. Services in this program consists of individual evaluation by a clinical psychologist and/or a learning disability specialist. An educational and treatment plan are individually tailored to meet the student's needs based upon this evaluation. The services available are small group learning, one-to-one remediation, pre-occupational assessment and training, psychiatric consultation, individual, group, and family counseling. The cost of this program is $250.32 per week (seven full days), or $35.76 per day.

RENTAL AND MAINTENANCE

YOUR HONOR:

I hereby request permission to award without advertising, a contract to the International Business Machines Corporation, of 610 Lincoln Street, Waltham, Mass., for the rental and maintenance service of the following machines used in conjunction with the data processing system which was installed in this court in 1969:

3742, Model 001, 20098 Data S, one at $223 a month, B rental plan.

3742, Model 001, 20195 Data S, one at $223 a month, B rental plan.

The equipment, which has been supplied to us during the past seven years by IBM, has been very beneficial in helping us to keep the backlog in our Parking Department at a minimum.

Inasmuch as these machines are used in concert with the Data Processing Unit in City Hall, we feel that it would serve no useful purpose to solicit bids for other machines such as these.

This contract will cover the one year period beginning July 1, 1976, and ending June 30, 1977, and the cost of the rental and maintenance service embodied within this agreement shall not exceed $5,352.

Very truly yours,

KEESLER H. MONTGOMERY,
Clerk of Court.

The "Constitution"
Affectionately called "Old Ironsides"

The U.S.S. Constitution lies in dock at the United States Naval Shipyard, across the Charles River at Wapping and Chelsea Streets, Charlestown. She was launched in 1797 at Hartt's Shipyard, a short distance from her present resting place. In the next year she helped clear the coast and the West Indies of French privateers. Later engagements with the British in the War of 1812 brought her undying fame and her nickname Old Ironsides. The 44-gun frigate was constructed of well-seasoned live oak and red cedar timbers secured by bolts and copper sheathing made by Paul Revere. Now restored and seaworthy, the historic craft may be boarded daily, 9:30 to 4, free. Uniforms, cannon, and newspaper accounts of the War of 1812 are displayed.

Fire Escapes Inspection Started

The Boston Building Department began an emergency fire escape inspection program recently in the Back Bay, Beacon Hill, and North End in an effort to eliminate "faulty fire escapes" in those areas.

Boston Building Commissioner Francis Gens said November 26 five senior inspectors joined four inspectors in the three areas where many fire escapes had been termed hazardous.

"We've got to step up our efforts quickly and as effectively as we possibly can. However, we have a limited amount of personnel within our department," he said.

Commissioner Gens said he inspected a fourth-floor fire escape at 11 Hancock Street on Beacon Hill, the site of a three-alarm fire recently in which four fire fighters avoided injury when they quickly entered the burning building as a section of the fire escape collapsed under them.

"There is no question that sections of the fire escape were corroded and the weight of the fire fighters attempting to battle the fire caused it to collapse," Commissioner Gens said.

He said that the city hired Metcalf & Eddy, a Boston engineering firm, more than nine months ago to study fire escapes in Boston and that a 50-page report was given to the Building Department about three weeks ago.

"The most significant recommendation enclosed in the report is that we begin to place the burden of maintaining safe fire escapes on the property owners.

"I'm making preparations to place the burden on the landlords. I will require that every two years an affidavit from either an engineering or architectural firm be filed with the Building Department, certifying that a fire escape is safe and complying with the law."

He said it was impossible for the city's 21 inspectors to be responsible for all the fire escapes in the city in addition to their normal duties.

"We have so many old buildings in Boston that, unless we expand our staff of inspectors, it's an impossible task," Commissioner Gens said.

Assistant Building Commissioner James Reid said 1,422 of the city's fire escapes have been examined, and 50 landlords are awaiting action in the Boston Housing Court.

Mr. Reid said the vast majority of the city's fire escapes are in the Back Bay, Beacon Hill, Brighton, and the North End.

Commissioner Gens said that inspectors often cannot enter rooming houses on Beacon Hill during the day because most of the residents are at work.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM AT SCIENCE MUSEUM

The Hayden Planetarium at Boston's Museum of Science ushers in the holiday season with a program highlighting traditional holiday customs and beliefs.

The Christmas presentation relates the use of candles, Yule logs, and evergreens to astronomical events of the winter. It suggests that beleaguered early Christians may have slipped their celebration of Christ's birth into the period when the Romans were marking Saturnalia and the winter solstice so it would go unnoticed. And the program illustrates a comet, a supernova, and a triple conjunction of planets as possibilities for the Star of Bethlehem.

Astronomy is forgotten, however, for the Planetarium's time-hallowed views of St. Nicholas and his reindeer flying across the sky, and of elves at work at the North Pole.

The holiday program will be shown daily and Friday night through January 3.

The legendary preparations for Christmas taking place at the top of the world are also a part of a special children's holiday program, "The Winter Wishing Star." Youngsters are introduced to Blue Bluster, the North Star Fairy, Old Man Moon, and a host of other characters in the winter sky.

The only Planetarium program to which children under five are admitted will be given Friday and Saturday afternoons at 4 o'clock, Dec. 10, 11, 17, and 18. It will also be given at 4, Dec. 23 and at 12 noon, Dec. 26 and 27. Children under five are admitted free. Others pay the regular Planetarium fee of fifty cents (in addition to Museum admission).

WINTER PARKING RULES

Traffic and Parking Commissioner William T. Noonan has announced that this year parking in residential neighborhoods during winter months will be restricted only during declared snow emergencies.

Last year, parking was restricted every night throughout the winter months to odd-numbered sides of the street, regardless of whether or not a snow emergency was declared.

This year, during a snow emergency, parking will be allowed only on the odd-numbered side of the street in residential areas, on a 2-hour basis until the emergency is lifted.

"The decision to restrict parking only during legitimate snow emergencies is an effort to both ensure the health and safety of the city residents, and make certain there will be parking spaces available for residents when there is no snow emergency," Commissioner Noonan explained.

The regulation does not apply where parking is already prohibited on one or both sides of the street along a divided highway (such as Commonwealth Avenue); in areas where angle parking is permitted and in municipal off-street parking areas.

Fines for non-compliance with parking requirements during a snow emergency are $15 in all sections of the city.

Program Director Ms. Carol Marcus said there are only 63 aides available in the city for work in nonprofit agencies, such as Little City Halls, Boston Evening Clinic, St. Anthony's Tabbi-Tot Day Care Center, Readville, and as job developers with Action for Boston Community Development (ABCD).

HAMILTON SMITH EXHIBIT

Hamilton Sutton Smith (1857-1924) was an Afro-American lawyer, dentist, and special investigator for the United States Bureau of Pen-sions. During his long and varied career he was an indefatigable photographer and his photographs now form a unique record of black middle-class life at the turn of the century.

From a collection of over 1,000 glass negatives exposed by Smith, the Museum has selected sixty to reprint in new sepia positives. The negatives were given to the Museum in 1973 by the photographer's daughter, Miss Julia Smith of Cambridge, Mass. Miss Smith is now ninety-two years old.

The World of Hamilton Smith will reopen at the Museum of Afro-American History's temporary gallery at 719 Tremont Street in the South End of Boston. This showing will run through February 28, 1977, and features special activities for children. The exhibit will be open Tuesdays through Fridays, 11 A.M. to 5 P.M., and Sundays, 1 to 5 P.M. It is closed from December 26 to January 3. Admission is 50 cents; children, students, and senior citizens. 25 cents.

Activities for children at the Hamilton Smith exhibit will include gallery talks, workshops, films, and Blackstuff sessions. The gallery talks will explain the exhibit and how it was put together, give background on the collection, and will be adapted to different age levels. The workshops will include photographic outings into the neighborhood, sessions on family history, and historical treasure hunts.

Available for viewing at the gallery will be the Museum's collection of films on Afro-American history and culture. Blackstuff workshops will involve teachers and children in activities which draw from Afro-American lifestyles. Call 445-7400 or 723-8863 to schedule activities for group and for fee information.

The images shown in this exhibit are available for purchase in a variety of sizes.

For more information, call Ann Redding (617) 445-7400 or 723-8863.

UNITED WAY SETS RECORD

The 1976 United Way of Massachusetts Bay has raised a record $17,019,559 in pledges and gifts, General Campaign Chairman David R. Palmer announced recently.

The amount represents a 7 percent increase and a jump of $1,117,000 over last year's total, he said.

Mr. Palmer, a vice president of Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner, and Smith, called the effort "magnificent" and said he was grateful to all who participated in setting the new record.

At the United Way's closing dinner at the Statler Hilton Mr. Palmer said: "More money is needed to ensure that more than a million people will continue to receive vitally needed human care services from the 165 affiliated agencies in the Massachusetts Bay area during the coming year.

"The campaign will be extended until December 17 so the people who have not yet contributed will have an opportunity to do so," Mr. Palmer said.

The 800 volunteers at the report dinner learned the results of the Bicentennial challenge competition between Boston and Philadelphia, to determine which city could raise more new dollars. The contest ended in a draw, so everybody won.

Mr. Palmer accepted a prize from Philadelphia — a Wedgwood Jasper bowl inlaid with the names of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

Philadelphia, in turn, received a replica of the lantern hung in Boston's Old North Church.

BOSTON'S FIRST FIREBOAT

An iron fireboat was placed in the service on January 1, 1873, weighing about 55 tons, measuring 75 feet in length, 15 feet in beam, and 7 feet in depth. The power of the machinery was equal in capacity to four first-class fire engines, and in action would play eight streams at one time.

The machinery was built by the Amoskeag Manufacturing Company, and was of the same design as their steam fire engines. The boat, main engine, machinery, and boiler were built by the Atlantic Works, East Boston. The boat was named the "William M. Flanders," and its total cost was $19,839.95.

MUSICAL PERFORMANCES AT BPL

In conjunction with its NEH Learning Library Program course, "From the Psalm Book to the Symphony," the Boston Public Library announces the following musical performances open to the public. All performances will be from 5:30-7:30 P.M. in the Lecture Hall of the Central Library and will be introduced with a lecture by Dr. John Swan, of Tufts University, the teacher of the course.

On Thursday, December 9, 1976, Emily Romney, soprano, accompanied by Michael Mason on the piano, will sing a representative sampling from the works of Handel and Haydn.

Future performers will be announced at a later date.

For further information contact Paul Wright, Director of the NEH Learning Library Program at the Boston Public Library, 536-5400, ext. 348.

WANT TO KICK THE HABIT?

Want to quit smoking? If you do, the American Lung Association of Boston wants to help you. The local Christmas Seal Association will hold a "Kick the Habit Clinic" for smokers beginning Wednesday, December 8, 7:30 P.M., at the West End House, 105 Allston Street, Allston.

The clinic is open to the public and will consist of seven evening sessions. A fifteen-dollar registration fee will be charged. Participants will receive a five-dollar refund for full attendance upon completion of the program.

According to Lung Association smoking clinician Cindy Cohen, the "Kick the Habit" method is a form of behavior modification. Smokers meet regularly in small groups and work with partners to develop a strong personal motivation for quitting. The result is an understanding and insight into each person's particular smoking habit, and a plan for quitting suited to each individual's needs.

For more information and registration, call the American Lung Association of Boston at 426-8330. Your Lung Association considers it "A Matter of Life and Breath!"

Copies to: All Superintendents, Deputy Superintendents, and Directors.

Field Inspections Unit Procedures

Purpose:

The Field Inspections Unit is established, effective November 15, 1976, as a section of the Bureau of Field Services to insure prompt and efficient police response to calls to the department's emergency number 911 and to insure the effectiveness of police enforcement activities.

Commander:

The unit is headed by a deputy superintendent who reports to the assistant chief of Field Services.

The Field Inspections Unit commander is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the unit and for issuing daily and weekly reports on the effectiveness of police enforcement activities and police response to 911 calls.

Assignment:

The Field Unit comprises six inspectors of the rank of captain. Four captains will be assigned rotating first and last half assignments. Two captains will be assigned days. Each of the captains will be assigned a patrol area which will be rotated for each tour of duty or all may be assigned to one area if the need arises. On starting duty, each captain will sign on by radio to the Communications Computer-Aided Dispatch system. The inspector will operate on the radio channel for the area to which he is assigned. Call signs used will be 10-60 through 10-68.

Once logged on the CAD system, each captain will respond to a maximum number of radio calls each tour of duty.

The captain will choose these calls by taking into consideration those calls where supervision would be most needed.

The captain will notify Operations when he is responding to a call and when he has cleared from a call and this information will also be entered into the CAD system.

When responding to a 911 call, the field inspector will have the following duties:

1. To insure that the call is responded to promptly. Time of arrival since dispatch will be noted.

2. That responding officers use proper procedure consistent with department training policy and rules and regulations. An example would be the proper handcuffing of a prisoner.

3. Interview the citizen who called the police and determine from the citizen the reason police were called and the adequacy of the police response.

4. Fill out a 911 Response Report on the call.

Each field inspector will also make one radio check during each tour of duty on all police units in the patrol area. This will include response cars and wagons, patrol supervisors, detectives, walking and mounted units, and Mobile Operations Patrol units.

Each field inspector will also make at least one visit to each district station in his patrol area to insure that no response unit returns to the station during the tour of duty as provided for in Special Order 76-33. A station inspection report will be filled out.

Each field inspector will be responsible for noting and correcting problems with police services in the area to which he is assigned. The inspector will particularly note conditions that could be construed as indicated failure of police performance, whether due to incompetence or corruption. Prostitution activity, illegal gaming, and illegal parking around restaurants and hotels should be acted upon by directing the appropriate patrol supervisor to eliminate the problem. The chief of Field Services may, as the need arises, direct inspection priorities to other enforcement activities. A condition report noting the inspector's activities in checking these conditions will be turned in for each tour of duty.

CONTRACTS AMENDED

The Mayor has approved the amending of contracts, based on the following information:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT

Purchasing Division

NUTS, BOLTS, ETC.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On October 14, 1976, your Honor approved a permission to make awards to two companies for furnishing nuts, bolts, etc., to the Public Works Department as a result of publicly opened bids of August 10, 1976.

The letter inadvertently read an award of a contract to Electronic Fasteners, Inc., in the amount of $5,588, less 2 percent discount, time of payment.

Authority is requested to amend the original letter dated October 14, 1976, to have the award for Electronic Fasteners, Inc., read as follows:

Order to Electronic Fasteners, Inc., $558.81, less 2 percent discount, time of payment.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK F. CHIN,
Purchasing Agent.

VARIOUS MAINTENANCE EQUIPMENT

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On September 15, 1976, your Honor approved a letter to award contracts to several companies for furnishing custodial and track field maintenance equipment to the Public Facilities Department, resulting from publicly opened bids of August 18, 1976.

The name of one company's contract incorrectly read Barry B. Beach (Independent) Clarke Floor Machine Company.

Permission is therefore requested to amend the original letter to have the company's name correctly read Harry F. Beach (Independent) Clarke Floor Machine Company.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK F. CHIN,
Purchasing Agent.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT

RESEARCH PROJECTS

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your written permission to award a contract, without advertising, to the University of Massachusetts at Boston in an amount not to exceed $25,000.

Under the terms of this contract the university, acting through the Boston Urban Observatory, will undertake comparative research projects that address the problems and meet the needs common to various communities in the city.

The university will provide the services of a staff member who will serve as the Boston Urban Observatory Director. His duties shall include the continuous monitoring of the process of all research projects and action programs as well as the preparation and submission to the city of progress reports on the operation of the Boston Urban Observatory.

As no benefit will accrue to the city by publicly advertising for this unique service, I ask your permission to award this contract for the period July 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD T. SULLIVAN,
Director.

Purchasing Division
MAPS AND GLOBES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Invitation to bid on proposals for furnishing maps and globes, Proposal 238, to the Public Facilities Department, was advertised in the City Record. Subsequently, bids received were publicly opened and read in this office on August 4, 1976.

Rand McNally & Company, the lower responsible and eligible bidder, submitted both the auditor's copy and the purchasing copy of their bid at the Purchasing Division, thus making it irregular.

Authority is requested to reject all bids received at the public opening and award a contract, without further advertising, to Rand McNally & Company who is the only bidder meeting specifications.

Prices will be those submitted at the public opening of bids. The amount of the contract is not to exceed $5,780.63, net, plus shipping charges.

Respectfully yours,
FRANK F. CHIN,
Purchasing Agent.

OFFICE MACHINES RENTAL

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The City Auditor has advised all departments to process requisitions for leasing or rental of office machines through the Purchasing Division. This office has not had the time or personnel to conduct a meaningful survey of the requirements of the various city departments so that all machines could be grouped for publicly advertised bids. This will be accomplished in the near future.

In the interim, it is necessary for the various departments to have copy machines available. This will be accomplished by retaining the equipment presently leased or rented from several companies.

It is now requested that permission be granted me to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and award contracts, without public advertisement, for the leasing or rental of business machines to the various city departments until June 30, 1977, to the following-named companies at amounts not to exceed those indicated below:

IBM Corporation, $140,000, net; Saxon Business Products, Inc., $9,000, net; Spaulding Business Products, $8,000, net; Olivetti Corporation of America, $5,800, net; Pitney Bowes, $5,000, net; Savin Business Machine Corporation, $4,500, net.

In my opinion, the best interests of the city will be served by awarding contracts in the above manner.

Respectfully yours,
FRANK F. CHIN,
Purchasing Agent.

AFFAIRS OF THE ELDERLY HOME CARE SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Your permission is hereby requested to award a contract, without advertising, to Southwest Boston Senior Services, Inc., for the implementation and administration of home care services for the elderly in that area of the City of Boston designated as Area I, in an amount not to exceed $5,000.

Southwest Boston Senior Services, Inc., is one of three officially recognized home care corporations in the City of Boston set up specifically to provide home care services to the elderly. This corporation has been awarded $90,000 by the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare through the Massachusetts Department of Elder Affairs. This contract will satisfy the required cash match by the City of Boston. The funds to be used to cover this contract have been appropriated by the City of Boston and passed by the Boston City Council specifically for this purpose.

This contract will provide compensation for the staff of Southwest Boston Senior Services, Inc., involved in the planning, implementation, and administration of the delivery of homemaker, chore, transportation, and home health aid services to the elderly.

It is therefore requested that the Commission be allowed to dispense with public advertising in awarding this contract.

Sincerely,
MAUREEN SCHAFFNER,
Commissioner.

AUDITING DEPARTMENT

CONSULTING SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I hereby request your written authority to award a contract for professional consulting services on an accounting and management system to Arthur Andersen Co., 100 Federal Street, Boston, Mass., and to dispense with advertising for bids in connection with the award of this contract. The contract will be in an amount not to exceed $200,000, for a period from August 1, 1976 to June 30, 1977. The City of Boston Community Development Block Grant will be the source of funds for this contract.

Under the terms of the contract, Arthur Andersen & Co. will continue development of the financial management system for the city's Community Development Block Grant. This includes installation of an automated accounting-based information system. The limits on compensation for a specified product which were in effect during the prior phase of this project will continue in effect during this contract.

Arthur Andersen & Co. was originally selected as contractor for this project after extensive discussions with several other nationally recognized accounting firms. In addition, the contractor has performed excellently on earlier phases of the project. In view of this, as well as the professional nature of the services involved, advertising for bids would be inappropriate.

Respectfully yours,
WALTER W. MERRILL,
City Auditor.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT RAZING OF BUILDINGS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in a unsafe and dangerous condition. Notice have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. These buildings are a menace to the neighborhood. The locations follow: 300, 306-308, 316, 322, 330, and 336 Hyde Park Avenue, Ward 19. Emergency bids placed in bid box; one copy to Auditing Department. Bid box opened by Mr. Vey office. These buildings, owned by the City of Boston, are unsafe and dangerous buildings and a hazard to the general public.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 802, Acts of 1972, as amended, particularly section 124 thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these various premises and to raze the buildings or structures.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the entire lot of buildings or structures, but to break down their bids to show the charge against each separate address. This breakdown is necessary for late departmental use in billing demolition cost incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, awarded to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

John J. Duane Wrecking, $62,900; Mysti Wrecking Company, $47,200; Napoli Wrecking Company, $78,731; James G. Grant Company, $39,443; Tri Construction Company, $82,500.

James G. Grant Company, Inc., 2 Wolcott Street, Readville, Mass., has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This comany is thoroughly familiar with this work, carries all necessary insurance, and it has one satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Bids for the individual buildings or structures were not requested because it would be a practical, physical impossibility or several different contractors to conduct efficient contracting operations simultaneously in individual buildings or structures. Under such conditions, there would be much mutual interference and each contractor would be exposed to severe hazards not under his control, by the operations of adjacent contractors. I also believe that the aggregate cost of individual bids would be much higher than the cost of one bid for the total buildings or structures to be demolished, and that handling the buildings or structures as one unit results in one administrative cost to the city rather than what would result from handling the individual buildings or structures as separate bids and contracts. Unit handling results, however, in this case in a contract price of over $2,000, or over the statutory limitations upon awards that can be made without advertising, unless your Honor approves the transaction.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding, without advertising, as required in the City Charter, of a contract in the sum of $39,443, to the James G. Grant Co., Inc., 28 Wolcott Street, Readville, Mass.

Very truly yours,
RICHARD L. GRANARA, JR.,
For Building Commissioner.

$7,150; The Duane Corporation, $6,800; Mystic Building Wrecking, $6,275.

John J. Duane, Co., Inc., 600 Southern Artery, Quincy, Mass., has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

IV. LETTERS OF THANKS

"September 15, 1976.

DEAR COMMISSIONER PAUL:

On July 5, 1976, at about 2:30 P.M. my wife Bernadette suffered a fatal heart attack at our home. I placed a call for help and in a matter of five or six minutes Ladder 19 was at my door. My wife was dead before they arrived. There was nothing they could do but their kindness and compassion was something I shall never forget.

I would like to convey to Ladder 19 my personal thanks for their efforts and I believe they should be commended for their promptness and for the consideration they showed towards me.

God bless and protect them in these perilous times.

Sincerely,

GEORGE F. CADIGAN,
South Boston, Mass."

"November 17, 1976.

DEAR CHIEF PAUL:

On Wednesday, November 10, 1976, there was a fire at 55 Union Street, wherein our office sustained serious damage and we were required to vacate during that fire. This letter is simply written for two purposes.

First, to thank the fire company that responded to that call and for their quick and professional work in containing the fire and minimizing the damage to the property.

Second, during the course of the fire, the extent of which was unknown to occupants of the building and to the fire department, I overheard one fireman say that no one really gives a damn whether firemen live or die. I believe that response is a result of the recent newspaper article on the fireman who died in the Boston fire not too long ago. I do not believe that is the sentiment of the general public. In response to that fireman's comment and to show that people really do care, enclosed please find a $100 check, which we ask you to make payable to any Boston Fireman's fund the Chief of the responding station designates.

Thank you again.

Very truly yours,

JORDAN L. RING,
Ring & Rudnick,
Counsellors at Law,
55 Union St., Boston, Mass."

The "Constitution"
Affectionately called "Old Ironsides"

The U.S.S. Constitution lies in dock at the United States Naval Shipyard, across the Charles River at Wapping and Chelsea Streets, Charlestown. She was launched in 1797 at Hartt's Shipyard, a short distance from her present resting place. In the next year she helped clear the coast and the West Indies of French privateers. Later engagements with the British in the War of 1812 brought her undying fame and her nickname Old Ironsides. The 44-gun frigate was constructed of well-seasoned live oak and red cedar timbers secured by bolts and copper sheathing made by Paul Revere. Now restored and seaworthy, the historic craft may be boarded daily, 9:30 to 4, free. Uniforms, cannon, and newspaper accounts of the War of 1812 are displayed.

Mayor Unveils Tax Relief Plan

Mayor Kevin White has launched a major legislative effort to bring property tax relief to homeowners and fiscal stability to Boston.

He proposed a thirty-four-bill legislative package with the potential to generate more than $80 million in increased revenues for Boston.

The two largest revenue-generating proposals call for allowing cities and towns to impose a 1 percent tax on employers' payrolls, which will generate approximately $39 million for Boston; and the state takeover of the cost of Suffolk County government, which cost Boston $27 million in fiscal Year 1977.

The bulk of Mayor White's legislation falls into three categories and effects three major goals.

First, ten proposals seek to increase the ability of cities and towns to collect revenues owed them. Second, thirteen proposals seek state recognition of its responsibility to pay for state-mandated programs. Finally, seven proposals seek to tap new revenue sources for the cities and towns.

A major proposal is for a constitutional amendment prohibiting the state from imposing any new programs on the cities and towns without providing the necessary funds to pay for those programs.

Proposals for new sources of revenue for the cities and towns include resubmission of a bill to tax revenue-producing properties of the Massachusetts Port Authority, a move which would generate $2.5 million for the City of Boston.

Additional measures include the removal of tax-exempt status from college dormitories and the imposition of an excise tax on university students of $25 per full-time student and $10 per part-time student per quarter.

The entire legislative package, which was filed with the Legislature, is listed below by category.

I. Revenue Collection Package

Proposals to increase capacity of cities and towns to collect revenues owed them.

It is proposed:

- That Registrar of Motor Vehicles refuse to register any vehicle about which he has received notice of failure to pay excise taxes or parking fines.

($4 million the first year and $25 million every year thereafter.)

- That the proceeds of fire insurance be first applied to payment of delinquent property taxes.

($100,000 estimated.)

- That the maximum parking fine be increased from $15 to $50.

($500,000 estimated.)

- That additional fines be imposed on motorists who fail to pay parking fines within twenty-one-day limit set by law.

($750,000 estimated.)

- That municipalities be allowed to raise the interest rate on delinquent property tax payments to reflect prevailing money market conditions.

($1 million estimated.)

- That charges incurred in collecting overdue property taxes be increased.

($250,000 estimated.)

- That procedural remedies for non-payment of property taxes be improved.

($250,000 estimated.)

- That the charge for Certificate of Municipal Lien be increased.

($250,000 estimated.)

- That Land Court procedures for acquiring low-value property be simplified.

- That the period of time for which goods on personal property may be held for delinquent payments be lengthened from seven to thirty days.

II. State Fiscal Responsibility Package

These proposals recognize the responsibility of the Commonwealth to pay for certain state-mandated costs. They propose:

- That state be prevented from imposing new programs on the

- cities and towns without also providing funding for same.
 - That the state reimburse cities and towns which have a disproportionate share of tax-exempt property.
 - That the state reimburse cities and towns with disproportionate number of residents qualifying for property tax clause abatements. (Estimated $3.5 million in additional revenue.)
 - That state assume the cost of Suffolk County government. ($27 million.)
 - That state assume cost of tuberculosis care. ($93,000.)
 - That state assume cost of Veterans' Benefits. ($4 million.)
 - That state reimburse costs of desegregation plans in public schools.
 - That the chapter 70, state-aid formula be revised.
 - That the MBTA deficit formula be revised. ($1.5 million.)
 - That the federal revenue sharing formula within Massachusetts be revised to provide a separate allocation for Suffolk County. ($1.5 to $2 million.)
 - That the municipal revenue sharing formula for state aid be adopted.
 - That state resume payment of hospital costs for general relief recipients. ($5 million.)
 - That Department of Public Utilities regulate price and distribution of steam.
- III. Revenue Diversification Package
- Proposals allowing cities and towns to tap new sources of revenue.
- Authorize cities and towns to impose a 1 percent tax on employers' payrolls. ($39 million.)
 - Authorize Boston to levy property taxes on revenue-producing properties of the Massachusetts Port Authority. ($2 million.)

- Authorize cities and towns to impose an excise tax on parking spaces. ($500,000 to $750,000 estimated.)
 - Increase the present 5.7 percent hotel-motel tax to 7 percent, with an additional 1.3 percent earmarked for the city or town in which the levy was collected. ($550,000 annually.)
 - Allow cities and towns to impose an excise on vehicles belonging to students not registered in the Commonwealth.
 - Allow cities and towns to impose an excise tax on students attending institutions of higher education, at a rate of $25 per full-time student and $10 per part-time student per quarter. ($11.4 million.)
 - Remove tax-exempt status from college dormitories.
- IV. Miscellaneous Proposals
- To raise the amount beyond which public bidding and contracts are required from $2,000 to $5,000.
 - To amend Conflict of Interest Law to allow municipal employees to purchase tax-foreclosed properties at public auction, a move to encourage

- city employees to live in the city.
- To exempt administrative assistants in executive offices from Civil Service provisions, as is the case with city managers.
- To allow securities held by retirement boards to be held in nominee names.

A blind woman led newsmen through the Boston subway system on November 29, in a dramatic demonstration of the nation's first rapid transit map for the blind.

Ms. Virginia Linhart, a member of the staff of the Massachusetts Commission for the Blind, walked down into the nation's first subway station, built in 1897 at Park Street and the Boston Common. She checked her route by tracing a finger along the embossed track of the plastic map. Then she got onto a "Red Line" train and rode one stop to Boston's subway shopping center, the Washington station.

The Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority is the only public transit agency in the nation to provide the blind with such a map.

MBTA Chairman Robert R. Kiley, in a press conference just before the demonstration, said "This map reflects our commitment to make it easier and more convenient for persons to use the MBTA. The blind have long had the privilege of riding free on the MBTA. This new plastic braille map is available at the Park Street station information booth on the Green Line level. The map will be distributed directly to the blind, upon request, through the Massachusetts Commission for the Blind, which we are pleased to announce has sponsored the $4,500 cost of the project."

Ms. Marie A. Matava, the Massachusetts Commissioner for the Blind, explained in the press conference at her 110 Tremont Street office that "There are about 14,500 persons in this state who are legally blind and about half of them live in the seventy-nine cities and towns of the MBTA district. They cannot drive and must rely on public transit. This new map will make it easier for them to move around Boston comfortably and independently, which is very important psychologically for anyone who has lost the basic ability of sight."

Joseph Gilligan, of Gilligan Tackles, Inc., of West Newton, Mass., the manufacturer, said the 11- by 11½-inch map, made of two sheets of a vinyl plastic which are chemically bonded, is "the first of its kind and the culmination of five years of work."

"There's a trade secret in the plastic," said Mr. Gilligan, "but the point is that the map is crush resistant and washable. It is embossed when cold, so that there is no distortion due to heat. The braille dots and the dual tracks of the rail lines are embossed to a height of 23 millimeters, which makes the braille very distinct. It also can be shipped through the mail easily. A lot of braille items shipped coast-to-coast arrive with no braille because it has been crushed in shipping."

"The right-hand, top corner is notched so that the blind person can know he/she has the map right side up."

"It is designed for those who have partial vision as well as those who are totally blind. Consequently, for low-sighted persons, it has a tinted background to minimize glare, and the MBTA's Red, Orange, Green, and Blue lines are printed in color."

Mr. Gilligan explained that the embossed dual track of each line is ⅜ of an inch wide so that it may be traced easily by a finger. A braille dot set to one side marks the eighty-three stations on the trolley and subway system. Near the dot is a braille station code number for the twenty-four Red Line stations, the fifteen Orange Line stations, the thirty-two Green Line stations, and the twelve Blue Line stations.

There is one page of instructions in large type for the low-sighted, and four pages of instructions in braille for those who are totally blind or who cannot read large type.

(The legal definition of blindness is no better than 20/200 in the better eye, with correction.)

The four pages of braille instructions include a list of stations by alphabet and by number.

Mr. Gilligan, who first produced a braille map on paper and plastic for the MBTA two years ago, said this second edition improved on the 1974 product by being all plastic, permanently bonded, harder to crush, and embossed (raised), rather than stamped.

"Most people," he said, "play with it at home and memorize it, although you will occasionally see a blind person using it on the subway to check an unfamiliar route."

"The blind use this map the way sighted people use road maps, to check themselves and to orient themselves. Orientation is a heck of a big part of a blind person's mobility."

The map was designed by a sculptor, Robert Amendola, who works with the blind at the Carroll Rehabilitation Center in Newton, Mass.

The map will be distributed, upon request, to Ms. Pauline Clancy of the Massachusetts Commission for the Blind. She may be contacted by phone at 727-5568, or by mail at 110 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. 02108.

HEALTH FACILITIES DIRECTORY

A 525-page directory of more than 2,400 health facilities throughout Massachusetts has been published and was released on November 24, by United Community Planning Corporation, the nonprofit human services planning and research organization for the United Way of Massachusetts Bay area, including Boston.

Compiled from data collected by the Office of Health Statistics, Massachusetts Department of Public Health, the directory is the only one of its kind in Massachusetts and lists residential care facilities, outpatient clinics, community clinics, homemaker-home health agencies, nursing and rest homes, and hospital inpatient services.

Each facility listing includes the address, phone number, fees, admission restrictions and, where appropriate, services provided. The directory also has three alphabetical indexes — one by city or town, one by facility, and one by problem area or type of service.

The directory is a standard reference for people who need information about health facilities, as well as for librarians, health professionals, court personnel, the clergy, social workers, and school counselors.

Copies may be ordered at an at-cost price of $9.75 (prepaid) or $10.75 (when billed) from United Community Planning Corporation, 14 Somerset Street.

SUBWAY POST OFFICE

A subway post office opened recently, at Park Street for the 1976 Christmas season. Representatives of the Boston Post Office and officials of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority were on hand for the opening. Because of major construction at Washington Street under, a subway unit will not be operated there this year.

Postmaster Philip L. Sullivan stated that the office will be open daily for the sale of stamps from 7 A.M. to 6 P.M., Monday through Friday; and from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M., on Saturdays, December 4 and 11.

Boston is the only city in the world to establish a subway post office to assist commuters on public transportation. They have been very popular since their inauguration several years ago with the cooperation of the MBTA.

Two Christmas stamps have been issued for the 1976 holiday season. The first is John Singleton Copley's "The Nativity," which was painted in 1776. The painting was missing for over 100 years until it appeared at a London auction in 1971. It now hangs in the Museum of Fine Arts.

The second is a lithograph from the Museum of the City of New York, entitled "Winter Pastime," by Nathaniel Currier. It depicts an ice-skating scene.

RENT BOARD APPROVES RENT INCREASE

Due to increased costs of providing rental housing in the city, the Boston Rent Board, on November 24, approved the first general rent adjustment in four years.

Effective January 1, 1977, Boston tenants in rent-controlled apartments will face an average rent increase of 11 percent to cover the increased taxes, water, sewer, and insurance costs.

Upon the recommendation of Mayor Kevin White, however, the Rent Board voted to exempt elderly tenants who meet certain income requirements from payment of 50 percent of the rent increase.

The rent increases will be computed individually by the Rent Board based on an average of water, sewer, insurance costs, and the exact tax bill for each apartment building.

The rent increases will reflect each apartment's share of those costs and will range from approximately 7 to 13 percent.

The existence of verified housing code violations are grounds for reduction or elimination of the rent increase until the necessary repairs have been made.

Landlords had favored an across-the-board rent increase of up to 25 percent.

"After months of research and deliberation to determine the most equitable way of treating landlords and tenants, we reached a difficult but, I think, fair decision," said Ellen Gordon, chairman of the Boston Rent Board.

"Our research indicated that most landlords need some relief and that small landlords are especially hard-pressed to meet rising costs," Ms. Gordon said.

"Mayor White expressed serious concern for tenants, especially those elderly living on limited, fixed incomes and urged us to seek a means of sheltering those needy elderly from a portion of the increase.

"In a public hearing last September, tenants themselves expressed similar concerns. They cautioned us against an across-the-board rent increase, fearing it would not reflect the real costs of individual landlords and result in inequities across the city. Tenants also felt it unfair to grant rent increases in those apartments that had certified code violations outstanding.

"We feel the decision adequately reflects all of those concerned," Ms. Gordon concluded.

Boston landlords and tenants were notified by mail, within a week, of the particulars of the Rent Board's decision. Landlords were required to inform tenants in writing of the impending rent increase no later than December 1.

The Boston Rent Board will notify tenants and landlords of the exact amount of individual rent increases during the last week in December.

Elderly tenants who wish to take advantage of the 50 percent exemption must meet the following eligibility requirements.

— They must be sixty-five years-of-age or older.

— They must live in rent-controlled apartments.

— If living alone, their income cannot exceed $7,200 per year.

— If living with one other person, their combined incomes cannot exceed $8,650 per year.

— An additional $300 may be added for each additional household member.

Elderly tenants who meet these requirements must file for the exemption during the month of January at their local Little City Hall, or at the Boston Rent Control Offices at 18 Tremont Street in downtown Boston. Proof of age, residency, and income will be required.

All elderly tenants will be required to pay the full increase in the month of January. If their exemption is subsequently approved, it will be credited to their next month's rent.

AN INCENTIVE TO "KICK THE HABIT"!

If recent news reports of celebrities who have quit smoking have encouraged you to "kick the habit," but you can't afford the expensive program that helped them to quit — take heart. Your Lung Association, the Christmas seal people, offers you an alternative that is far less expensive and every bit as effective.

The American Lung Association of Boston is conducting a "Kick the Habit Clinic" for the smoking public every Tuesday evening, at 7:30 p.m., at the West End House, 105 Allston Street, in Allston. The clinic is open to the public and will consist of six evening sessions. A fifteen dollar registration fee to cover cost of materials will be charged.

LET'S LIGHT UP!

Time is running out for Boston's 1976 Christmas Festival. Parks and Recreation Commissioner Peter Meade reminds you that your support is urgently needed to make this year's festival a reality. To date, funds received by the Harbor National Bank amount to $2,025.50.

Commissioner Meade thanks radio station WHDH for their efforts to keep alive this holiday tradition by establishing its own fund at the First National Bank of Boston.

ANOTHER LINCOLN GEM

A man who had invented a mousetrap believed his fortune would be made if he could get President Lincoln to endorse it. After a long, persistent effort, he was finally given an audience with the President and received the following recommendation: "For the sort of people who want this sort of thing this is the sort of thing that that sort of people will want."

AMVETS HONOR PEARL HARBOR VICTIMS

Impressive ceremonies were held at Faneuil Hall December 5. The Massachusetts AMVETS honored those who died at Pearl Harbor. An honor guard of representatives of the state's AMVET posts lit candles and placed them on a cross.

December 7, 1941, 300 Japanese planes attacked 86 U.S. ships locked at the harbor, killing over 2,000 men and plunging the United States into WW II.

The cross was fashioned by Deputy Provost Marshal Frenchie Provencher of AMVETS District 1, Beverly. It will be kept as a memorial by the AMVETS.

BOSTON BALLET PRESENTATION

Mrs. Kitty Dukakis, wife of the governor, has accepted the chairmanship of the American Lung Association of Massachusetts' benefit performance of "The Nutcracker." The traditional holiday production by the Boston Ballet Company and the Boston Symphony for the "Christmas Seal People" will be held on Monday evening, December 20, at the Boston Music Hall theater at 7:30 P.M. The popular musical spectacular features 150 dancers, singers, and actors live on stage, bringing to life the Christmas fantasy of the "Nutcracker Prince," "The Land of Sweets," and a Christmas tree that grows before your eyes.

Those who purchase the special Sponsor's tickets will attend a "Christmas Gala" following the performance. Miss U.S.A., Barbara Peterson, the Christmas Seal Ambassador, is hostess for a special tribute to maestro Arthur Fiedler. Mr. Fiedler will celebrate his 82nd birthday at the "Christmas Gala," and will cut a giant birthday cake. A number of special guests are expected to be on hand for the event.

Tickets may be obtained by calling the American Lung Association of Massachusetts at 969-1090.

LET'S KEEP AMERICA CLEAN

A LOBSTER "HANG-UP"

While driving to work one morning last week I happened to notice an exceptionally unique weather vane in the shape of a huge golden lobster perched atop the James Hook & Co. building, located at the corner of Atlantic and Northern Avenues here in Boston.

I telephoned Jim Hook, the popular and genial owner of one of the largest wholesale and retail lobster businesses in New England since 1937, regarding this masterpiece. He proudly and enthusiastically gave me the following information:

The "lobster" was carved from eastern pine by craftsman Paul Whalen of Quincy, and converted as a weather vane by J. J. Browne of Duxbury. It runs 6 feet, 6 inches from antenna tip to tail and measures 3½ feet from ripper claw to crusher and weighs 80 pounds. Herbert Sears of Braintree gold-leafed the lobster, and the gold-leafing itself cost $185.

Paul Whalen is an alumnus of the Museum of Fine Arts School, Boston.

The elderly Mr. Sears works from a wheelchair as a result of a fall fifty-four years ago.

Jerry Browne presently operates a weather vane-flagpole shop in Hanover, Mass.

This "will-be-famous" weather vane can be viewed from Atlantic Avenue, a five-minute walk from the South Station. I predict it will be on a "must see" list for visitors. Lobster lovers would do well to visit Hook's establishment and view the massive display of crustaceans wallowing in their mini-waterfalls.

WINTER PARKING RULES

Correction

Traffic and Parking Commissioner William T. Noonan has announced that this year parking in residential neighborhoods during winter months will be restricted only during declared snow emergencies.

Last year, parking was restricted every night throughout the winter months to odd-numbered sides of the street, regardless of whether or not a snow emergency was declared.

This year, during a snow emergency, parking will be allowed only on the even-numbered side of the street in residential areas, on a 24-hour basis until the emergency is lifted.

"The decision to restrict parking only during legitimate snow emergencies is an effort to both ensure the health and safety of the city's residents, and make certain there will be parking spaces available for residents when there is no snow emergency," Commissioner Noonan explained.

The regulation does not apply where parking is already prohibited on one or both sides of the street; along a divided highway (such as Commonwealth Avenue); in areas where angle parking is permitted; and in municipal off-street parking areas.

Fines for non-compliance with parking requirements during a snow emergency are $15 in all sections of the city.

In view of the fact that the Roslindale Teen Center is the sole provider within the community of the services proposed, I recommend that a contractual relationship between the city and the Southwest Boston Community Services, Inc., d/b/a Roslindale Teen Center, be established at this time. Therefore, for the reason cited above, it is my view that public advertising would not serve any useful or practical purpose.

Sincerely,

E. OWEN DONNELLY,

LEASING CERTAIN PREMISES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I hereby request your permission to dispense with bidding and to award a contract in an amount not to exceed $3,042, to Saul Weinstein, d/b/a Mel's Realty Trust, located at 2401 Washington Street, Boston, Mass. Payment for this contract shall be made from the Community Development Block Grant.

In the interest of continuity, I recommend that the contractual relationship between the city and Saul Weinstein, d/b/a Mel's Realty Trust, be maintained.

E. OWEN DONNELLY,
Director.

CONTRACTS AMENDED

The Mayor has approved the amending of contracts, based on the following information:

AFFAIRS OF THE ELDERLY REPAIRS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I am writing in reference to a letter dated December 12, 1975, from then Commissioner Taylor B. Wagenseil requesting your permission to award a contract, without advertising, to International Harvester Company, for engine repairs and the installation of a new transmission in the elderly mobile market bus, in an amount not to exceed $2,500, and approved by you on January 2, 1976. Due to an underestimation of the cost of the transmission, your permission is hereby requested to amend the contract price to read not to exceed $2,600.

Sincerely,
MAUREEN SCHAFNER,
Commissioner.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston, I request your written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement and to award to Thompson Education Center, the following amendments to a contract for participation in the development of educational programs at Thompson Island:

Change termination date from June 30, 1976, to December 31, 1976.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this contract and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the Board of Superintendents, and has been approved by the School Committee, that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

Yours truly,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

On October 8, 1975, this department awarded a contract approved by your Honor, without public advertising, to Allan W. Drachman, during the period September 1, 1975, through June 30, 1976, at a cost not to exceed $10,000.

Your authorization is requested to amend this contract to provide for services to be paid at the rate of $50 per hour. The cost of the contract, as amended, shall not exceed $20,562.71.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed, it is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

PUPIL TRANSPORTATION

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I hereby request your permission to amend the letter approved by you on August 13, 1975, awarding a contract to Lexington Taxi Company, Inc., for furnishing transportation by motor carriage within the City of Boston for school-age children with special needs and other school-age children for Boston public schools, subsequent to public advertising.

The amount of the contract for the first year (1975-1976) was $1,750,000. The amount for the second year (1976-1977) will be at least $1,000,000.

Contract for Lexington Taxi Company, Inc., increase by $1,000,000.

Very truly yours,
LEO J. BURKE,
Business Manager.

TRUCKING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On July 1, 1976, you approved of my action in awarding a contract to the C. Walsh, Inc., 100 Southampton Street, Boston, Mass., the lowest responsible bidder, to provide trucking services for the period July 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, at an estimated cost of $100,000.

At the time of the awarding of this contract it was not expected that there would be an excessive amount of moving as was necessary the previous year. However, a vast amount of moving was required to implement Phase IIA of Judge Garrity's plan to desegregate schools as it involved relocating and restructuring grades in various schools in the City of Boston. To accomplish this work and have the schools ready for September, 1976, it was necessary to assign more trucks and services. Also, it was necessary to relocate the main administration offices of the Boston School Department from 15 Beacon Street and 45 Myrtle Street to 26 Court Street. In addition to this massive move, it was necessary to relocate all furniture and equipment from the Roslindale High School to other schools throughout the city.

In order that the Boston School Department may continue to provide the trucking services necessary to continue the relocation of furniture and equipment, I request your approval of my action in amending the present contract from the estimated cost of $100,000, to an estimated cost of $220,000, for trucking services for the period of July 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, with the C. Walsh, Inc.

Respectfully submitted,
ANTHONY L. GALEOTA,
Chief Structural Engineer.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES COMMISSION TASC-J FUNDS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

In order to properly administer and expend approved Treatment Alternatives to Street Crime (TASC-J) funds under the Youth Activities Commission's contract with Y.M.C.A. Services Corporation, I should like to request your approval to extend the effective dates of our contract with Y.M.C.A. Services Corporation, which was approved by you in a letter of August 2, 1974, and reaffirmed in several subsequent letters.

This extension would change the effective dates of the contract which originally were from August 1, 1974, through July 31, 1975, and most recently amended to August 1, 1974, through October 31, 1976, to the new date of August 1, 1974, through December 31, 1976.

This change in no way affects the cost or scope of work as originally defined under the contract.

Your approval of this action is herein requested.

Sincerely yours,
DONALD B. MANSON,
Executive Director.

Engine Company 18 responded to Box 3426, three alarms, on November 7, 1976, for a fire in dwellings at 38 and 40 Oakwood Street, Dorchester. On arrival heavy smoke and fire were showing, and they were informed a baby was trapped on the second floor. Efforts to reach her were unsuccessful.

Fire Fighter James P. Manning of Engine Company 18 put on a Scott air mask and without hesitation went to the second floor, crawled on his hands and knees through the apartment which was heavily charged with heat and smoke, and the fire was spreading rapidly.

He entered a bedroom off the hallway and found the baby. He removed his mask and started mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. When he reached the hallway he passed the child to another fire fighter who continued the first aid and brought her to a BCH ambulance which took her to the Carney Hospital.

The Fire Commissioner is pleased to highly commend Fire Fighter Manning who was exposed to extreme personal danger in carrying out this rescue. His case is referred to the Board of Merit for further consideration.

Merry Christmas - Happy New Year

City Record

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE. MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

HON. KEVIN H. WHITE. MAYOR OF BOSTON

LOUISE DAY HICKS
PRESIDENT. CITY COUNCIL

OLD STATE HOUSE

VOL. 68

MONDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1976

NO. 51

Mass. Mayors Deny Cities Mismanaged

Remarks of Mayor Kevin H. White at Mayor's Convention on December 8, 1976.

I am grateful for this opportunity to appear with my counterparts from across the state. The fiscal ills we suffer are common to us all, and we will all have to share in their solution.

What we fear is that the discussion about our fiscal problems is degenerating into name-calling and finger-pointing. Progress, however, will depend not on accusations, but on clear thinking and decisive action.

Our most critical task today is to contribute to public understanding about the real sources of the fiscal crisis of the Commonwealth, and what choices mayors have in combatting it.

Mayors operate under enormous constraints in conducting the financial affairs of cities. The largest constraint is that the rules of the fiscal game are written in the State House:

- The state creates the tax system we all have to live by.

- The state sets the annual level of local aid.

- Finally, the state establishes programs the cities and towns have to pay for.

We are in difficulty in all three of these areas:

- We have one of the most archaic and regressive tax systems in the nation.

- Local aid has been slashed drastically in the last three years.

- State-mandated programs are driving our local property tax rates through the ceiling.

The fact of state responsibility has two important consequences:

First, cities and towns have very limited options when fiscal catastrophe strikes. We can cut services, and we can raise the property tax. That's about all. Many of us have done both and are still in trouble.

TO YOU FROM US

The staff of the City Record wishes to extend to all our patrons best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. To echo our sentiments in a more personal way, we feel an old-fashioned "thank you" is appropriate at this time.

We realize more than ever how important it is to have the friendship and confidence of all our City Record readers.

May the coming year bring peace, health, and happiness to you and your loved ones.

Second, no solution to our fiscal problems can be devised without state action. The state has the authority, the flexibility, and the means that cities simply don't have.

We have to do our part. Good management and cost control must be part of any program of fiscal reform — but they are not cure-alls. Anyone who thinks so is unaware of the real dimensions of our problems.

Let's look at the last four years in Boston:

- We've reduced spending. The city budget is down $24.5 million this year alone.

- We've eliminated jobs — over 3,000 since 1972.

- Our tax rate has gone up in four years — 28.5 percent. But the cost of everything else — wages, goods and services — has gone up 36 percent in the same period.

A Boston Herald columnist stated on September 21, that "White has managed, over the last four years, to actually decrease the level of real spending in the city — and he may well be one of the few big city mayors to do it."

It's not a perfect record — but I'll stand on it — and put it next to that of any other mayor or governor, without embarrassment.

Mass. Mayors . . .

No, the fiscal problems of the cities and towns here today are basic. They will not be solved by band-aid cures and hypocritical calls for "good management." A real solution has to be basic as well. It will come when we have better management — yes — but also when we get off the property tax, obtain a fair share of local aid, and are freed of the costs of state-mandated programs as well.

FACT SHEET

BOSTON'S FISCAL SITUATION

CITY SPENDING

What has Boston done to cut costs in the last four years?

Essentially, three things: cut programs; reduced spending; eliminated jobs.

It should be added that we did these things in a time of recession, inflation, and economic hardship.

How much has been cut this year?

We cut $24.5 million from the city's 1977 operating budget.

Some specific examples:

We cut $5 million from the Police Department; $3 million from Health and Hospitals; $2 million from Veterans' Services; and $8 million from the city Reserve Fund.

How many jobs have been eliminated?

3,255 positions have been eliminated from the payroll since 1972.

But isn't Boston spending more money every year?

No. In fact, in the last several years we've spent less and less.

Quote from Warren Brookes' recent analysis of city spending in the Herald:

"White has managed, over the past four years, to actually decrease the level of real spending in the city — and he may well be one of the few big city mayors to do this." (9/23/76)

"The city's non-education services have risen at a rate less than half that of inflation. . . . White has managed to hold down city spending, except for the schools. To a surprising degree, in fact, he has reduced it — in real terms — by more than $52 million." (9/23/76)

How does Boston's spending compare with other cities?

We are spending less money than the average. In real terms, we've reduced spending by 13 percent in a period when total state and local spending in the United States actually increased almost 18 percent. (Federal spending rose 23 percent.)

But isn't the recent huge tax rate increase a sign of over-spending?

No. While the tax rate has gone up 28.5 percent, the cost of everything the city buys — wages, services, goods — has gone up 36 percent. Thus, in real terms, the property tax is now lower than it was in 1972.

STATE AID

The state has solved its financial problems (to some extent). Why can't cities and towns solve theirs?

The state has solved some of its problems at our expense.

Three years ago, the state paid out 37 percent of its revenues to cities and towns. Now it's down to 27 percent.

In 1977 the cities and towns are getting less from the state than they've gotten in the last sixteen years.

Meanwhile, state tax revenues have increased over $700 million in the last three years.

What does this mean for Boston specifically?

Boston contributes 22 percent of all state tax revenues.

Boston gets back 4.2 percent in state aid. (Last year we got 5.1 percent.)

If we kept what we contributed to the state, we would hardly need a property tax.

If the state had given us the same amount this year that they gave us last year (5.1 percent), we could have knocked $20 off the tax increase.

State aid to Boston has decreased by 23 percent in the last three years.

Last year the state cut its general relief budget and stopped reimbursing the city for indigent patients at Boston City Hospital. BCH is a charitable hospital and is obligated to accept these patients. This year general relief patients cost the City of Boston $21 million.

STATE CONTROLS

What are some of the problems with raising local revenues in Massachusetts?

— The state forces Boston and other municipalities to rely on the property tax as a major source of revenue.

Boston's reliance on the property tax is the greatest of any large American city — 60 percent. Los Angeles, San Francisco, and New York derive less than 30 percent of their revenues from the property tax.

— The per capita property tax levy in Boston is one of the highest in the nation.

— Eleven percent of the city residents' average income is paid in property taxes, again one of the highest in the nation (as compared with 5 percent in thirty of the largest cities in the country).

— Forty percent of the city's property, mostly in the hands of private citizens and businesses, is paying 100 percent of the city's total property tax bills.

hat are some of the state requirements concerning the property tax?

—The state mandates tax-exempt property in the city. Nearly 60 percent of the city's property is tax-exempt.

—The state is the largest tax-exempt landowner in the city, with 3 percent of the city's total property.

—State and federal agencies, hospitals, universities, museums, etc., all serve constituencies beyond the city. Since they pay nothing for city services, the state forces Boston residents to subsidize amenities for non-residents.

—Sixty-one percent of the patients admitted to Boston's hospitals live outside the city.

—Less than 1 percent of the freshmen students in Boston's private colleges and universities come from the city high schools.

1976 CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL UNDER WAY

Parks and Recreation Commissioner Peter Meade invites the community to visit the 1976 Christmas Festival on Boston Common.

This year's festival is truly a product of the people, who responded so generously to the Commissioner's appeal for public contributions.

Featured attractions of the festival are the city's official Christmas tree, and a variety of smaller evergreens, all brightly lit for the holidays, surrounding the traditional creche.

Donations are still being accepted to help with the costs of the festival. Contributions may be sent to: Christmas Festival Fund, Harbor National Bank, 57 Franklin Street, Boston, Mass. 02110.

Bostonians and others who have made the 1976 festival a reality, bring the family to the Common and enjoy the spirit of an old-fashioned Boston Christmas!

UPHAMS CORNER: NEW IMAGE PLANNED

Seventy-five Uphams Corner businessmen met recently with Vice-Mayor Edward T. Sullivan and other city officials in St. Mary's Church, Uphams Corner, Dorchester, to voice their immediate concerns for the business district.

The meeting, the third held in recent weeks, is part of Mayor White's Neighborhood Business District Program designed to make the city administration more responsive to the needs of local merchants.

"The Mayor realized some time ago that a residential area is only as vital as its local business district," Mr. Sullivan said. "The administration's goal, therefore, is to work to attract a greater volume of business to neighborhood shopping areas, and to provide merchants with capital improvements, better city services, and any technical expertise they need for self-improvement."

Many Uphams Corner merchants have already taken advantage of the city's project RESTORE and have received 20 percent rebates for storefront improvements.

But, city officials and merchants alike agree that the pending renovation of the Strand Theater is pivotal to revitalization of the business district. Officials said that word on the Federal Economic Development Administration's grant for renovation is due in January.

In addition to the M. Harriet McCormack Center for the Arts, which has worked four years to build interest in the Strand renovation, four other groups—the U. Mass. Theater Arts Department; the Berklee School of Music; the Caravan Theater and the Charles Street Players—have expressed interest in using the theater.

Jack Reilly, Neighborhood Business District specialist for the area, announced new officers of the Uphams Corner Businessmen's Association. They are: Jim Hart, attorney, president; John Cascarano, J.C.'s Cafe, vice-president; Alfredo Dejesus, Casa Noel, vice-president; Donald Carlier, Barker and Carlier, treasurer; and Mike Stanton, Deli Delicious, secretary.

Jim Baeker, of the BRA, told the group that the city is working on better lighting, changes in traffic pattern, and signals for Columbia Road. Some $860,000 has already been budgeted for installation of mercury lights from the Southeast Expressway to Blue Hill Avenue.

In addition, the BRA is working with Elm Farm Market to renovate its parking lot and the facade of their building. The city also said that $5,000 has been budgeted for street amenities in the business district, such as trees, benches, and signs.

Lydia Mercado of the BRA expressed interest in working with the Businessmen's Association to promote a positive image of Uphams Corner. All agreed to hold a Spanish festival in the spring as planned and to continue seeking greater involvement of the Spanish community in neighborhood affairs.

Police Captain Bulens assured the group that police protection in the Uphams Corner area was on a par with that in all other neighborhoods and would continue. He added that police officials are seeking to incorporate coverage of Columbia Road in one district, District 11. Presently, responsibility for Columbia Road is divided between District 11 and District 2.

Little City Hall Manager Tom Irwin said that street-cleaning schedules need to be changed and that he would recommend an additional Cushman cart be assigned to the area. He asked the merchants to consider mounting an anti-litter campaign targeted at children, residents, and merchants alike.

Jack Reilly said that he had been in contact with Gulf Oil Company regarding their gas station in the area. They are thinking of selling it and soon will make their decision. They did indicate that if they do hold on to the station they would make it a self-service operation. The Businessmen's Association intends to petition for maintenance of a full-service station for their residents.

All participants agreed at the meeting's conclusion to keep lines of communication open. Vice-Mayor Sullivan congratulated the group on their efforts to date and told Jim Hart, president of the Businessmen's Association, that he was available to him at any time.

MAYOR RELEASES FUNDS FOR JAMAICA PLAIN

Acting on a promise made last year to encourage reinvestment in Boston's neighborhoods, Mayor White, on December 8, authorized release of $110,700 in matching funds to the Jamaica Plain Banking and Mortgage Committee.

Last summer, the Mayor pledged to match 50 percent of community deposits made in local banks for special mortgage pools in an effort to increase available credit, financial leverage, and end discriminatory loan practices among the city's older neighborhoods.

The Jamaica Plain Banking and Mortgage Committee, through the Greenlining Deposit Campaign, has made deposits in two local banks totaling $221,219.18.

In turn, the city will deposit over $90,000 in the Jamaica Plain Cooperative Bank and over $20,000 in the Roxbury-Highland Cooperative Bank.

"I am delighted to release these funds," the Mayor said. "This effort was designed to encourage local residents, acting in cooperation with local banks, to reinvest their money in their neighborhoods. It has been a successful effort.

"Certainly this kind of voluntary effort among the private banking community, local residents, and the city is one which goes a long way toward Boston's solving Boston's problems," the Mayor said.

"Mortgage and home improvement loans have long been denied to individuals with sound income capabilities just because they live in older parts of Boston," he said. "When credit is denied a neighborhood, a homeowner's equity is destroyed, dragging along with it neighborhood vitality.

"Bringing additional funds to local banks will, and certainly in this case has, increased financing in the neighborhoods," the Mayor said.

"I am grateful to two persons, in particular for their efforts — Winky Cloherty, the founder of the Jamaica Plain Banking and Mortgage Committee and Silbert Billouin, president of the Committee. They have made the kind of commitment to this city and its neighborhoods that we all should be proud of," the Mayor said.

The checks were presented to the Jamaica Plain Banking and Mortgage Committee by Andrew Olins, the Mayor's housing advisor.

PARKS DEPARTMENT PROGRAMS

The Boston Parks and Recreation Department offers a unique learn-to-swim program for children with learning, emotional, or coordination disabilities. The program offers highly individualized instruction in a noncompetitive manner for children ages seven through twelve years.

The program is offered on Friday evenings from 5:30 to 7 p.m. at Draper Pool, at the intersection of Washington and Stimson Streets, in West Roxbury. Currently, there are openings for additional participants.

For registration or more information, contact Dan Needham or Jo Ruggeri, at 725-1878 or 725-1982.

HAVE A POSITIVE SELF-IMAGE

Oliver Wendell Holmes once attended a meeting in which I was the shortest man present.

"Doctor Holmes," quipped a friend, "I should think you'd feel rather small among us big fellows."

"I do," retorted Holmes. "I feel like a dime among a lot of pennies."

Each of us has certain physical, mental, and spiritual characteristics. Thank God for your assets, as His help to overcome — or live with — your liabilities. Spend more time doing what you can, and less lamenting over what you cannot.

MOTORISTS: TAKE NOTICE

The Massachusetts Turnpike Authority reminds motorists that the latest road conditions are available by calling one of the following numbers:

Pittsfield Area, 413-637-2555.

Springfield Area, 413-594-6618.

Worcester Area, 617-791-3316.

Boston Area, 617-237-5210.

Chairman John T. Driscoll said the Authority is always concerned about the safety and comfort of motorists using the Turnpike. The recorded message he added is another service aimed at meeting the needs of Turnpike users.

MAYOR DEDICATES "SOUTHIE'S" PARKING FACILITY

At the request of South Boston's businessmen, Mayor Kevin White dedicated the new seventy-car parking lot on West Broadway, December 10.

"I am pleased to be able to respond to the wishes of South Boston's merchants and open the parking lot early to accommodate residents and merchants alike during the Christmas rush," Mayor White said.

"The new $600,000 parking lot is one of the most expensive and attractive lots developed to date across the city," Mayor White said. With a seventy-car capacity, new lighting, benches, and trees, it will offer more pleasant and easier access for residents who shop on Broadway."

Dick Hogan, director of the neighborhood Business District program said that the city is pledged to keep lines of communication open between the businessmen and the administration. "I think that the Mayor's willingness to cut red tape and respond to the wishes of Southie's businessmen indicates that we want to share each other's problems and make sure the revitalization of Southie is kept right on track," said Mr. Hogan.

MAYOR URGES: REFORM JUDICIAL SYSTEM

*Statement of Mayor Kevin H. White,
December 9, 1976*

I congratulate Archibald Cox and the Governor's Select Commission on Judicial Needs for their excellent report calling for a major overhaul of the Massachusetts court system.

Reform of the judicial system is long overdue. The tremendous backlog of civil and criminal cases awaiting trial has been a source of frustration to citizens and police officials alike.

In addition, the funding of the court system by local jurisdictions has led to inefficiency, lack of accountability, and inequitable property tax burdens throughout the state.

I have long argued that Boston taxpayers bear a disproportionate share of the burden for Suffolk County court costs. Suffolk County courts provide regional and statewide services and include district courts serving Winthrop, Chelsea, and Revere, yet only Boston residents have been required to foot the bill.

I am glad that the Commission agrees that Boston property taxpayers should be relieved of this inequitable burden and that the state should assume the full cost of county courts.

I heartily endorse their recommendation and will work with Boston legislators to ensure its speedy adoption.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising based on the following commitments:

CRIMINAL JUSTICE XEROX SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As Director of the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with public advertising, and to award a contract to Xerox Corporation, 100 Charles River Plaza, Boston, Mass., in an amount not to exceed $3,600, for the period January 1, 1976, to December 31, 1976.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-351), as amended by the Crime Control Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-644), and the Crime Control Act of 1973 (P.L. 93-83).

The purpose of this contract is to allow Xerox Corporation to provide temporary photocopy, rental and complementary services, maintenance and supplies for the Treatment Alternative for Street Crime to Adults, 556 Washington Street, Dorchester, Mass.

The request for photocopy services from Xerox is made because of the unusual capacity of that equipment to handle the criminal justice records. Especially in the case of court files which are placed on hard-to-handle sheets. In addition, the Xerox machine can handle two-sized copies which helps form processing and also cuts paper costs. A survey of other companies indicates that the Xerox machine offers a unique capacity to handle criminal justice files at a substantially lower cost.

Because of the unique services required to perform the function of this contract, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Respectfully,

DONALD A. MCGOWAN,
Executive Director.

DRUG TEST KITS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As Director of your Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with public advertising in the award of a contract to the Anaclin Corporation, 12020 Chandler Boulevard, North Hollywood, California, in an amount not to exceed $6,500, for the period January 1, 1976, through December 31, 1976.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Governor's Committee on Criminal Justice under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-351), as amended by the Omnibus Crime Control Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-644), and as further amended by the Crime Control Act of 1973 (P.L. 93-83).

The purpose of the contract is to allow the Anaclin Corporation to supply drug test kits to the TASC-A program, operating to combat drug abuse in our city. The kits are needed to fulfill the terms of the federal grant which TASC works under, to insure that clients of the program are no longer drug dependent.

Because of both the unique services required to perform the function of the contract and the proven ability of the Anaclin Corporation in the reliability of their tests results, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Sincerely,

DONALD A. MCGOWAN,
Executive Director.

SECURITY PROGRAM ASSESSMENT

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As Director of your Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with public advertising in the award of a contract to Boston Urban Observatory through the University of Massachusetts, in an amount not to exceed $10,000, for the period September 25, 1976, to December 31, 1976.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-351), as amended by the Omnibus Crime Control Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-644), and by the Crime Control Act of 1973 (P.L. 93-83).

The purpose of this grant is to allow an Boston Urban Observatory to conduct an assessment evaluation of the Boston Public Housing Security Program. With the information obtained from this project, we will be better able to determine what types of security programs work in the public housing setting.

Because of both the unique services required to perform the function of this contract and the expertise of the Boston Urban Observatory in the areas of community development and public housing security issues, we believe that public advertising would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Respectfully,

DONALD A. MCGOWAN,
Executive Director.

III. LETTER OF THANKS

"October 22, 1976.

DEAR COMMISSIONER PAUL:

I am writing concerning the most efficient lifesaving assistance rendered my wife (Cynthia S. Alexander) about 7:45 P.M., October 17, 1976. I did not get proper identification of the unit involved. Therefore I am writing to you requesting that you thank the proper people for us.

We were in Room 1444 at the Parker House. Cynthia had developed a very rapid heart beat accompanied with chest pain and shortness of breath. The hotel cooperated in an excellent way to give us some help. A Fire Department lifesaving crew came in a very few minutes. They worked efficiently with oxygen, bloodpressure check, etc. Shortly Cynthia's condition improved with more normal heart activity and a return of proper color. The lifesaving crew helped get her in an ambulance headed to a good hospital (New England Medical Center Hospital) where she continued receiving excellent care.

The doctors decided it would be satisfactory for Cynthia to return to Charlotte the afternoon of October 20. She is improving.

Please pass along to the proper people our thanks for being so nice and efficient. We are very grateful to your unit and others who helped us during a trying experience.

Very truly yours,
J. P. ALEXANDER,
1923 Ferncliff Road,
Charlotte, N.C. 28211."

These firemen arrived on the scene within minutes of receiving a neighbor's call for help to assist my Dad. They realized instantly he was in serious difficulty after taking a heart attack, and without hesitation, they bundled him into the cab engine and drove to the Carney Hospital from Richmond Street (corner of Washington Street, Dorchester).

This was not the first time the firemen of Ladder 6 have helped us in time of need, however, we are so very thankful again. We want you to know what fine men are serving on Ladder 6. Our sincere thank you is extended to them.

THE DORGAN FAMILY,

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS

November 26.

Special Order No. 76-107

To: All Bureaus, Divisions, Districts, Offices, Sections, and Units.

Copies to: All Superintendents, Deputy Superintendents, and Directors.

During the past few days, the department has engaged in high-speed pursuits in which a motorist has been killed. While these deaths have not been the direct result of our officers' actions, they have focused attention on our pursuit driving policy.

Every member of the department should be sure that they are thoroughly familiar with the provisions of Rule 301 (Pursuit Driving). Section 2 should be carefully noted, especially the following:

"The department recognizes its obligation, and that of its members, to minimize the hazards of motorized flight and pursuit to those involved as well as to innocent persons in the area. The officer pursuing a person who, if not apprehended, presents a serious danger to the community must weigh carefully his duty, not only to remove that danger, but to do so without incurring a greater and more immediate danger. Motorized pursuit is clearly inappropriate when the pursuit itself endangers life more than the escape of the wanted subject."

The lives of our officers and those of innocent members of the community are too valuable to risk because of an unproductive hot pursuit. Therefore, every officer is to be sure that they are familiar with the guidelines set forth in Rule 301 and that they are followed.

November 29.

Commissioner's Memorandum No. 76-138

To: All Bureaus, Divisions, Districts, Offices, Sections, and Units.

Copies to: All Superintendents, Deputy Superintendents, and Directors.

The department has received a communication from the Donahue Civil Service School concerning their offering, a pre-examination study course for department personnel intending to take the sergeant's examination on Saturday, February 12, 1977.

The Donahue School's promotional study course will commence on Tuesday, November 30, 1976, at 12.30 P.M. or 7 P.M. and will last for approximately eight weeks. The enrollment fee is $55. The school is located at 739 Boylston Street, Boston. For further information and details regarding the course, call 536-8020.

The content of the course will cover the following:

1. First-Line Supervisory Practices; 2. Principles of Police Administration; 3. Patrol Operation and Tactics; and 4. Chapter 90.

The Boston Police Department does not endorse or recommend any individual private pre-promotional training offered outside the department. There are several other pre-promotional training programs offered from time to time in the Commonwealth.

Interested officers are encouraged to evaluate each program for its relevance to the particular Boston Police promotional exam process.

City Launches Drive for Unpaid Taxes

The City of Boston has started a major effort to collect approximately $50 million from delinquent taxpayers. Special bill collectors have started working and dunning letters have been sent to the defaulters.

Kathryn Frazer, official in the office of management and budget, is overseeing the important project. The goal is to collect $20 million by June 30, 1977. More than $20,000 in payments have been received to date from frightened property owners and some have promised prompt payment.

The letters warning the delinquents of possible seizure of their personal property and possible arrest appears to have hastened long due payments to the city.

"We mean business," said Newell Cook, an assistant to James V. Young, the city treasurer, who ordered the program. Mr. Cook has been planning the details for nine months.

The city can legally seize autos, boats, televisions and savings and checking accounts for nonpayment of taxes.

"Seizing cars is an effective way of letting people know that we're serious," Ms. Frazer said.

In some instances, the city may even resort to seizing real estate, by the tax title route, taking over management of property and collecting rents for it.

The approximately $50 million the new collectors are seeking represents unpaid fiscal year 1975 and 1976 real estate taxes. The $50 million amounts to about four percent of total assessments for the two years.

The real estate tax collection program, the city's largest effort, complements a more aggressive drive to collect motor vehicle excise taxes that began six months ago. The excise tax drive has drastically increased collections, Mr. Cook said.

For example, collections of bills outstanding for the past four years are 306 times better this year than in previous years. It is believed the city is owed about $20 million in such taxes over the last ten years. Much of that is uncollectible, Mr. Cook said.

Mr. Young's office is also planning to accelerate collection of parking fines. Estimates are that only between 20 and 50 percent of parking offenders pay their tickets. As a result, the city may be losing more than $5 million a year in revenue.

Recently, in the Delinquent Tax Collection Unit's new offices, eight collectors started work and six others were being briefed by Ms. Frazer.

The 20 collectors hired — 20 more will be added next month — are temporary employees who were recruited from Boston law and graduate schools. They "are anxious to be detectives," Ms. Frazer said.

The office will be open from 9 A.M. to 8 P.M. The new, part-time employees will do much of their work in the evening, following up letters and telegrams with personal calls to delinquents.

"We all know that Mayor White is looking for new sources of revenue for the city," she said. "This is one source of revenue that is already owed. And we plan to collect it."

CHRISTMAS JUVENILIA EXHIBIT AT BPL

The Boston Public Library announced the opening last week in the Boston Room of the Central Library, Copley Square, of an exhibition of rare, exciting Christmas Juvenilia of the 19th century from the private collection of Herbert H. Hosmer. The items exhibited capture in exciting diversity the charm and nostalgia of holidays past.

From Mr. Hosmer's John Greene Chandler Memorial Museum in South Lancaster, Massachusetts, come such treasures as the original watercolors for A Visit of St. Nicholas, a movable panorama of The Night Before Christmas, a quaint cardboard stand-up Santa Claus, an antique dishcloth depicting holiday views, a very unique slide-panel of St. Nicholas descending the chimney, and several three-dimensional manger scenes.

Mr. Herbert H. Hosmer, Jr. has assembled the exhibit as part of a lifetime dedication to juvenile books and toys. A descendant of the Massachusetts printer, lithographer, and wood engraver John Greene Chandler. Mr. Hosmer has placed the treasures of childhood in the South Lancaster museum which is used by scholars, historians, authors, illustrators, and collectors from the United States, Canada, and Europe. Many of the items in Mr. Hosmer's collection are available for viewing and study in few other places in the world, particularly the paper dolls, cut-out toys, original hand-colored drawings, doll houses, and puppets.

In addition to his John Greene Chandler Memorial Collection at the Little Book House Museum, Mr. Hosmer established in 1941 the Toy Cupboard Theatre for puppet shows and, in 1947, the Toy Cupboard Museum of dolls, toys, doll houses, and other juvenile delights.

Mr. Hosmer serves as a distinguished member of the Lancaster Historical Commission and was active on the Lancaster Bicentennial Committee. He is a trustee of the Lancaster Town Library where some member of his mother's family has been associated on staff or as a trustee since the founding of the library in 1797. He has written numerous articles on historical Lancaster and on his own collections.

In his announcement of the impressive holiday exhibit, Philip J. McNiff, Director of the Boston Public Library, commented on the impact he anticipates the exhibit will have on holiday visitors. "Our visitors, especially children, will be able to experience through contemporary eyes a little of the excitement the children felt 100 years ago when they witnessed delightful views of Santa Claus stepping from the chimney to the warm hearthside. We are especially grateful to Mr. Hosmer for sharing this collection with us since so much of this kind of material has been lost or loved to shreds."

The exhibit is scheduled to be on view in the Boston Room through December 31. The Boston Room is open during all library hours.

MBTA SELECTS DESIGN CONTRACTS FOR SOUTHWEST CORRIDOR PROJECT

The Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority have selected engineering and design firms for up to $3.2 million for the three sections of the Southwest Corridor relocation of the MBTA Orange Line. The contracts — for transit work, design of eight stations and possible preliminary design of the adjacent arterial street — are subject to approval by the MBTA Board of Directors and the Urban Mass Transportation Administration.

The project involves the relocation of about 4.7 miles of the existing Orange Line to Conrail's main line right-of-way from the planned South Cove Tunnel portal through Back Bay Station to Forest Hills; replacing the existing four-track railroad with three new tracks east of the parallel new two-track transit line; building new stations at Back Bay, Massachusetts Avenue, Ruggles Street/Northeastern University, Roxbury Crossing, Jackson Square, Boylston Street, Green Street, and Forest Hills; construction of a six-lane arterial street between Tremont Street/Columbus Avenue and Jackson Square and possible construction of a four-lane arterial street from Jackson Square to Forest Hills; and construction of 14 new highway bridges and, as necessary, pedestrian bridges, acoustic walls and decks, and landscape decking. The design effort for the project has been broken into three geographical segments.

Selected for Segment 1 — from the vicinity of the planned South Cove Tunnel portal to Massachusetts Avenue — was Kaiser Engineers in joint venture with Fay, Spofford and Thorndike, Inc., for an estimated contract price of $1,980,000. Sub-consultants for the station design in this segment will be Kallmann and McKinnell Architects with Bond/Ryder Associates, for Back Bay Station, and Wallace, Floyd, Ellenzweig, Moore, with Equity Design, Inc., for Massachusetts Avenue Station.

Kaiser Engineers/Fay, Spofford and Thorndike were also chosen as coordinating consultant for the project.

Selected for Segment 2 — from Massachusetts Avenue Station to Jackson Square Station was Frederic R. Harris, Inc., at an estimated contract price of $610,000. This consultant will also do the preliminary design work for the proposed arterial street as necessitated by the transit project. Sub-consultants for station design in this segment will be Stull Associates, Inc., for Ruggles Street/Northeastern University Station; Charles F. McAfee Architect and Planners with Jung Brannon Associates, Inc., for Roxbury Crossing Station; and Turner Associates O, C, with Huygens and Tappe, for Jackson Square Station.

Selected for Segment 3 — Jackson Square Station to Forest Hills Station — was Howard Needles Tammen and Bergendoff, Inc., at an estimated contract price of $610,000. Sub-consultants for station design will be Kuhitz and Pepi, for Boylston Street Station; Mintz Associates with the Leon Bridges Company, for Green Street Station, and Cambridge Seven Associates with Robert L. Wilson, A.I.A., for Forest Hills Station.

The engineering and design work is scheduled to be completed in nine

LOW-COST PARKING PROGRAM CONTINUES

Real Property Commissioner Joanne A. Prevost has announced the start of a second-year program of low-cost, all-night parking at the Government Center Garage to aid local residents during the winter months.

Motorists will be able to park from 8 P.M. to 8 A.M. for 50 cents to ease the burden during inclement weather and when on-street parking is restricted to the even side of the street during snow emergencies.

The program was instituted with the cooperation of Joseph Somario, operator of the 1,500-car facility located at the intersection of Sudbury and New Congress Streets. The garage is owned by the city but is leased and operated by Mr. Somario.

"The program of low-cost, all-night parking proved to be very successful last year, and I am pleased to be able to again provide this service," Commissioner Prevost said. "I am grateful for Mr. Somario's cooperation and willingness to help the city's residents, particularly those of the North End, Beacon Hill, and the downtown area who are hard pressed for available parking spaces during bad weather," she said.

Winter parking regulations adopted this year by the Traffic and Parking Commission require that residential parking be restricted to the even side of the street during declared snow emergencies.

CELEBRATE NEW YEAR'S EVE: IT'S FREE

First Night 1977 is a citywide celebration of New Year's Eve, through a month of workshops in Greater Boston museums and neighborhood centers, and an evening of free performances, visual arts, and events on and near Boston Common. The purpose of First Night is to provide a meaningful avenue of expression on a holiday that usually lacks one, and to begin a new tradition for Boston. The First Night Committee is planning the event, with sponsorship by Boston 200, Office of Cultural Affairs, Department of Parks and Recreation, Friends of the Public Garden and the Common, and the MBTA. It is not, however, the city's festival, but a broad range program run by and for the people of Greater Boston. It seeks to bring all peoples together, through participation in events and rituals relating to New Year's Eve. First Night's hope is to rekindle the positive spirit of the Tall Ships and July Fourth concert on the Esplanade, in an annual tradition.

On December fourth, First Night began with the first of 36 workshops for the making of masks, head-dresses, costumes, puppets, effigies, and noisemakers. Workshops were held in museums such as the Institute of Contemporary Art, Museum of Fine Arts, Children's Museum, and De Cordova Museum, and neighborhood centers from Chinatown to South Boston. At 6:30 New Year's Eve, church bells will chime, to beckon everyone to the music, dance, theater, visual art, films, multimedia events and happenings in 14 churches, facilities, and subway stations within walking distance of Boston Common. From Copley Square to Tremont Street there will be such events as choral singing, opera, participatory theater, puppet shows, folk music, contemporary and medieval dancing, improvisational theater, mime, and poetry reading. While these programs are scheduled indoors, there will be a dazzling spectacle of Common events outdoors. Nineteen artists will transform the Common with light and sound from the Aeolian Wind Harp, large scale balloons, illuminated ice skating on the Frog Pond, a candle-lighting ceremony, a treasure hunt, and more. Sorry, Guy Lombardo is busy. An enclosed tent will serve food and beverages at minimal cost.

At 11 P.M. a procession will begin led by artists, a dragon, costumed marchers, and people carrying giant puppets on sticks and lanterns glittering on their way to the Common. Everyone will sing the First Night Theme as part of the Midnight Celebration. All the events on New Year's Eve are free, scheduled from 6:30 P.M.-12:15 A.M., and geared for all ages and interests. For First Night T-shirts and more information call 523-0514, or 523-2482. First Night 1977 is a non-profit organization. Contributions are sought from individuals, corporations and foundations. We wish you all a healthy and happy new year.

BOSTON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The steep conical roof with crowning coronet is the distinctive feature of the former Boston Chamber of Commerce Building, popularly known as the Flour and Grain Exchange. Built in 1890-92 and recently rehabilitated for offices, it was designed by Shepley, Ruman and Coolidge in the Romanesque revival style established by their predecessor, H. H. Richardson, architect of Trinity Church in Copley Square. The large, three-story arches of the granite facade emphasize the former trading floor used by the Exchange. The building and its immediate neighbors illustrate the range of nineteenth-century architecture to be found in the Custom House district.

DISPLAY OUR FLAG PROUDLY

CETA FUNDS FOR MASSACHUSETTS

The United States Commerce Department has allocated $49.7 million in Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) funds to Massachusetts communities, with $6,575,486 planned for Boston, Senator Edward M. Kennedy announced on December 14.

Other large grants went to: Hampden County Consortium, $4.2 million; Eastern Middlesex Human Resource Development Association, $2.8 million; Worcester Consortium, $2.7 million; Lowell Consortium, $2.2 million; New Bedford Consortium, $1.8 million; and Brockton Consortium, $1.7 million.

MAYOR WILL REDUCE 1977 BUDGET

Ten million dollars will be cut from Boston's 1977 budget, Mayor White announced December 16. This cut could mean the loss of more than 150 jobs by February 1.

Departments most affected would be police, fire, public works, health and hospitals, and possibly some libraries. The Mayor said the reductions figure to convince the community that the city intends to cut down its expenditures. He also wants to avoid another significant tax rate increase.

The Mayor said personnel cuts would probably occur around February 1. He explained the reductions were merely "short-range" and could be followed by "long-range" in July unless Boston receives tax relief from the Legislature.

He commented that his attempts to convince the legislators that Boston and other cities cannot depend on property tax alone for revenue have been futile.

The Mayor was more optimistic about persuading those in the bond market. "I'm trying to sell the bond market on credibility" he said. "I want to open the door to the local market which automatically opens the door to the national market."

He said Boston plans to borrow $100 million in short-term notes between now and July. Between $30 and $50 million is in the process of being borrowed.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT LEASING CERTAIN PREMISES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I request your Honor's written permission to dispense with public advertising in entering into an agreement with the University of Massachusetts, a state university under MGL, chapter 75, for the use of space at the university's facility at 100 Arlington Street, Boston, by students of Madison Park High School.

The need for this space has been brought about by the redistricting of high schools, as a result of which new high schools had to be established. A city-wide search for available classroom space was made and classroom space to accommodate this overflow situation was found at 100 Arlington Street.

The classroom space occupied last year has been reduced for this school year to two floors, the seventh and eighth. However this letter covers reimbursement for the use of the eighth floor only, as the seventh floor is being used without charge. (See explanatory letter from University of Massachusetts, dated July 29, 1976, attached to lease.)

All utilities (except telephone) will be provided by the university, together with security and custodial services.

Our occupancy will begin September 1, 1976, and terminate June 30, 1977.

No charge for rental as such will be made but the university has requested that we reimburse it for the utilities and services supplied. The monthly charge for these services will be $5,000 with the total cost for our period of occupancy not to exceed $50,000.

In view of the fact that this space has proven adequate and convenient, I do not feel that any useful purpose would be served by public advertising.

Very truly yours,
VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in leasing certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the Director for School Department purposes. There is a further delegation of power from the Commission to the Director to execute such lease, or extension thereof, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor of Boston.

The demised premises consist of educational and physical education facilities as shown in detail on Exhibit A attached to and forming part of the lease.

The term of the lease will be twelve months beginning July 1, 1976, and terminating June 30, 1977.

The rental for the term will be as follows: $437.50 per month for July and August, 1976; then $6,550 per month beginning September 1, 1976. The total cost will not exceed $66,375. (The monthly charge for the period September 1, through June 30, has been increased $100 from last year to compensate for additional use of physical education facilities.)

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is not felt by the writer that public advertising would be useful in this instance.

Very truly yours,
VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in leasing certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the Director for Youth Activities Commission purposes. There is a further delegation of power from the Commission to the Director to execute such lease, or extension thereof, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor of Boston.

The demised premises consist of approximately 490 square feet of space at 313 Washington Street, Brighton. This space will replace space formerly leased by the Youth Activities Commission in Brighton Center which was recently destroyed by fire.

The term of the lease will be approximately nine months beginning October 10, 1976, and terminating June 30, 1977.

The rental for the term will be $2,816.60, payable $216.60 for the 1st month on a prorated basis, and $325 per month thereafter, charged to YAC Account No. 1-13-79-49-0.

Utilities (exclusive of telephone) will be supplied by the lessor. The lessee will pay for its own heat.

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is not felt by the writer that public advertising would be useful in this instance.

Very truly yours,
VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in extending the lease of certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the Director for the Mayor's Office of Public Service purposes. There is a further delegation of power from the Commission to the Director to execute such lease, or extension thereof, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor of Boston.

The demised premises consist of approximately 2,400 square feet on the street floor of the building at 11-29 Roxbury Street, Roxbury.

The term of the lease will be five and a half months, from July 1, 1976, through December 15, 1976. On or before December 15, 1976, this agency will be moving to city-owned space.

The rental for the term will be based on monthly rent of $748.75 with the cost of its extension not to exceed $748.75 x 5 or $4,118.13.

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is not felt by the writer that public advertising would be useful in this instance.

Very truly yours,
VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in the City Record, in renewing of the lease of certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the Director for School Department purposes. There is a further delegation of power from the Commission to the Director to execute such lease upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

The premises to be leased consist of approximately 10,000 square feet of space at the Charlestown Branch of the Boys' Clubs of Boston, Inc., who is the lessor.

This space will be utilized for classroom purposes to relieve overcrowding at Charlestown High School.

The term of the lease will be from September 1, 1976, to June 30, 1977. This lease is effective September 1, 1976, instead of July 1, 1976, because of protracted negotiations with the School Department, this department and the federal court. The matter was not resolved in favor of renewing the lease until late August.

The term rental for these premises will be $31,890, payable in ten equal monthly installments of $3,189.

The lessor will provide all utilities and janitorial services at no additional cost to the city.

As these quarters have proven both adequate and convenient, it is not felt by the writer that public advertising would serve any useful purpose in this instance.

Very truly yours,
VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in leasing certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the Director for School Department purposes. There is a further delegation of power from the Commission to the Director to execute such lease, or extension thereof, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor of Boston.

The demised premises consist of the physical education facilities and dance studio, but excluding the pool, of the lessor at 140 Clarendon Street, Boston. The using school will be the Madison Park High School; and the hours and days of use are set forth on two pages attached to the lease marked Exhibit A.

The term of the lease will be approximately ten months, beginning September 13, 1976, and terminating June 24, 1977.

The rental for the term will be $9,960, payable in two equal installments of $4,980; one upon execution of the lease, and the other April 1, 1977.

Utilities (exclusive of telephone) and heat will be supplied by the lessor.

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is not felt by the writer that public advertising would be useful in this instance.

Very truly yours,
VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

PRINTING SERVICES, ETC.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on September 22, 1976, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising, and to award a contract to Consolidated Graphics Corporation, a Massachusetts corporation, 330 Reservoir Street, Needham, Mass.

Under the terms of the contract, Consolidated Graphics will provide printing and graphics services necessary (utilizing a four-color process) to produce not to exceed 5,000 copies of a combination annual report and eight-year summary of the operation of the Public Facilities Department, covering the period 1968 to 1975, at a cost for such services (payable as set forth in and further defined by the terms and provisions of the proposed contract) not to exceed $13,950.

For your Honor's further information, Consolidated Graphics was selected to perform this work on a solicited bid basis. After the specifications for the printing and graphics services required were approved by the department, eight printing firms were contacted and requested to furnish proposals for providing the necessary services. Consolidated Graphics submitted the lowest cost proposal, which, combined with the fact that they also have the in-house capability of preparing the required color-separation process (which not every printer is able to provide) resulted in their selection to perform the work.

In view of the professional and technical nature of the services to be performed, as well as the fact that award of the now-proposed contract follows the successful competition by Consolidated Graphics in the solicited bid process, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.
